All Were Prostrated and One So Badly Injured That His Life Is Despaired Of.

A DESTRUCTIVE STORM NEAR HOOKSTOWN

A destructive thunder storm visited the vicinity of Hookstown yesterday, creating havoc with the crops and resulting in injuries likely to cause the death of one man.

The storm gathered about 3 o'clock in the afternoon, and broke forth with all the fury of a western cyclone. The rain came down in torrents, and the lightning was the sharpest ever seen by the oldest residents. The storm was severest in the immediate vicinity of McCreary postoffice, where a large force of men were working the roads. Six workmen were in one party, and they were handling a road scraper to which several teams of horses were hitched.

The road workers had not noticed the approach of the storm, and were not prepared for it. At the very outbreak of the tempest a bolt of lightning struck the scraper, reducing it to scrap iron.

Wilbur McCullough was driving the horses, and was near the scraper when it was struck. He was knocked to the ground and rendered unconscious, while the remainder of the party were so severely shocked that they had to be assisted from the scene. When McCullough was picked up it was thought he was dead, but after a doctor, who was hastily summoned had made an examination, it was discovered that a spark of life still remained. Since then every effort has been made to revive him, but he remains in an unconscious condition, and will likely die.

One of the horses was killed outright, and the others rendered helpless by the shock. The other members of the party of workmen are all very ill today, and it will be some time before they have entirely recovered from their thrilling experience.

McCullough is a married man and has several small children. The family has the sympathy of the entire community, since the unusual occurrence, if it results fatally, will leave the wife in bad circumstances. The news was a severe shock to the friends and relatives of the McCulloughs at Chester, where they are well and favorably known.

THE BREAKING LEVEES THREATEN DESTRUCTION

Panic and Terror Seize the People of East St. Louis. Scores Drowned Already and More Horrible Calamity Imminent.

St. Louis, June 10.—(Special.)—Confronted by perils as great as threatened the people of Johnstown when the South Fork dam broke a few years ago, the residents of East St. Louis are in a state of panic and terror. Already scores of people have been drowned. It is impossible to estimate the exact number of victims, but it is reliably stated that fully 50 people are known to have met death in this way.

At noon today the conditions were more terrifying and alarming than ever. Water was rushing through half a dozen breaks in the levee, and it was thought that the utmost endeavor would be powerless to prevent the complete destruction of the embankment.

The city of East St. Louis is now nearly all under water, and at the present rate of rise will be totally submerged by evening. The governor has been appealed to for troops to protect property and a prompt response is anticipated.

Organized bands are doing their utmost to save life and property, but it looks as though human efforts would be largely unavailing, and that one of the gravest calamities recorded in recent American history would be the result.

BONDS MAY BE ISSUED BY VOTE OF THE COUNCIL WITHOUT ANY ELECTION

From present indications there will be a bond issue whether the people vote for it or not. Council last evening practically decided to adopt a recommendation made by Solicitor George E. Davidson, which gives the body the lawful right to issue bonds upon a two-thirds vote, when the issue is to extend time of payment of debts already existing.

Solicitor Davidson stated that he and J. J. Purinton, of the tax commission, had thoroughly investigated the sections of the code pertaining to the issuing of bonds and that they had found it to be unnecessary to submit the matter to the people. Previous action taken on the question was under the Longworth act, which provides for a popular vote. The solicitor argued that to carry out the plan as commenced the city will be put to an entirely unnecessary expense. The plan provides for the advertising of each fund separately and for a separate vote for each. The section under which the solicitor advises an issuance reads as follows:

"The trustees or council of any municipal corporation, for the purpose of extending the time of payment of any indebtendenss which, from its limits of taxation, such corporation is unable to pay at maturity, or when it appears to the said trustees or council for the best interest of the said municipal corporation, shall have power to issue bonds of such corporation or borrow money so as to change but not to increase the indebtedness in such amounts or for such length of time and at such rate of interest as the council may deem proper, not to exceed the rate of 6 per cent per annum, payable annually or sefi-annually; provided, however, that no indebtedness of any municipal corporation should be funded, refunded or extended unless such indebtedness shall first be determined to be an existing, valid and binding obligation of any such municipal corporation by a formal resolution of the trustees or council of such municipal corporation, which resolution shall also state the amount of the existing indebtedness to be funded, refunded or extended, the aggregate amount of the bonds to be issued therefor, their number and denomination, the date of maturity, the rate of interest they shall bear and the place of payment of principal and interest."

MAN WHO WORKS AT TWO TRADES

QUEER CASE INVESTIGATED

A peculiar condition exists in the ranks of the East Liverpool division No. 52, Amalgamated Association of Street Railway Employes, and an investigation by the officials has to the present only served to make matters worse.

Charles Heidrick came to East Liverpool some time ago and was admitted to membership in the street railway men's union. He has been known, the members say, as a very peculiar individual, and no one has been able to get next to him in a satisfactory manner. The case in question is best told by the members of the union, who said:

"When the matter first came to our attention we were informed that the man had taken the contract for painting a house in the east end of the city, and it was such an unusual occurrence that we determined to investigate. The business agent of the painters' union was informed and promised to look the matter up. Yesterday morning this individual went to the house and found Heidrick hard at work. He was asked if he thought it was altogether proper for him to be engaged at two trades when the painters were on strike. He informed the walking delegate that he did not care what his own local or the painters said; he proposed to go ahead with the work in hand. After obtaining a statement from Heidrick the agent lost no time in informing the officers of my union and an investigation was at once set on foot. The painter-motorman would make no defense, and it is likely that he will be deprived of his membership in our organization."

When seen Heidrick said the work on which he was engaged was a contract job, and being outside the state, the local painters had no jurisdiction. A special meeting of the street car men's union may be called to take action in Heidrick's case, but it may be left off until the regular meeting. In any case, the condition is one of the most peculiar the organization has had to deal with since its institution, and several of the officers are at a loss to know just what to do. It is likely Heidrick will be expelled from the union for conduct unbecoming a member of the union.

MANUFACTURERS MEET BY THE SEA

Representatives of Local Firms Go to the Seaside for Consultation.

Representatives of local pottery firms to the number of 25 left this afternoon on a special Pullman car attached to the 4 o'clock east bound train, for Atlantic City, N. J., where the semi-annual meeting of the Western Manufacturing Potters' association is to be held, commencing tomorrow. Representatives of other potteries in the western district will join the party enroute.

The manufacturers will doubtless take up the demands of the operatives, sanctioned by the national convention at Wheeling, though several members of the association, when approached by a News Review reporter this afternoon, refused to discuss the objects of the meeting

It is generally conceded, however, that the usual committee to confer with a committee from the Brotherhood will be appointed and a harmonious outcome is predicted. It is reported that the western manufacturers will confer with those in the east on matters of interest to the trade. The demands of the sanitary operatives will be considered separately and by different committees and will have no bearing on the general ware operatives and manufacturers.

SHOCKING DISPLAY OF BRUTAL TEMPER

People living on Franklin avenue were up in arms and justly indignant over the action of a well known man, who cruelly whipped a team of horses that he was driving up the thoroughfare this morning. The horses are fine appearing animals and were hauling an immense load. In some manner they tripped and fell down. The brutal man ran to some boys that were playing ball and seizing one of their bats went back to the horses and commenced beating them in a most barbarous manner.

A lady spectator fainted at the cruel sight and numerous others were nearly prostrated. A man passing by interfered and the degenerated driver turned upon him with the bat. It is said that the driver has done the same thing upon several occasions and the residents of the city have announced the intention of having him arrested.

CONGRESSMAN GILL BUYS A NEWSPAPER

From a Staff Correspondent.

Columbus, June 10.—Announcement has been made of the sale of the Dispatch, one of the oldest and best paying papers in Columbus, to the Dispatch Printing company, a corporation organized under the laws of Ohio, with a capital stock of $300,000. Congressman J. J. Gill, of Steubenville, owns a controlling interest in the company. Mr. Gill tried to purchase the Ohio State Journal, of this city, several months ago, when the property changed hands. It is stated he has been endeavoring for some time to secure a newspaper at the state capital as a means, it is surmised, of furthering his candidacy for governor.

Governor Nash has dismissed the charges brought to oust Mayor Charles Boach, Democrat, of Hamilton. Malfeasance in office was alleged, it being claimed the mayor was short something over $500 in his accounts. The latter claims that he remitted the amount alleged to be a shortage in fines and that not one cent of it went into his pockets. The governor threw out the case on the ground that the acts complained against did not occur since the code became effective. Mayor Boach is now serving his sixth term as mayor. The charges were filed by a faction which failed to defeat him. The governor has found that though the code empowers him to suspend or remove mayors, it gives him no authority to summon witnesses or have them sworn.

The result of the state bar examination nation was announced Tuesday evening. Out of a class of 275 applicants all passed but 39. One lady took the examination and was successful—Miss Ragan, of Napoleon. A large number of eastern Ohio applicants passed, among them being the following from Columbiana county: Loren B. Harris, of Salem; Clyde Brown Kenty, of Lisbon; William O'Grady, of Wellsville; Irving Holland Randolph, of Winona, and Charles F. Smith, of Salem. Those who passed will be sworn in by the supreme court this week.

The supreme court, in two decisions handed down yesterday, sustains the constitutionality of the law providing for the centralization of township school districts. The question was raised in Trumbull county.

Fined $1 And Costs.

James Hayes, arrested last evening by Officer Woods for being drunk, was arraigned this morning and pleading guilty to the charge was fined $1 and costs. He paid the amount and was released.

LABOR DAY PICNIC BEING ARRANGED FOR

The Labor day picnic committee of Trades and Labor Council held a meeting last night and a vast amount of work was attended to pertaining to the picnic which is to be held at Rock Springs in Septemoer.

The committee has succeeded in securing a permanent headquarters and will meet in the Potters' Herald office every Monday evening or oftener if the members deem it necessary. Preparations for the annual outing of the unionists of the city will be pushed from now on, and the committee will be very busy directing the work.

It is the intention to appoint subcommittees within a few days whose duty it will be to aid the general body. A program and printing committee was appointed at the meeting and will be composed of Charles Kontnier, Fred Pennington and Thomas Collins. A committee on sports was also appointed and will be made up of P. J. McKeone and John Reark. This is one of the most important departments of the celebration. Realizing this fact the general committee has resolved to begin work at once.

The sports committee promise a number of entirely new features in the sports line, and in order that the features may be properly handled a number of other members of Trades Council will be added to the committee.

REMAAKABLE HOLD ON LIFE SHOWN

Wounded Frank P. Nuzum Continues to Linger Between Life And Death.

Lisbon, June 10.—(Special.)—Frank P. Nuzum, the Elkton wounded man, is making a remarkable fight for life, although his case seemed a hopeless one from the start. He is reported to be very weak today, however, and his head is said to be affected.

The septic conditions of the wound, which recently made necessary the insertion of drainage tubes, seems to have been overcome and it is again healing.

Arbiters Not Necessary.

Kilnmen's local No. 9 held a special meeting last night to take action in regard to a dispute that had arisen at the C. C. Thompson plant over placing yellow ware in the bisque. After some discussion President Neal appointed the following committee to confer with the firm: Thomas Collins, Lyman Earl and Thomas Hodge. The firm receded from the position it had taken in the matter this morning and the services of the arbiters were not necessary.

Health Board Meets.

The board of health will hold an adjourned meeting this evening. Many matters of importance will be taken up by the members. Among them will be a section of the code providing for the appointment of an inspector of milk and ice.

News and Notes About The Potteries

THE EXPOSITION PLANT.

S. A. Weller, a manufacturer of art ware at Zanesville, will erect a $30,000 reproduction of his mammoth pottery plant on the Louisiana Purchase fair grounds at St. Louis, which he will operate during the life of that, the greatest exposition the universe has ever known. This announcement is made semi-officially and only lacks the signing of the contract to make the matter positively binding, most of the preliminary details having been gone over by the fair management.

Mr. Weller has stated that he had not actually signed the contract; that there yet remained some important details to be considered in closing before the papers would be graced by signatures, but that the coming ten days would suffice to settle all details. It has been the policy of the exposition people to grant but one such privilege; that is to say, there will be but one art ware factory on the grounds, and in getting together with Mr. Weller all other potteries of the Weller character are effectually shut out. It will therefore become patent that the Zanesville concern will have a clear field, and one can readily imagine the thousands of pieces of Dickens, Louelsa, Lonhuda and French productions that will be carried from the St. Louis grounds as souvenirs.

Mr. Weller anticipates taking a complete force of people from the kilnmen and jiggermen to the high priced artist to the exposition factory, to turn out ware as rapidly as possible, during all the time that the fair is in progress.

DELAY IN STARTING.

It is not likely that the Union plant, which has been undergoing a change from a line of scheme to general ware, will resume operations in full until after the mid-summer loaf. It has been given out, unofficially, that the clay hands will not be started until that time. The changes have taken longer than was at first thought and the plant could not be placed in rediness for the new line in time to accomplish much before the holiday season. Part of the operatives have been putting in a few days, finishing up the odds and ends of the ware that was in process of manufacture when the alterations were commenced.

DIED FROM BURNS.

Carl Smith, aged 23 years, is dead from the result of burns received a short time ago while making his escape from his burning home in Sebring, where he was employed as a shipping clerk with the Sebring Pottery company. At one time he was employed as a pottery salesman and was well known in this city. He was a popular young man and had hosts of friends in the western pottery district.

MAY HAVE BEEN KILLED.

One of the two homing pigeons sent to St. Louis, Mo., several days ago by Teddy McDermott, arrived home Monday morning in good time. The other one failed to appear and it may be that it was caught in the heavy wind and rain and killed.

WILL VISIT TIFFIN.

C. C. Smith, of the glost kiln crew at the Sevres, accompanied by his wife, will leave in a few days for Tiffin, O., to witness the commencement exercises of the high school of that city. Mr. Smith's brother, Grover C. Smith, is one of the graduates, and won the honor of being the valedictorian of the class. Mr. Smith will return shortly, while Mrs. Smith will remain a month with relatives.

IF YOU HAVE PAIN IN YOUR BACK

Do Not Be Deceived. You have Kidney Trouble, and You Do Not Need a Physician to Tell You So.

Pain in the back is an almost infallible sign of kidney disease; a surer sign is the condition of your urine. If you have a pain in the back, then look to the condition of your urine. It is easily done. Take a glass or tumbler and fill it with urine; after it has stood 24 hours, if it has a sediment, if it is milky or cloudy, if it is pale or discolored, stringy or ropy, your kidneys and bladder are in a dangerous condition and need immediate attention, or the consequences may prove fatal. Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy is the one medicine that really cures all diseases of the kidneys, liver, bladder and blood, rheumatism, dyspepsia and chronic constipation, and it will take you but a short trial to convince yourself of its wonderful curative power.

G. F. Sammer of No. 409 Tioga street, Syracuse, N. Y., in a recent letter says:

"I was afflicted for years with severe pains in my back and kidneys. I tried many doctors and many medicines, but got no relief. I bought a bottle of Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy and it has entirely cured me."

It is for sale by all druggists in the New 50 Cent Size and the regular $1.00 size bottles—less than a cent a dose.

GIBBS IMPROVING.

John Gibbs, bench boss of the glost kiln crew at Cartwright's, who has been seriously ill for the past month with typhoid fever, is recovering, much to the satisfaction of his many friends at the plant and over town. He was able yesterday to visit the plant for the first time since his illness and was given a hearty welcome. It will be a week or more until he is able to resume his duties.

HERRON "HOODOOED."

Will Herron, a gilder employed at Laughlin No. 2, seems to be "hoodooed" when playing ball. Within the last two years he has had his arm broken twice while playing foot ball and at present is laid up for repairs on account of a broken finger received while playing base ball last week. He will be unable to work for about three weeks.

PRESSERS WORKING AGAIN.

The pressers at the Sevres, who have been laid off for the past week because there was no work, went on again yesterday and have orders enough ahead to keep them busy until the mid-summer loaf. Basil Vogle, of the biscuit kiln crew, who has been idle for the same reason, also returned to work yesterday.

IN A TRANCE.

MORGAN DOING WELL.

Word has been received by friends in this city from George Morgan, formerly a kilnman at the Klondike, who went to California a short time ago for the benefit of his health, that he is doing well and improving. This will be cheering news to his many friends.

AMONG THE WORKMEN.

Teddy McDermott, of the glost crew at the Sevres, was among the excursionists to New Castle yesterday.

Fred Pennington and Pete Devine, of the packing department at the Sevres, were among those who took in the excursion to New Castle yesterday.

William Hesketh, boss packer at the Oliver, Sebring, has resigned his position and is undecided as to what he will engage in for the future. His successor has not been named.

Charles Kennedy, decorating kilnman at the Sevres, was seized with an attack of cramps yesterday morning while at work and was compelled to quit work. He is all right again today.

Thousands Have Kidney Trouble and Don't Know it.

How To Find Out.

Fill a bottle or common glass with your water and let it stand twenty-four hours; a sediment or settling indicates an unhealthy condition of the kidneys; if it stains your linen it is evidence of kidney trouble; too frequent desire to pass it or pain in the back is also convincing proof that the kidneys and bladder are out of order.

What to Do.

There is comfort in the knowledge so often expressed, that Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy fulfills every wish in curing rheumatism, pain in the back, kidneys, liver, bladder and every part of the urinary passage. It corrects inability to hold water and scalding pain in passing it, or bad effects following use of liquor, wine or beer, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go often during the day, and to get up many times during the night. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases. If you need a medicine you should have the best. Sold by druggists in 50c. and $1. sizes.

You may have a sample bottle of this wonderful discovery and a book that tells more about it, both sent absolutely free by mail. Address Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. When writing mention reading this generous offer in this paper.

CUUNCIL HELD A BUSY SESSION

THE CARBAGE QUESTION

Was Taken Up And It Was Resolved to Make a Contract With Otto Schmidtbauer for Hauling — Mayor's Office May Receipts Large.

The meeting of council last evening was one of the most important held since the new body took the oath of office. The entire membership was present and under the leadership of President Horwell an unusually large amount of business was attended to in a very short time.

Auditor Davidson was called upon for the recommendations of the two boards as to the tax levy they deem necessary to run their respective departments for the fiscal year. The safety board submitted the following: For the fire department, 2.3, which is equivalent to $13,800; for the police department, .5, calling for $3,000. The board of public service recommended for the streets, 2.8, or $16,800; for the lighting, 2.1, or $12,600, and .5, or $3,000, for the sanitary fund. The engineer's salary, $2,000; the street commissioner's salary, $900, and the secretary of the board, $200, are included in the above.

The reports were not discussed, the members being of the belief that they were correct and they were turned over to the finance committee of council. After this committee passes upon them they will be submitted to the tax commission and will then be returned to council for final action.

The street committee reported their investigation made of the plat submitted by Melvin Smith for acceptance. It was the decision of the committee that the plat should be rejected owing to the failure of Mr. Smith to meet the requirements of section 465. A motion was passed rejecting the plat.

Mr. Bullock stated that he had found a provision in the code relative to the passing of an ordinance placing a restriction on vehicles, but had not time to determine upon a tax that should be assessed. He was instructed to have an ordinance ready by the next meeting.

Mayor Weaver's report showed that considerable business had been done by the police during the month of May. He had collected $303, for fines and licenses, not including the fines imposed on two saloonists, which would have increased the amount $100.

Chief Morley's report was as follows: Fire calls, 4; patrol calls, 54; ambulance calls, 7, making a total of 65. The total number hauled to the city hall was 73.

A petition was submitted by residents and property holders on Cadmus street asking that the street from Minerva street to the Morton addition be sewered and graded. The petition was referred to the street committee and city engineer.

Mr. Bullock consumed considerable time in advocating a remedy for the garbage nuisance from the standpoint of its disposal. He said that at the present time the residents of the city are unable to get garbage hauled from their premises and he recommended that something be done. The question was discussed generally and council finally decided to instruct the board of public service to make a contract with Otto Schmidtbauer for the hauling of all garbage. The reason expressed for giving the contract to Schmidtbauer was that he has the proper kind of wagons and that no one should be allowed to carry the filth unless they obtain beds for their wagons that will not leak. It was also thought advisable for the contractor to have his wagons supplied with coverings, in order that residents will not be compelled to inhale the disagreeable effluvia while the wagons go through the city.

Mr. Johnston introduced the question pertaining to the propriety of passing an ordinance making it necessary for every street in the city having established grade lines. The question was discussed at length. Numerous damage suits have been won owing to grade lines being established after a house has been erected and the opinion expressed by the members was that all new plats should have the grade established before accepted and that before a grade is established on a street where buildings are standing a petition signed by every property owner on the thoroughfare should be submitted asking for the grade.

Mr. Croxall insisted that to take action at the present time would be unfair and inconsistent, arguing that heretofore the owners of a plat were not required to have a grade established. The argument did not meet the approval of the remaining members, all being of the opinion that simply because old councils had made a mistake was no reason that the present body should continue in like manner. There was no definite action taken on the matter but it will be given final treatment at the next meeting.

Contractor Rinehart had notified one of the members that he intends to sue the city for the money alleged to be due him for doing certain paving last year. The members were not much frightened at the threat, it being shown that he had not done the work in accordance with the order of council and the city engineer.

Mr. Smith stated that the East Liverpool Railway company has abandoned a switch laid several years ago on Dewey avenue and Pennsylvania avenue in order that a gravel pit might be reached and it is now being an obstruction. He moved that the company be ordered to remove it. The motion was carried.

Mr. Barlow asserted that a sidewalk in front of the residence of a Mrs. Surles on Grant street is in a terrible condition and asked that she be ordered to repair it. The matter was referred to the board of public service.

EAST END

Came in Yesterday With No Indications of Oil or Gas And Will Be Abandoned.

The first well drilled in on the holdings of the Rock Run Oil & Gas company in the Knoxville field proved to be a duster, and while the stockholders are a great deal disappointed, they are not discouraged, and other tests will be made. The hole was about 1,400 feet deep when the pay rock was reached yesterday afternoon, but there was no indication or either oil or gas.

Several hundred people watched the well come in, many of the spectators being farmers and land owners in the neighborhood. That oil was not found was a surprise to all. The well was located among other paying wells and from surface and topographical indications the prospects seemed bright. There was no "pay streak" in the rock, which was 47 feet through, and for this reason the well will not be shot.

A report was circulated in Toronto yesterday afternoon that a 100-barrel gusher had been struck and A. P. Ayler, who was in that city, brought the report to the East End, where it caused considerable excitement. A corresponding depression was noted when the trus state of affairs became known.

SPEEDY RACE HORSES AT COLUMBIAN PARK

Interest in the string of fast horses, owned by Harrison Rinehart and Sam Groves and quartered in Columbian park, has been growing since the warm weather permits of sending the animal around the track at a fast clip. The morning turnouts are witnessed by a great many people.

Redmond, the horse with quite a local reputation, is showing up well this year, and Joan, a half sister to the famous Dan Patch, has been doing some fast half miles. Lady France, another one of Rinehart's fast ones, promises to clip a few seconds off her record this season. Tom Moffet and "Fatty" Fowler are Rinehart's trainers.

It is conceded by turfmen that Groves has a promising goer in Gentry, Jr. He has several others in his stable and they are being trained for an early start in the racing season. Mr. Groves and Ed Lounsford are doing the training.

Celebration Was Marred.

The anniversary celebrations at the Swan home on Ohio avenue yesterday were marred owing to the inability of several children and near relatives to be presnt, owing to illness. Mrs. J. P. Lyenberger, of Toronto, and Rev. C. W. Swan and wife, of Shreve, were among the number detained for this reason. Among those present were: Rev. W. L. Swan and wife, of Salem; J. L. Swan, of Canton, and Miss Pearl Swan. The day was quietly spent and a big family dinner was served.

Damaged by the Storms.

'Squire L. W. Carman has received a letter from his son, C. S. Carman, of Iowa, telling of the devastation wrought in his section by the terrible rain and windstorms of the past week. The crops of many of the farmers were entirely destroyed and their loss can hardly be calculated. Mr. Carman was fortunate in comparison to some of his neighbors, losing but 47 acres of oats and about 50 acres of corn.

Foot Painfully Burned.

Mrs. W. C. Bryan, of Erie street, had her right foot painfully scalded yesterday while attending to some household duties. Mrs. Bryan was assisting a neighbor lady in lifting a wash boilerful of boiling water when in some way the vessel overturned, the contents psilling upon her foot. She is suffering excruciating pain and will be laid up for a number of days.

Social Tomorrow.

The ladies of the aid society of the Erie street M. E. church are anticipating a pleasant and profitable time at the social to be given tomorrow at the home of Mrs. Hamilton, corner of Ohio avenue and Chestnut street. Refreshments of ice cream and cake will be served.

EAST END AFFAIRS.

H. Carman, of Wellsburg, will be the guest of his brother, 'Squire L. W. Carman, tomorrow.

A. L. Bryant, of Lorain, is the guest of his son, W. C. Bryant, of Erie street.

"POOR DIGESTION, LANGUID AND TIRED."

[An Interesting Letter Concerning Pe-ru-na.]

Miss Della Janveau, Globe Hotel, Ottawa, Ont., is from one of the oldest and best known French Canadian families in Canada. In a recent letter to The Peruna Medicine Co., of Columbus, Ohio, she says:

"Last spring my blood seemed clogged up, my digestion poor, my head ached and I felt languid and tired all the time. My physician prescribed for me, but a friend advised me to try Peruna. I tried it and am pleased to state that I found it a wonderful cleanser and purifier of the system. In three weeks I was like a new woman, my appetite had increased, I felt buoyant, light and happy and without an ache or pain. Peruna is a reliable family medicine."

Adia Brittain, of Sekitan, O., writes: "After using your wonderful Peruna three months I have had great relief. I had continual heaviness in my stomach, was bilious, and had fainting spells, but they all have left me since using Peruna." -Adia Brittain.

If you do not derive prompt and satisfactory results from the use of Peruna, write at once to Dr. Hartman, giving a full statement of your case and he will be pleased to give you his valuable advice gratis.

THOUSANDS OF PYTHIANS AT M'KINLEY'S TOMB

Canton, June 10.—Three thousand or more Knights of Pythias, attending the 34th annual convention of the grand lodge of the Ohio domain, yesterday held the annual parade, which included a march and counter-march past the McKinley home, and a visit to the tomb of the late president Mrs. McKinley, with a small company of friends, viewed the column from the famous front porch. The marching knights approached the house with uncovered heads. They again uncovered their heads as they approached the tomb and the committee entered the vault to place the emblem of the order worked out in cut flowers on the casket.

Returning to the city the formal opening of the grand lodge occurred, Allen Cook, of the local committee, presiding. Welcoming addresses were delivered by Mayor W. H. Smith for the city, and by ex-Mayor James A. Rice, for the fraternal societies. The grand lodge degree was conferred. The afternoon was given over to an outing at Meyers' lake. In spite of showers and threatening weather the program of races, athletic contests etc., was carried out. The annual meeting of the past chancellors' association last night was followed by a banquet of that branch of the convention at Hotel McKinley. Several hundred members of the grand temple of the Rathbone Sisters are also here.

The collision was head-on and all the dead were in the first car. Rev. Mr. Gaston and his wife were in the eighth car and were not in the least injured. The baggage and mail cars were burned, and it is supposed that their baggage was in the burned car, as it has not yet arrived.

Rheumatism
Is Not a Skin Disease.

Most people have an idea that rheumatism is contracted like a cold, that the damp, chilly air penetrates the muscles and joints and causes the terrible aches and pains, or that it is something like a skin disease to be rubbed away with liniment or drawn out with plasters; but Rheumatism originates in the blood and is caused by Urea, or Uric Acid, an irritating, corroding poison that settles in muscles, joints and nerves, producing inflammation and soreness and the sharp, cutting pains peculiar to this distressing disease.

Exposure to bad weather or sudden chilling of the body will hasten an attack of Rheumatism after the blood and system are in the right condition for it to develop, but have nothing to do with the real true causes of Rheumatism, which are internal and not external.

Liniments, plasters and rubbing will sometimes reduce the inflammation and swelling and ease the pain for a time, but fail to relieve permanently because they do not reach the seat of the trouble. S. S. S. cures Rheumatism because it attacks it in the blood, and the Uric Acid poison is neutralized, the sluggish circulation stimulated and quickened, and soon the system is purified and cleansed, the aching muscles and joints are relieved of all irritating matter and a lasting cure of this most painful disease effected.

Bowling Green, Ky.

About a year ago I was attacked by acute rheumatism in my shoulders, arms and legs below the knee. I could not raise my arm to comb my hair. Doctors prescribed for me for over two months without giving me any relief. I saw S. S. S. advertised and decided to try it. Immediately I commenced its use I felt better, and remarked to mother that I was glad I had at last found some relief. I continued its use and am entirely well. I will always feel deeply interested in the success of S. S. S. since it did me so much good.

BLOOD POISON

On account of its terrible effects, blood disease is called the king of all diseases. It may be either hereditary or contracted; so while it may not be a crime to have the disease, it is a crime to permit it to remain in the system. It may manifest itself in the form of Scrofula, Eczema, rheumatic pains, stiff or swollen joints, itchiness of the skin, eruptions or blotches, ulcers in the mouth or on the tongue, sore throat, falling out of hair, disordered stomach, and a general depression of the system. If you have any of these symptoms don't neglect yourself. You have no time to lose. Beware of "old fogy" treatment—beware of mineral poisons—beware of Quacks and Fakirs. OUR NEW METHOD TREATMENT is guaranteed to cure this disease, never to return. Bank Bonds will protect you. Our treatment is not injurious in any way, but reaches the very root of the disease and eliminates all poison from the system. The symptoms of disease gradually disappear. The blood becomes pure and enriched, the whole system is cleansed and purified, and the patient feels prepared anew for the duties and the pleasures of life. In his testimony before the interstate commerce commission R. M. Olyphant, formerly president of the Delaware & Hudson railroad, said that the coal trust with which he is connected would raise the price of coal 10 cents a month until the maximum advance of 50 cents is reached. His explanation of this policy was that the exigencies of the trade justified the demand. But he did not explain the exigencies, and there was a word of significance in his assertion: "We could get a higher price if we asked for it." The coal trust has been too long defiant of law and public opinion. It affords a splendid opportunity for the government to make a practical test of the value and efficacy of the anti-trust legislation.

An appeal is now being issued by the committee in charge of the work of raising funds for the purchase of a silver service for the battleship Ohio, and for the proposed McKinley medallion figure to be attached to the forward turret of the vessel in memory of the lamented president. It is proposed to spend $25,000 or $30,000 on these mementoes. The sum is small in comparison with the wealth of the state, and the contributions ought to be prompt and ample. Every bank in the state is authorized to receive money for the purpose.

The Fruit Of the Vine

This drink has been our special pride and a general favorite ever since we first offered it for your approval. Its delightful qualities have never lessened. If possible it is better today than ever before. A cold, sparkling and thoroughly satisfying beverage that cannot be successfully imitated. Critical judges—those who know and appreciate the rare and delicious qualities of Grape Phosphate—never tire in telling of its virtues.

By an ordinance passed by the Columbus city council it will hereafter be a misdemeanor to allow weeds to grow on a vacant lot after notice has been given by the health department to cut them, and the offender is liable to a more or less heavy fine. This is one of the ordinances passed at the instance of the women of the capital city, who are making diligent efforts to rid the city of eyesores and nuisances.

Those newspapers who a short time ago foresaw that Cuba was drifting rapidly toward ruin have another guess. General Maximo Gomez, a visitor in this country, reports that the government is fulfilling the most sanguine expectations, Cuba is prospering and its people contented. Its rally has been wonderful, thanks to the treatment of its skilled physician, Uncle Sam.

Governor Bailey, of Kansas, before election, promised to get married if he got elected. He has now redeemed his campaign pledge and married a widow. Before he made a selection more than 2,000 women of various ages, merits and complexions offered to be his. The governor's experience has been unique, but doubtless not so amusing to him as to others.

The president is said to be impatient over the delay of the Colombian government in ratifying the canal treaty. The impatience is shared by the people. The great work ought to be begun; Uncle Sam is ready, and he will probably make it plain that he is not accustomed to do business on the "tomorrow" principle.

If the Democrats are to make a figure on tariff revision they would better prepare for a long campaign. The senate is decidedly Republican until 1907, and there is not the remotest chance of it being otherwise for a long time after that date.

"The Democratic party," Mr. Bryan declares, "is not the enemy of wealth." Yet, in spite of Mr. Bryan, history records that whenever Democratic policies have triumphed poverty has increased in this country.

The Republican candidate for vice president is already being discussed and Ohio men, as usual, figure most numerously on the list of those receiving honorable mention.

The college that teaches a man to work is filling the highest educational mission.

Uncle Reuben's Opinion.

"They may say what they please, but listen—hear me; I've taken all kinds of laxatives, purgatives and cathartics but when it comes to one that is easy and pleasant to take, mild and gentle in its action, and that makes one want an extra slice of bacon for breakfast, just give me Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets, and you may have all the laxative syrups, dyspepsia medicines and pills little or big, there is in this country. Them Tablets surely do make one feel joyful." For sale by Alvin & Bulger.

Nature hid one of her greatest blessings in the liver of a fish, but practically prohibited its use by the nauseating grease and fishy flavor. Science has now extracted this good without the grease, and presented it to suffering humanity in the form of Hagee's Cordial of Cod Liver Oil.

Lisbon, June 10.—(Special)—The recently organized Columbiana County Medical society held its first monthly meeting in the room of the Business Men's association in this city yesterday afternoon. The president, Dr. W. N. Bailey, of East Liverpool, presided. Thirteen new members were added to the society as follows: Dr. William Moore, F. P. Moore, Frank Graham, G. H. Albright, W. C. Nevin, D. THE WESTERN RESERVE

THRILLING FRONTIER TRAGEDY.

The reader who sits today in his comfortable home and enjoys the peaceful life of this section of our land can scarcely appreciate the great hardships which the pioneer settlers of Pennsylvania and Ohio endured a century and more ago, as they fought back the wilderness line and brought this rich country under cultivation and civilization. This is the story of the first white child born in the Western Reserve, and of the melancholy fate which overtook it. The first exploring party of settlers whas led into the Reserve by General Moses Cleaveland in 1796. They were hardy men, born to conquer the wilderness and make it blossom as the rose, and they came with the conscious tread of those behind whom were following millions. In the western progress of the Cleaveland party a halt was made at a spot on the southern shore of Lake Erie, where since has grown up the town of Conneaut, Ohio. They were here for some time during the early summer of 1796, and then at length passed on westward to the mouth of the Cuyahoga, where they laid the foundations of a new city which is now known as Cleveland.

Here we leave them, for this story has to do with a brave man and his family who followed alone the track of the Cleaveland party. This man was James Kingsbury, who had in the early summer left his old home in New York state and set out with family and household goods to seek a newer habitation in the virgin Ohio country. Their sad adventures during the following winter furnish one of the most thrilling of frontier tragedies. Kingsbury belonged to that numerous class to whom the promise of new things always seemed the certainty of better things, and the great rich lands lying to the south of Lake Erie seemed like an Eden, or a Canaan, full of promise. Making all preparations possible he followed in the trail of General Cleaveland's surveying party. Only a short time after they had left Conneaut this venturesome family, consisting of husband, wife and several children, arrived at that spot. Constructing a crude cabin close by the lake, these pioneers settled down to spend the winter being the first family to winter in the Reserve. Their quarters were rude affording but poor accommodations for a man, not to say anything of the more tender woman and children who so bravely set their hands to the conquest of the untamed wilderness. Soon after this rough beginning was made Mr. Kingsbury found that he would have to make a journey back to his former home in the East to attend to some business matters which his sudden departure had compelled him to leave unfinished. This made necessary the leaving of his family alone in that exposed situation, but no one flinched from the hardship, and the husband and father sat out on his way. Weeks went by and the time of his expected return arrived. No sign of his approach was seen. The days passed and the weeks increased. The brave pioneer wife and mother began to fear that death had overtaken her absent loved one, but all she could do was to watch and wait. Food became scarce and they were compelled to reduce their allowance, so that hunger troubled them as well as cold. Their situation was becoming desperate, and there was no way of helping matters. Meantime, back in old York state, Mr. Kingsbury had attended to his business and was just about to set out on his return, when he was taken ill with a fever, which laid him up for long weeks. It would be hard to appreciate his feelings during this enforced delay. At last, well on into the winter, he was able to start back home. At Buffalo he hired an Indian guide, that he might save time. At Presqu Isle he bought twenty pounds of flour, all he could carry. Finally one morning he reached his cabin and the sight made his heart sick. His wife lay in bed ill, and in the advanced stages of emaciation from starvation. By her side lay the body of a child born during his absence, which had died for lack of nourishment. This was the first white child born in the Western Reserve, and such was its early and sad fate, born in a land rich and fertile, only to be starved to death in a few days. The other children were gaunt and hollow-eyed, but still living. The food which the father brought soon turned the tide of life, and trouble vanished for the time. A century has wrought marvelous changes at Conneaut. Where the lone cabin stood is now a busy, growing community of thousands, a commercial center of great activity. The actual site of the Kingsbury cabin has for three-quarters of a century been covered by the encroaching waters of the lake, as the shore line changed. It appears that Mr. Kingsbury in later years moved to the vicinity of Cleveland. Of him it is related that his was the hand which thrust the first sickle into a ripened field of wheat on the Western Reserve. In his later life he became a legislator and judge. During the past winter his grandson, an aged an honored Methodist Episcopal clergyman, died at Alliance, Ohio.

The Victoria Medal.

The Victoria medal is made out of bronze from Russian guns captured in the Crimean war. The design is the work of the prince consort of Queen Victoria. The medals are made separately and only when one is needed. Thus when some soldier or sailor, no matter what his rank may be, has shown "conspicuous bravery or devotion to the country in the presence of danger," as the act reads, the war office sends to the royal jewelers the bronze needed for the metal. It is carefully cast, filed smooth around the edges and then the design is brought out by engraving. The soldier's medal is suspended by a red ribbon and that of the sailor by a blue piece of silk.

A Letter to Mother.

"You promised mother a letter. Write it now," is one of the mottoes on the walls of the Nagasaki Home For Seamen, a motto that, it is asserted, has restrained more men from going wrong than almost any other influence of the place. Wanderers over the globe are not the only ones who need such a reminder. Indeed they might be able to give lessons in filial duty to many who have never realized how fortunate they are that home and mother are not far away, but near at hand.—Youth's Companion.

WELLSVILLE

OLD FASHIONED FOURTH FOR WELLSVILLE

Proposition for a Lively Celebration Now Under Serious Discussion.

The citizens of Wellsville have now begun in earnest to prepare for a glorious Fourth. Several of the labor organizations have taken up the good work and are devoting considerable of their time to aid making the celebration one to be remembered. A plan is now on foot to organize a band for the occasion. The material is here and it would be very little trouble to get it together. All the instruments necessary are in the city. Without any exertion at all a band of 15 pieces could be collected for this day and if things move smoothly the band could still hold together.

Quite a number of the business men of the city are interesting themselves in a general celebration and have expressed their willingness to make a donation. The program now proposed is in the morning to have all the contests, such as foot races, bicycle races, greased pig, greased pole, sack races, etc., and in the afternoon a good ball game at the park and in the evening the fire works.

Fined for Striking His Wife.

William Suggett, who was arrested Monday evening and jailed, was brought before Mayor Fogo yesterday afternoon. He was arrested for assault and battery on charges preferred by his wife, who said he beat her unmercifully, but after he had been placed in jail she wanted him released. Suggett works at E. E. Gamble's meat market and is a rather small man. The wife is large and strong. At the trial the husband stated that he and his wife had had frequent spats but this was the first time he ever struck her. The mayor imposed a fine of $4.60, which was paid. The husband and wife have become reconciled.

Janitor's Bond Approved.

The board of public service held a short meeting yesterday. Little business was transacted. The bond of Janitor Dallas Pittinger in the sum of $1,000 was approved, Stewart voting no. City Engineer Leith was instructed to engage fifty men and begin the work on the contemplated sewer on Charles avenue, from Eighteenth street to Kelly avenue. This sewer has been petitioned for several times by the residents. Mr. Leith was ordered to begin work today.

Repairing the Church.

The entire first floor of the Wellsville M. E. church was taken out yesterday and a new one is being laid with all possible speed. The floor has been in a rather poor condition for some time and a new one will improve the property greatly. The carpenters propose to have the work completed before Sunday, when the children's day exercises will be held. A delightful program has been arranged with an abundance of good music.

Bids Accepted.

Washington, June 10. — Secretary Moody announced the acceptance of the three lowest bids for the three new 16,000-ton battleships, and the following awards have been made: Minnesota—Newport News Shipbuilding company, of Newport News, Va., $4,110,000. Kansas—New York Shipbuilding company, of Camden, N. J., for $4,179,000, and the Vermont to the Fore River Manufacturing company of Weymouth, Mass., for $4,165,000. Secretary Moody has ruled that portable equipment is not to be included in the limit of cost fixed by changes which was $4,212,000 for each ship.

Fatally Shot the Girl.

Marion, Ind., June 10. — Sanford Love shot and probably fatally wounded Miss Nora Miller, aged 18, in the corridor of a fashionable flat building. The bullet entered the left breast. Three shots were fired, but two missed the mark. Miss Miller is one of the prettiest girls in the city. Jealousy is said to have been the cause of the tragedy.

Elevator Accident.

Washington, June 10.—With three other passengers, Col. William H. Michael, chief clerk of the department of state, fell four stories in an elevator, without serious results. The accident occurred in an apartment house in the northeast section, where Colonel Michael was visiting his daughter.

Important Financial Statement.

New York, June 10.—The statement is made on the best of authority that an offer has been made to the syndicate which has agreed to underwrite the $75,000,000 new Pennsylvania railroad stock at 120 by a very important financial interest to take over any part or all of the stock that may come into the syndicate's possesion. In fact, it is asserted that this financial interest is ready to take all the new stock. It is intimated that, with its present holdings, the possession of the new stock would probably carry control of that potential property.

SOUTH SIDE

The latest and best evidence of the thoroughly systematic plan on which the Rock Springs park is conducted and the honesty of the employes, came to light yesterday when a lady's watch of much value was found on the grounds. The bit of jewelry was at once taken to the head office, and there awaits the owner.

A Delightful Picnic.

CHAMBERLAIN'S EXIT

Rumored Resignation of Great Britain's Colonial Secretary.

HOUSE OF COMMONS IS PACKED

Even If He Is Persuaded to Remain in the Cabinet His Influence as a Political Power in Great Britain Is at Least Temporarily Eclipsed.

London, June 10—The rumored resignation of Colonal Secretary Chamberlain is the most startling development of the proposal of the chancellor of the exchequer, Mr. Ritchie, to abolish the corn tax, the debate on which kept the House of Commons to-day packed and spellbound until midnight. Even if Premier Balfour persuades Mr. Chamberlain to remain in the cabinet, the colonial secretary's preferential tariff program is hopelessly snowed under, and his influence as a political power in Great Britain at least temporarily eclipsed.

All the members of the government who contributed to the debate vigorously declared themselves as free traders and frankly opposed Mr. Chamberlain's proposals. Except for Mr. Chaplin, not a voice on either side of the house was raised in effective support of Mr. Chamberlain's campaign.

Former members of cabinet and private members, irrespective of party, protested against any dickering with Great Britain's fiscal policy. The Unionists vied with the Liberals in declaring themselves out-and-out free traders. All that was lacking in the complete rout of the Protectionist minister was Mr. Balfour's official pronouncement, as premier, and on behalf of the government that the cabinet as a whole refused to adopt Mr. Chamberlain's views.

"Black Michael" as he is familiarly called, was never seen to better advantage. The ministers sat with troubled faces, Mr. Balfour looking especially dejected. Mr. Chamberlain, deserting his usual place, paler than even usual, then stretched himself nonchalently at the end of the treasury bench. Throughout the afternoon he never exchanged a word with his colleagues. After Mr. Ritchie had denounced the colonial secretary's ideas Mr. Chamberlain stalked out of the chamber without even a nod to Mr. Balfour.

Member after member rose from the Unionist ranks; some who supported Mr. Chaplin refused to "eat their words," with which they had previously supported the government when the corn tax was originally brought in; others lauded Chancellor of the Exchequer Ritchie for his refusal to pander to the spirit of protection; all demanded that Mr. Balfour enlighten them regarding the government's view as a whole.

After the dinner recess the excitement was heightened by the absence of both the colonial secretary and the premier.

The latest gossip in best-informed quarters is to the effect that Mr. Chamberlain will not speak and that he will not resign, while the government will endeavor to dispose of the Irish land bill and stave off affairs until October.

Militia Company Not Molested.

Topeka, Kas., June 10.—As far as known the Osborne militia company, on the way to St. Francis with the men accused of the killing of Daniel Berry and his sons, has not been molested by the parties of armed settlers. W. B. Lockwood, a member of the state legislature, wires that he looks for bloodshed, as the settlers recognize in the present case an opportunity to settle old scores with the cattlemen.

DEAD OF THE DAY.

BONDS MAY BE ISSUED

It is seen that the above section provides in every manner for the conditions existing in the question before council and with the object in view of saving every cent possible the members will doubtless carry out the suggestion. They have conformed with one of the requirements, having passed a resolution declaring it necessary to issue bonds and designating the funds. Before further action can be taken, however, the resolution will have to become effective, which will be in ten days. At that time a special meeting will be called, if the work is carried out with dispatch the money will be in the hands of the city treasurer by the middle of July.

A PASSENGER TRAIN WRECKED

Fireman So Badly Scalded That He Died — Thirteen Persons Were Injured.

Louisville, Ky., June 10.—A passenger train on the Louisville & Nashville railroad, from New Orleans to Cincinnati, was wrecked on Muldraugh's Hill, 32 miles south of Louisville, John Keller, of Louisville, the fireman, was so badly scalded that he died. Thirteen persons were injured.

The train had just passed through a tunnel and was rounding a sharp curve when the engine careened and rolled to the bottom of a 60-foot hill, burying the engineer and fireman. The mail car, a combination baggage and express, followed, but were stopped by a large tree. The smoker, a day coach, a Pullman and a dining car also left the track, but remained on the roadbed. One of the rails, torn up by the force of the wreck, passed through the smoker, striking Mr. Moorehead, and breaking both his legs. On the train were four physicians, who aided the injured. President Milton H. Smith, of the Louisville & Nashville, was on board, but was uninjured.

Arrested for Embezzlement.

Washington, June 10.—James M. Watson, Jr., a clerk in the office of the auditor for the District of Columbia, and the son-in-law of a wealthy retired railroad contractor, was arrested on a charge of embezzlement of government funds. The amount is estimated at $60,000 to $75,000. The warrant makes the specific charge of embezzlement of $8,000, which represents only a portion of the alleged peculations. Watson was not bonded, and in case he or his relatives, several of whom are said to eb wealthy, fail to make good the alleged losses, Auditor J. T. Petty will be held responsible for the amount. The auditor's bond is for $20,000.

Jett-White Jury Completed.

Jackson, Ky., June 10—The jury to try Curtis Jett and Tom White, charged with the shooting of J. B. Marcum, was completed. The present indications are that the taking of testimony will be commenced before noon. The jury are all Magoffin county farmers, who said they knew none of the details of the tragedy. They were accepted after many arguments, challenges and the filing of numerous affidavits. A detail of soldiers joined the elisor in attendance upon the jury. Both sides seem satisfied with the body. The defense exhausted its 15 peremptory challenges and the prosecution used three of its five.

No More Indiscriminate Firing.

Frankfort, Ky., June 10.—A long conference was held here, in which Governor Beckham, State Inspector H. B. Hines, Col. Roger William, in command at Jackson, and Major E. W. Lillard, second in command, participated. At its close the state guard officers left for Jackson, accompanied by the state inspector, who will look into the situation there and report to the executive. The officers were directed by the governor to issue notice to the people of Breathitt county that any more indiscriminate firing in the town of Jackson will be considered an attack on the soldiers and the parties guilty of it will be severely dealt with.

Governor of Kansas Married.

Kansas City, Mo., June 10.—Willis J. Bailey, governor of Kansas, and Mrs. Ida B. Weede, were married in the First Congregational church, in this city. Rev. J. F. Fifield performed the ceremony, which was brief and simple. Only a few guests were present. Mrs. Weede's maiden name was Ida Allbert. Her first husband died five years ago. They lived formerly at Yuma, Col., and Fairbury, Neb. Mrs. Bailey has two children.

How Oysters Grow.

A man who has devoted much time to the study of the oyster says that this bivalve is born with his shell on and that he grows only in the summer time. The beard of an oyster is not only his breathing organ—that is, his lungs—but it also serves to convey food to his mouth. When the warm, calm days of June come the oyster opens his shell and by means of his beard begins building an additional story to his house. This he does by depositing very, very fine particles of carbonate of lime till at last they form a substance as thin as silver paper and exceedingly fragile. Then he adds more and more till at last the new shell is as hard as the old shell.

GIANTS RAN UP ENORMOUS SCORE

The Cubans Defeated Wellsville 20 to 3, But the Game Was Interesting.

In a game that was exceedingly interesting at times the Wellsville boys were badly defeated yesterday afternoon, at Central park, by the Cuban X Giants. Barring some of the errors the home team played a good game and deserves credit for being able to score against such a strong team.

The Cubans were first to bat and secured one run, but not a hit. Grant went down on a dead ball and on an error scored. In the third two men went to first on errors and Smith, the heavy man, placed the ball over the left field fence for a home run.

After the fourth things began to look bad. In the sixth, by bunching five hits, three Wellsville men crossed the plate. The home team could hit the ball fairly well, but Jordan would catch the boys napping on bases and throw them out. The eighth inning proved a slaughter. The first five of the visitors secured good clean hits and with a two-bagger added by Smith, seven runs were scored. In the ninth the Giants secured one more.

The redeeming features of the home team were the long catches made by Patterson and Hamilton.

A DIRTY DEAL

The Marines, of the East Liverpool league, lost to the Athletics of New Castle yesterday by a score of 9 to 3. They state that had they been given a fair deal they would have won the game easily. The score was as follows, notwithstanding that Pittsburg papers published it differently:

										R.	H.	E.

SPORTING MISCELLANY.

Murphy has left the St. Louis National league team.

A scrap between Fred Clarke and Barney Dreyfuss may lose Fred his job as manager of the Pirates.

Pitcher Dunleavey will join the St. Louis Nationals in a few days. He has been doing college work in the east.

Manager Clark Griffith, of the New York American club, is after all the stars in base ball he can secure. One of the players he is after is Ed Delehanty.

In Washington a fund is being raised to provide tickets to the Fourth of July games for all the inmates of orphan asylums and for boys of the street.

WEAK, NERVOUS, WORN OUT WOMEN

The world is full of women whose life is one long struggle against diseases peculiar to their sex—whose days and nights are full of quiet, patient suffering. The head the seat of pain and pressure—the result of nerve depression and physical weakness brought on by uterine or ovarian trouble—the nerves on edge—inclined to laugh or cry at anything—an ever present dragging in the back, hips and limbs—a feeling of utter weariness, lassitude and despondency. To these people the Dr. A. W. Chase Nerve Pills are of incomparable value, having as they do the power to rebuild, to reinvigorate and resupply every organ, every nerve, every muscle, with the lost energy and to ensure a complete return to health, strength and vigor again.

Mrs. Margaret Tracy, of No. 178 Seventh street, East Liverpool, Ohio, says: "One of my family was very nervous, subject to nervous spells—weak and miserable—could not sleep and the indigestion was very poor. I asked the invalid to take Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills I got at Larkins' drug store. The result was splendid—the medicine built her up—enriched the blood—made the nerves strong—gave restful sleep and so strengthened the stomach that digestion is perfect—the old time languid, played out feeling has given place to one of strength and energy and as a result we are more than pleased with the medicine."

FLOOD AT ST. LOUIS

OFFICIAL HIGH WATER MARK

Cause of the Rise Problematical—Forecaster Bowie Says It Will Be of Short Duration and the Decline Will Be Rapid.

St. Louis, Mo., June 10.—The Mississippi flood, which began to recede after reaching a stage of 37.5 feet, began a rapid rise, establishing the highest official watermark ever recorded in St. Louis. The rise was rapid after the dawn of day, the water creeping up from 37.1 feet, steadily increasing until at noon the stage had reached 37.75 feet. From that time the river remained stationary.

What has caused the rise is problematical. Forecaster Bowie says the rise will be of short duration and the decline consequently will be rapid.

A report has been current all day that nine persons were drowned by the capsizing of a boat near the Madison railroad depot, but despite all efforts this report has not been confirmed.

It is estimated that 8,000 refugees have found shelter in St. Louis and vicinity. It is also estimated that 4,000 people are still living in flooded homes in Granite City, Venice and Madison. A supply boat has been outfitted and will make daily trips to relieve suffering.

The flood situation in East St. Louis is still critical. It was believed that the flood had been conquered, and work on the levees was stopped, but the additional rise caused work on the levees to be resumed and all business was abandoned once more.

The viaduct leading from East St Louis to the East bridge, which was a viewing point for thousands of people, was ordered closed, as it is believed the water has weakened the abutments and rendered the bridge dangerous. Trains crossing the Eads bridge must stop at the relay station and passengers are taken by boat to land and transported to places where waiting trains can be boarded.

Reports are received constantly that river thieves are continuing to loot submerged houses of the three stricken cities north of East St. Louis.

Reports indicate that both the Missouri and Mississippi rivers are falling above here. Heavy winds probably had much to do with forcing backwater from lowlands into the channel and helped to cause the rise. For this reason it is believed that the flood crisis is over and a steady decline will continue until normal conditions prevail once more.

Word was received here at 2:10 o'clock that the water is rushing into East St. Louis from the southside in a torrent and people are fleeing for their lives. The heavy pressure that tore away the Illinois Central embankment swept other barriers aside and flowed on in a torrent into the southern portion of the city. There is no means of communication except by telephone, and the excitement is so great that little can be learned.

DARING AND DASTARDLY CRIME

Three Men Held Up By Three Highwaymen, Who Shot and Robbed Two of Them.

Wilkesbarre, June 10.—One of the most daring and dastardly crimes ever perpetrated in this city took place in the southern part of the town. Three men, all delegates to the Staats Verband convention of German Catholic societies, in session here, were walking from Memorial hall toward the hotel where the Altoona delegation were stopping. They were John Baltes, of this city, Benedict Kressler and John Weidman, the latter from Altoona. Just before they reached their hotel they were held up by three highwaymen, who shot and robbed Baltes and Kressler, Weidman escaping without injury. Baltes was shot twice in the abdomen and was removed to the Mercy hospital, where he died. Kressler, who was shot in the calf of the right leg, was cared for by the police and was removed to his hotel, where he is getting along nicely.

A suspect was arrested, who gave his name as George Stroh, of Pittston. Later this afternoon it turns out that he is John Plunkett, of that city. He is being held for further investigation. The county commissioners will meet to-morrow and offer a large reward for the apprehension of the assassins.

Shot for Refusing to Halt.

Kansas City, Mo., June 10.—For refusing to obey the command to halt, Albert Hurley was shot and mortally wounded by John Maloney, a member of Company A, Sixth United States infantry, who was doing guard duty in Kansas City, Kas., where a mild form of martial law has been in force since the flood.

Relief for Flood Sufferers.

Topeka, Kan., June 10.—It is expected that a special session of the Kansas legislature will be called to pass bills for the relief of the flood sufferers. Word has been received from 25 members of the legislature promising to serve without pay. Nearly $60,000 is now in the flood relief.

MONEY AT AUCTION

In the year 1864 the citizens of Salineville and the farmers of the surrounding neighborhood started a subscription for the purpose of bringing home and burying their soldier dead and erecting a suitable monument to their memory. A large sum was subscribed, but the project was permitted to lag and only about $90 was paid in. Frank Rogers was appointed custodian of this fund. Some $50 was expended in the bringing home and burial of dead soldiers. The remainder of the subscription was kept by the treasurer in a sealed envelope, just as it had been paid to him, until a few days ago, when it was turned over to the Grand Army of the Republic post of that village.

The different pieces of money which had been donated by citizens, almost all of whom have since died, were sold at auction and the proceeds will be applied to the soldiers' monument, the erection of which is again being agitated.

Gill, of Steubenville, owns a controlling interest in the company and Mr. Brickell will continue with the new corporation as general manager."

Improvements Delayed.

Cleveland, June 10.—F. D. Underwood, of the Erie railroad, who was in this city, said that because of the scarcity of labor extensive improvements to be made on that road cannot be started before fall. Regarding the probable changing of the route of the road so as to put this city on the main line of the Erie road, Mr. Underwood said that the matter was under consideration, and that surveyors are going over the ground.

RAILROAD COLLISION

COLLIDES WITH LOCAL FREIGHT

Every Effort of the Crew to Retard the Speed of the Train Was of No Avail — Three Were Killed and Three Injured.

Altoona, Pa., June 10.—Control of a southbound heavily loaded freight train was lost on its descent down the Allegheny mountains on the Tyrone division of the Pennsylvania railroad when going at a high rate of speed at Fowelton station, three miles east of Philipsburg. It crashed with fearful velocity into a local freight train. Three men were killed and three seriously injured.

The dead—Jacob Bolger, engineer, Tyrone; Andrew Friday, brakeman, Tyrone; Robert Wilson, brakeman, Curwensville. The injured — Oelig Burley, engineer; Earl White, fireman; Harry Edwards, brakeman. The three latter are all residents of Tyrone. The runaway train had three engines, but the two leading engines had been cut loose and the pushing engine was unable to hold the heavy train. Every effort of the crew to retard the speed of the train in its wild dash was of no avail.

When the local freight was overtaken there came a terrific crash and a dozen or more cars were smashed to splinters. In one of the cars of the local freight were 25 mules. Most of them were killed, while a few escaped with severe injuries. Their shrieks could be plainly heard above the noise of the wreck. The accident occurred on a sharp curve during a severe rain storm and the local freight crew had no opportunity of seeing the approaching runaway.

Trial of Robert A. Ammon.

New York, June 10.—Two jurors were selected to take the places of the two withdrawn, for the trial of Robert A. Ammon, former attorney for the Franklin syndicate, and the trial proceeded. In his opening address the assistant district attorney said it would be shown that before going to Canada, Miller, the ostensible head of the syndicate, turned over to Ammon $195,000. Miller, who is serving a term in Sing Sing for the part he took in the operations of the Franklin syndicate, was on the stand during the day. He gave evidence as to the organization and operation of the syndicate. Ammon's alleged connection with the syndicate had not been mentioned when adjournment for the day was reached.

Shot Himself Through the Heart.

Shoals, Ind., June 10. — Arthur Lyons, the slayer of his stepmother, who has been a fugitive from justice for several days in this county, pursued by a posse of several hundred shot himself through the heart as he stood hemmed in on every side by a band of enraged farmers. The members of the posse were within 20 feet of him before he fired. Young Lyons was driven from the woods by the posse and in an instant was the target for a dozen guns. He returned the fire and made his escape round a turn in the road. Later he was overtaken, and ,turning toward his pursuers, who were but a short distance behind, he shot himself through the heart.

Spurs for Archie Roosevelt.

Deadwood, S. D., June 10.—Capt. Seth Bullock, of Deadwood, has ordered as a present for Archie Roosevelt, third son of President Roosevelt, a handsome pair of cowboy's spurs made on special order. They are handmade, and represent the highest skill in forging and finishing. They are of the regulation cowboy pattern, with drop shank, large rowels and locks, with wide hand stamped russet leather straps and gold conchas. The spurs are silver-mounted and chased with an artistic design. The boy for whom they are intended rode much with Captain Bullock when the latter was in Washington.

Fugitive from Justice.

Chicago, June 10.—Herman B. Wickersham, former president of the Lincoln Park board, is a fugitive from justice. His bonds in each of six cases were declared forfeited. Wickersham is under indictment for larceny, embezzlement, and for obtaining money by false pretenses. His methods are said to have been to secure money from persons whom he represented for investment in mortgages, which money he secured by worthless deeds and mortgages with himself named as trustee and acting as counsel for the investor. Nearly 50,000 is alleged to have been thus misused by him.

Articles of Incorporation Filed.

Washington, June 10.—The American and Mexican Smelting and Refining company filed articles of incorporation here. Its capital is $30,000,000. The incorporators are O. S. Lee, N. C. Clark and Edwin Christy. The company is empowered to own, lease and operate mines. The main office will be in New York city and branch offices will be established throughout the west. E. R. Holden, of New York, formerly of Colorado, probably will be the general manager of the new corporation.

Another club woman, Mrs. Haule, of Edgerton, Wis., tells how she was cured of irregularities and uterine trouble, terrible pains and backache by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

"A while ago my health began to fail because of female troubles. The doctor did not help me. I remembered that my mother had used Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound on many occasions for irregularities and uterine troubles, and I felt sure that it could not harm me at any rate to give it a trial.

"I was certainly glad to find that within a week I felt much better, the terrible pains in my back and side were beginning to cease, and at the time of menstruation I did not have nearly as serious a time as heretofore, so I continued its use for two months, and at the end of that time I was like a new woman. I really have never felt better in my life, have not had a sick headache since, and weigh 20 pounds more than I ever did, so I unhesitatingly recommend Vegetable Compound."—MRS. MAY HAULE, Edgerton, Wis., President Household Economics Club. —$5000 forfeit if original of above letter proving genuineness cannot be produced.

Women should remember there is one tried and true remedy for all female ills, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Refuse to buy any other medicine, you need the best.

ON HIS JOURNEY TO CLEVELAND

Everything Going Smoothly and Indications Are That the Train Will Be On Time.

York, Pa., June 10.—President Roosevelt passed through York on a special train, en route for Cleveland, where he will attend the Hanna-McCormick wedding. The train passed slowly through the city and at every crossing he was greeted by crowds of people and heartily cheered. The President appeared on the platform of the rear coach, and waved his hand to the crowds.

Harrisburg, June 10. — The President's train arrived at Harrisburg at 7:10, and during a five minutes' wait the engine and crews were changed. When the train pulled into the station the President was seated in the rear of the last coach reading a book. A small crowd quickly gathered on the otuside and applauded. Mr. Roosevelt laid down his book and walked out onto the platform. "Good evening, ladies and gentlemen," he said, "I am glad to be with you once again. It is a great pleasure, I assure you."

Altoona, June 10.—President Roosevelt's special train en route to Cleveland, arrived at 11:30. The train consists of a combination baggage car, the Pullman sleeper, "Texas," and Pullman drawing-room car, "Elysian." On account of the lateness of the hour only a small crowd gathered at the station. The President is accompanied by his daughter, Miss Alice, Commander Cowles, Private Secretary Loeb and two detectives. So far the trip was uneventful.

Johnstown, Pa., June 10, 2:30 a. m. —The President's train passed through here on time, running as the second section of regular train No. 2, which section followed the first section in regular order.

Will Rely on the Police.

Cleveland, June 10.—None of the relatives of Leon Czolgosez, the assassin of President McKinley, will be placed in jail during President Roosevelt's visit to Cleveland to attend the marriage of Miss Ruth Hanna, daughter of Senator M. A. Hanna, to Joseph Medill McCormick. While the President was on his western tour a brother of the assassin was placed in jail in Los Angeles, as a precautionary step in the interest of the President's welfare. The Cleveland police think this step is unnecessary here, but members of the Czolgosez family will be kept under close surveillance during the President's stay.

Destructive Fire at Palm Beach.

West Palm Beach, Fla., June 10.—At 11:50 The Breakers, the smaller of the two largest hotels at Palm Beach, was seen to be in flames. The hotel building, power house, Cory's block of stores, the Casino, south of the hotel, and one of the large cottages north of the hotel were destroyed. Some furniture from the hotel was saved, but it was badly damaged. The losses are: The Breakers, $500,000; furniture, $200,000; Casino, cottage and Cory block, about $25,000. Other losses are about $5,000. The hotel was insured for $300,000.

Cured His Mother of Rheumatism.

"My mother has been a sufferer for many years with rheumatism," says W. H. Howard, of Husband, Pa. "At times she was unable to move at all, while at all times walking was painful. I presented her with a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm and after a few applications she decided it was the most wonderful pain reliever she had ever tried, in fact, she is never without it now and is at all times able to walk. An occasional application of Pain Balm keeps away the pain that she was formerly troubled with." For sale by Alvin & Bulger.

SOCIAL EVENTS

CALHOON-BAILEY

Well Known Young Lady of This City Becomes a Bride In the South.

A wedding of interest to many East Liverpool citizens took place at Nashville, Tenn., when Miss Parthenia Calhoon, of this city, and Mr. Albert M. Bailey, of Memphis, were married June 3. Miss Calhoon was prominent in the social circles of this city previous to her departure for Bowling Green, Ky., where she was taking a course in music at Potter Female college. The marriage was quite a society event at Nashville, as the ceremony was both romantic and pretty. In the presence of a number of friends the ceremony was performed by Rev. J. H. Early, pastor of the State street Methodist church. The bride wore an elaborate gown of white crepe de chine over taffeta silk. An elegant decoration and trimming of tucks and spider web lace were used as an embellishment for the gown. The bride carried a shower bouquet of white carnations and lilies of the valley.

Mr. Bailey is an active young business man of Memphis and is connected with the firm of J. C. McCrory & Co. The couple were given a reception following the ceremony.

Wedding at Sebring.

A quiet wedding occurred at the home of Rev. and Mrs. C. W. Huffer in Sebring, their daughter, Miss Iva, being married to Joseph May, of East Liverpool, only a few of the immediate friends of the family being present to witness the ceremony. The nuptials were pronounced at high noon, the bride's father officiating. Both are popular young people, the bride being a lady of refinement and culture, and the groom a bookkeeper in one of the local potteries. The happy couple left for a brief wedding visit with friends, after which they will take up their home in this city.

Birthday Party.

Miss Ruby Alice Wase, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Wase, this evening will give an elaborate entertainment to about 20 of her friends at her home at 115 Spring street, in celebration of her fourteenth birthday. The hours will be from 7:30 to 10:30. Progressive peanuts and a donkey contest will occupy most of the time.

A Delightful Outing.

Mrs. S. E. Fisher delightfully entertained her Sunday school class of the First Presbyterian church at her home near Pleasant Heights yesterday afternoon and evening. The scholars visited the woods near by for wild flowers, after which a dainty luncheon was served.

Physical Culture Class.

Nearly all who were present at the Y. M. C. A. ladies' auxiliary meeting yesterday afternoon expressed a wish to join the physical culture class. It will start with 50 members, with a prospect of a large increase.

Embroidery Circle Met.

The Embroidery Circle of St. Stephen's church held an important business meeting last evening in the parish house. The attendance was good and enthusiasm not lacking.

THE DESTROYED WILL OF ABRAHAM HARTLEY

Lisbon, June 10.—(Special.)—The Hartley will case of Salineville was in progress when court adjourned last evening. Several of the plaintiff's witnesses were examined yesterday afternoon, the plaintiff's attorney endeavoring to show that the deceased, Abraham Hartley, had destroyed his will some time before his death with the intention of revoking it, thus revoking that which was probated. Miss Lena Hartley, the plaintiff and principal witness in the case, was on the stand and said she went to make her home with her father at his request two or three years before his death. She said his last will was written by Attorney Moore, of Salineville, and that her father kept it in a desk from which he frequently took it and had her read it to him.

One day, three or four weeks before his death, she said her father declared his intention of burning a lot of documents that he had already kept too long, as he expressed it, and she saw them thrown upon the grate fire and destroyed. The day after the funeral she said she examined the papers in his desk, and the will was not there.

It seems that the defendants in this case were not blood relatives of the deceased, and his children feel that he rued his determination to make two of them the executors of his will and heirs to a large part of his estate, and therefore destroyed the document.

Conference Was Fruitless.

In accordance with the order given the grievance committee at the last meeting of Trades Council, the members of that body met with the painters and Contractor Dinerstein last night, but very little was accomplished. Both sides were heard by the committee, and when the conference had ended there was little to relate. Dinerstein asserts that he is in need of men, but will not hire any of the painters not idle. He says they are not competent, and the journeymen maintain that the contractor does not stand in need of workmen at all.

FEDERAL UNION HAS BEEN FORMED

Labor Organization Much Needed in the City Has Been Launched.

Organizer Charles Kontnier last night formed the organization to be known as the Federal Union of East Liverpool. The gentleman has been at work on the project for some time, and has refrained from doing anything toward instituting the union until everything was in readiness. It was feared that hasty action would spoil the prospects of the new organization. Since the union will be composed wholly of laborers and will be made up of workmen from every vocation, it was necessary that all classes of men be interested before the move was made.

The need of an organization of this character has long been felt in the city; for, in case of trouble or disputes in any of the regular trades unions, it has heretofore been a difficult matter to control the laborers. The list of officers is not made public for certain reasons, and will not be given out for a week at least.

Went East to Wed.

William Leigh left for the east this week and he did not go alone. When he departed from this city he was accompanied by Miss Julia King, one of the handsomest and most popular young ladies of the town. Though no pains were taken to conceal their actions, no one was taken into their confidence, and the friends of the young couple are left to draw their own conclusions. It is said the pair went to Washington for the purpose of being married, and news confirming this belief is expected daily.

Animals Becoming Extinct.

Every century sees several species of animal becoming extinct. In the race for life the weak must yield to the strong, and because they are persistently sought for food or for feathers not only individuals but whole families cease to exist. The disappearance of the great auk can be laid to the nineteenth century. It became extinct on the American side of the Atlantic about 1840 and in Europe about 1844. The South African quagga disappeared about 1870 owing to the slaughter by hide hunters. The twin shelled tortoise of the Galapagos islands became extinct in all probability about 1875. The black emu of South Australia was also exterminated during the century, though it was abundant in 1803. The great cormorant was last seen alive about 1839, and many other species of birds from all parts of the world have likewise been exterminated. In the Danish West India islands, for example, out of fourteen species catalogued in 1755 only six still exist, and a similar history can be told of many other localities.

Shelley Liked Bread.

The poet Shelley was very simple in his tastes and found his chief pleasure in long, solitary rambles. Bread became his chief sustenance when his regimen attained to that austerity which afterward distinguished it. He could have lived on bread alone without repining.

"Do you know," he said one day to a friend, with much surprise, "that Mr. G. does not like bread? Did you ever know a person who disliked bread?" His friend explained to him that Mr. G. probably had no objection to bread in moderate quantity at a proper time and with the usual adjuncts and was only unwilling to devour several pounds of dry bread at a meal.

Shelley had no such objection; his pockets were generally well stored with bread. Sometimes he ate with his bread the common raisins which he bought at small grocers' shops.

Sea Serpents Breathe Air.

Like all other serpents, the sea serpents, though permanently inhabiting the sea, are air breathers. The lateral flattening of their tails greatly helps them to swim in any direction, and it specially enables them to rise rapidly to the surface of the water to breathe. That they may do this the more easily and securely their nostrils are placed at the very end of the muzzle and are furnished with valves, which secure them from being entered by the water in which they live.

Unlike other snakes, they cast their skins in small pieces. Their eyes are not adapted to see well out of water, and thus they cannot when in the air take a good aim to bite. They feed on small fishes, which they paralyze by means of their poison, and thus they have nothing to fear from the spines of the fishes they eat.

Mimickry In Caterpillars.

A very large caterpillar stretched itself from the foliage of a tree which I was examining and startled me by its resemblance to a small snake. The first three segments behind the head were dilatable at the will of the insect and had on each side a large black pupillated spot, which resembled the eye of the snake. It was a poisonous or viperine species mimicked and not an innocuous snake. This was proved by the imitation of keeled scales on the crown, which was produced by the recumbent fold as the caterpillar threw itself backward. I carried off the caterpillar and alarmed every one in the village where I was then living to whom I showed it.—"Records of a Naturalist In the Amazon."

Two Tales of Truffled Turkeys.

The Abbe Morelet was accustomed to say: "There needs be two to eat a truffled turkey. I never do otherwise. I have one today. We will be two—the turkey and myself."

The archbishop of Sanzai was another truffled turkey lover. His grand vicar had lost a turkey to him on a bet and delayed paying up because, as he alleged, "truffles were bad that year."

"Bah! Bah!" said the archbishop. "We will chance the truffles. This is a false report that has been circulated by the turkeys."—"The Pleasures of the Table," by G. H. Ellwanger.

Toilet of the Cat.

Cats, large and small, make the most careful toilet of any class of animals, excepting some of the opossums. The lions and tigers wash themselves in exactly the same manner as the cat, wetting the dark, rubberlike ball of the fore foot and inner toe and passing it over the face and behind the ears. The foot is thus at the same time a face sponge and brush, and the rough tongue combs the rest of the body.

A Chinaman's Smoke.

In Persia and in Japan pipes about the size of a baby's thimble are used, providing two draws, a great waste of time. It is the Chinaman, however, who in smoking gets endless work out of practically nothing at all.

He carries a little box about twice the size of an ordinary silver cigarette case. This is half filled with water. In one end is a removable tiny tube to serve as pipe. At the other end is the pipestem. First of all, he removes the tube and blows through it to remove all blockage. Then he fumbles through his awkward clothes, searching for tobacco and produces a bit of rag in which it is wrapped.

Carefully he extracts a wad of tobacco, puts away his rag and slowly plugs the tube, which holds perhaps the tenth part of an ordinary cigarette. But he never has any matches.

So he has to borrow or hunt out a brown paper stem and light it—it glows for a long time and can be puffed into flame again—he gives a long draw; slowly, appreciatively, the smoke oozes from between his Celestial lips; he spits; he draws again and gets small result. The smoke is over. He removes the tube, blows through it, and the proceeding begins all over again.

The Heart.

The human heart is practically a force pump about six inches in length and four inches in diameter. It beats 70 times per minute, 4,200 times per hour, 100,800 times per day and 36,792,000 times per year and 2,575,440,000 times in seventy years, which is "man's appointed threescore years and ten." At each of these beats it forces 2½ ounces of blood through the system, 175 ounces per minute, 656¼ pounds per hour or 703 tons per day. All the blood in the body, which is about thirty pounds, passes through the heart every three minutes. This little organ pumps every day what is equal to lifting 122 tons one foot high or one ton 122 feet high—that is, one ton to the top of a forty yard mill chimney or sixteen persons seven score each to the same height. During the seventy years of a man's life this marvelous little pump, without a single moment's rest, night or day, discharges the enormous quantity of 178,850 tons of blood.

20TH YEAR. NO. 137. EAST LIVERPOOL, O., WEDNESDAY, JUNE 11, 1903. TWO CENTS.

CURFEW ORDINANCE WILL BE ENFORCED

Mayor Weaver Determined That the Law Shall No Longer Remain a Dead Letter.

EVILS WHICH HE WILL ATTEMPT TO ABOLISH

Mayor Weaver made the positive declaration this morning that he intends to enforce the curfew ordinance to the letter. It has been in existence for several years but has not been made effective and the mayor proposes to see that it is carried out. He said that the action will be taken in the interests of the parents who have no control over their children.

"There are some parents in the city," said he, "that are absolutely powerless to keep their children at home at nights. It is outrageous and I am going to help them. It seems to me a terrible state of affairs when boys ranging from 12 to 16 years are allowed to roam the streets until 12 and 1 o'clock at night. They learn more vulgarity and immorality in this way than the average citizen has any idea of. I suppose that some of the parents will be adverse to the action, when they are compelled to come down to the city hall and pay a fine to get their children released from custody, but it is the only way that I know of to remedy the conditions and I will most certainly have the ordinance enforced. I have instructed the chief to carry out the measure and it will be done. It will also have a tendency to break up the crowd of young girls that walk the streets every night. I feel sorry for their parents. They certainly do not know what their children are doing and learning. It is awful that they are allowed to do it and it emphatically must be stopped."

The curfew ordinance provides that children under the age of 16 must be off the streets before 10 o'clock during the summer months and before 9 o'clock in the winter. The enforcement of the ordinance will cause the police considerable trouble but they are all willing to suffer themselves and will do all within their power to carry out the order of the mayor.

A BLOODY REVOLUTION AT SERVIA'S CAPITAL

Belgrade, Servia, June 11.—(Special.)—A military revolution broke out here at midnight. The troops revolted under the leadership of Major Angikovich, surrounded the palace, shot to death King Alexander, Queen Draga, the queen's brother Nikodem and her sister; Premier Markovitch, Ministers Petrovitich and Tudorovich, General Palolitch, the former minister of war and some of the members of the royal guard.

Prince Karl Georgevitch was proclaimed king, a new government formed and a proclamation issued calling on loyal Servians to aid in maintaining order and security throughout the land.

National representatives have been summoned to meet in Belgrade on June 5.

People are thronging the streets, discussing the terrible tragedy, but without condemnation. The bodies of King Alexander and Queen Draga are lying on a bier in the palace.

Causes leading up to the revolution were the tendency of King Alexander to eliminate the radical element from the government and his reported intention to appoint Queen Draga's brother, Lunjecitza, heir apparent. The people also disliked Draga intensely and were outraged at the recent suspension of the constitution.

The board of public safety will hold a meeting this evening. It was the desire of the board to take action relative to the position of chief of police at this meeting, but owing to the non-action of council at the meeting Tuesday evening the board is powerless to take up the question and the conditions will remain unchanged until council does take the necessary steps.

Mayor Weaver and the members of the board are unable to discover why council failed to pass the ordinance creating the office of chief of police and will insist that the matter be taken up. The mayor cannot appoint a permanent chief until the position is created, and of course the board cannot confirm one that has not been appointed.

From a technical standpoint the city is absolutely without a chief of police, fire chief and officers to serve under them. The code says that council shall pass an ordinance fixing the number, salaries and bonds of all officers and other members of the police and fire departments.

Relative to the chief of police it says that the police department "must" include a chief of police. Though it has been intimated that Mayor Weaver did wrong in making a temporary appointment, he feels that as the code plainly gives him authority to make a temporary appointment and says nothing about who the man shall be, his action was perfectly legal.

The mayor said this morning, when speaking of the question of the age limit, that he inspected the rules compiled by Judge Okey at Columbus recently and discovered that although the judge provided a limit in age, height and weight on every other class of officers, the chief of police is exempt from all restrictions. He feels that any decision made by the board should rule according to merit alone.

The question is one of general interest and the sooner action is taken the quicker suspense will be alloyed.

EFFORT TO PLACE BLAME ON HEIRS

TESTIMONY NOT FINISHED

Lisbon, June 11.—(Special)—The contested will case in which the heirs of Abraham Hartley, of Washington township, are litigants, was still in progress when court adjourned last evening.

Byron Hudson, one of the executors named in the probated will, and also one of its chief beneficiaries, was put on the stand yesterday afternoon. Hudson was a relative of the deceased only by marriage, Mrs. Hartley having been an aunt. As a tenant of Hartley's farm Hudson had many dealings with the old gentleman and was frequently at his house. He said that one day while he was there Mr. Hart told his niece Lina, the plaintiff in this action, who was caring for the old gentleman, to get his will and read it to Byron. On this occasion, as on others mentioned in the testimony, the witness said Mr. Hartley declared himself satisfied with the will in the most positive terms.

Abraham Hartley, of East Palestine a distant relative of the deceased, told on the witness stand how several of the Hartley heirs, including Lina and Amos Hartley, expressed their dissatisfaction over the will at the time of the funeral. He quoted them as expressing the wish that the Hudsons had got nothing under the will and declaring that they wanted to keep them from getting the best of the property as the will provided. He said that Lina and Amos Hartley spoke of taking hold of the estate and settling it up themselves.

The examination of witnesses was continued today, with little prospect of the case reaching the jury before tomorrow. The burden of the testimony introduced by the defense was apparently intended to show that the plaintiffs themselves destroyed the original will.

VEHICLE OVERTURNED

While driving on East Fourth street last evening Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Taylor and Jud McCain and wife were thrown out of a surrey and Mr. McCain was severely injured.

A strap attached to the neck yoke became useless, and the vehicle was allowed to run forward onto the horses. It overturned and in jumping Mr. McCain was hurt. The other members of the party escaped unhurt.

BEES GOT BUSY IN THE DIAMOND

A swarm of honey bees created wild excitement in the Diamond late yesterday fternoon when they swooped down upon the big sign in front of Pattison's jewelry store and insisted on stinging every one who had nerve enough to make an attempt to pass. Who they belonged to, no one seems to know. They came unexpectedly and were soon in command of the peculiar situation.

A street car while passing through the Diamond attracted the swarm and a large number of them darted at it and lit upon many of the passengers. Confusion reigned supreme for a short time and the bees never let up in their attack until the car had reached the city hall. They also attacked numerous other people.

A young man who knew the ways of the bees procured a box and in a few minutes had them all securely in his possession. He sold them to a countryman a short time later.

The excitement caused by the visit of the busy little bodies will never be forgotten. They left their marks upon scores and if they never come back it is safe to predict that no tears will be shed.

CRUELTY TO HORSES TO BE STOPPED

One Suit Has Already Been Entered And More Are Promised.

Action is bound to be taken to prevent cruelty to animals in the city. Three cases of brutal and inhuman treatment came to light yesterday and as a result a warrant was issued in the court of 'Squire McLane for the arrest of one John Doe, and it is said that others will be issued before the end of the week.

At the city hall this morning a well known business man appeared and stated that he saw a man unmercifully whipping a team of horses on Broadway and that he had seen the same action yesterday. The report started a discussion of the barbarous happenings and Chief Wyman stated that he intends to arrest and prosecute every man that is reported committing such deeds.

Lisbon, June 11.—(Special)—Dr. Harry Blazer has been bound over to court in the sum of $300 on a charge of assault and battery, to which he pleaded not guilty, in the court of Justice A. P. Van Fleet in Leetonia.

The charge was preferred by Walter Hoffert.

BOARD OF HEALTH WANTS REFORMS

THE RULES ABOUT GARBAGE

The board of health wrestled for three hours last evening with many questions, and as a result of its deliberations the health officer, sanitary policeman and the board of public safety were instructed to be wider awake than ever before for the purpose of abating all nuisances, especially those that are found to be a menace to health. With this end in view the board passed several resolutions, destructly obey the ordinances, and several of the most important ones were cited for particular notice.

Four members, Messrs. Mowen, Birkett, Haines and Harris, were present. They were presided over by Mayor Weaver, and Health Officer Ogden, Sanitary Policeman Burgess and City Solicitor Davidson swelled the number and took an active part in the proceedings. The latter states that until last evening he really did not realize the importance of the board of health. He found by a perusal of the code that its powers are many and mean much to the city.

The first subject introduced for discussion was that pertaining to the right of residents to connect their sanitary sewers with the storm sewers of the city. The solicitor was asked concerning the matter and stated that either the board of health or the board of public service can prevent it. The board of health can declare such work a nuisance and stop it from that standpoint and as the board of public service has control of all sewers it can provide a rule against any such connections. The final decision of the board was that sanitary sewers must not be connected with storm sewers, and steps will be taken not only to have such sewers as are joined disconnected, but to prevent it in the future.

The solicitor, when asked regarding manure boxes that are found in alleys, streets and yards, stated that the board of health has the right to declare them a nuisance and that it is then up to the board of public service to have them removed. Sanitary Policeman Burgess raised the question. He has been appealed to every day for months by people wishing action be taken whereby owners of stables should be forced to remove the boxes. In some sections of the city the complaint is made that around the stables the filthy conditions are sufficient to spread disease at an alarming rate.

The license fee granted venders of milk and meat was raised from 25 cents to $1 and it was decided to have these foods inspected at regular intervals. The licenses are to be procured from the clerk of the board of health.

The question raised at the last meet-

LISBON IS READY FOR THE VISITORS

CENTENNIAL ARRANGEMENTS NEARLY PERFECTED.

Brilliant Illuminations and Superb Decorations Will Be Abundant.

Lisbon, June 11.—(Special)—Lisbon is already beginning to assume centennial airs and when the time comes for that event next week even the life-long residents will feel like strangers in a strange land. Tom Johnson's big tent is here and its canvas is spread on a lot on Chestnut street but a short distance from the business part of town. Workmen are busily engaged constructing the large band platform in the center of it for the grand ball to be given Wednesday evening.

Work is also in progress on the speakers' stand and the placing of the seats, all of which must be completed soon to give the decorator time to perform his part of the work. The decorations are to be something elaborate and will be arranged by the firm that had the contract for the decoration at the Chillicothe centennial. Nearly all of the material and designs will be furnished by the contractor.

A large platform to serve as a band stand and reviewing stand from which Senator Hanna and other notables will review the military parade is being erected on the southeast corner of the square opposite the court house. The square at night will be brilliantly illuminated by a number of arc lights and the shade trees in the park have been trimmed to a considerable height to admit of a better effect in this particular.

The Young Men's Lyceum club has tendered the freedom of the club room to the local Elks who will make the visiting brethren of that order welcome there. The lodge rooms of the Grand Army, Masons, Odd Fellows, Knights of Pythias and Knights of the Golden Eagle will also be open to visiting members of the respective orders. Similar action has been taken by the Lisbon Business Men's association, members of all business associations in the county being invited to make the association rooms their headquarters.

BIG DAMAGE SUITS

Against Railroad Company Will Be Tried in the United States Court.

Lisbon, June 11.—(Special)—The Pennsylvania company filed its bond with the clerk of courts here yesterday afternoon for the removal of two damage suits in which the company is the defendant, to the United States court in Cleveland. The cases are those of Mary Coanno, of Salem, who has sued for $10,000 for the death of her husband, and Agnew Bros., of Wellsville, who have sued for $5,000 claiming that their coal yard and business was damaged to that extent by the construction of a switch.

BIG IMPROVEMENT ON STREET RAILWAY

GOOD WORK ALREADY DONE

General Manager L. W. Healy, of the East Liverpool railway, has announced that the improvements now being made on both equipment and trackage will be continued until the entire line has been included. Some months ago it was given out by Mr. Healy that one company would double track its line from the city proper to the East End, and the consent of many of the property owners along the route was secured.

This plan has not been abandoned by any means, and the company is now debating whether or not to include this work in the other improvements. At any rate the present track along the river road is to be torn up before the passing of the summer and relaid with heavier iron. The road bed will be ballasted with rock and graded up above the "mud line."

For a month or more a large force of men have been at work on the line between this city and Wellsville, ballasting the track with rock and picking up the bad joints. This work has been completed with the exception of a very small section. The street car men say the improvement makes it possible to maintain the schedule with ease, as a higher rate of speed with the same degree of safety is possible.

The task of rebuilding the track along the river road will be a stupendous one and will cost many thousands of dollars. When the work is completed, and it will be before winter, the entire line will be in an excellent condition for the rough weather, and its patrons can rest assured of better service than ever before.

Besides the track improvements the company has added four fine double truck cars to its equipment and when all have been placed in service the schedule can be filled with big cars.

NEW MAP OF THE CITY

Is Now Being Prepared, Especially for the Use of Insurance Men.

The Sanborn-Perry Map company has a force of men at work here drawing what is known as a fire map of the city, for the use of insurance men. The map will show the location of every piece of property in the city, with the owners' names in the case of factories and business houses. It also gives the streets and the street numbers and the distances from one building to another.

The last map of the kind for the city was made in 1897, and the growth of the town and its suburbs has been so great since then as to make a new map imperative to show the changes.

CHILDRENS' HOME WELL CONDUCTED

The board of visitors to Columbiana county charity and public institutions, consisting of Dr. William Moore, of Lisbon; Messrs. Ellison, of Damascus, and Wallace, of Negley, and Mrs. Henry Aten, of Wellsville; Mrs. George Holmes, of Salem and Mrs. George P. Ikirt, of East Liverpool, convened at the Fairmount Children's Home near Alliance Tuesday. The board found the Home in most excellent condition. At the present time 35 children are enrolled and all are in good health. The schools, including a fine kindergarten and primary department, are still in session and the work being accomplished in the several grdes is of superior quality. The Home and the cottages are models of neatness.

The ladies having charge of the various cottages and the schools are very proficient and faithful in the discharge of their duties. The only criticism of the board was that the teachers were not as well paid as they should be. Their hours of work are long, and they receive only $15 per month, including laundry and board.

Flowers and choice shrubbery with a well kept lawn make the exterior of the home, with its wealth of shade trees, a beautiful spot. The fine condition of the Home is the result of the skillful management and the untiring devotion to this institution of its efficient superintendent, M. E. Southworth and his estimable wife and to the board of trustees, of which Hon. David Boyce was mny years a member and succeeded by N. A. Frederick.

WITH THE WORKMEN IN THE CLAY PLANTS

POTTERY HISTORY.

Many clever women in this country, who now make a specialty of collecting china, porcelain and earthenware which has been in the United States for more than 100 years, unite patriotism with ceramics. The field is much larger and more difficult than appears at sight. The very age shuts out thousands of specimens which are eagerly sought for by ordinary collectors. The difficulty to the lover of the antique is great, because most of the owners of these precious wares refuse to part with them. There are several collections in New York which are of unusual size and interest. In one there has been a special effort toward the accumulating of Indian, Zuni, Maya, Aztec and Toltec wares. Very many of these are made of simple earthenware decorated in black and other dull colors, and only a few have any glaze.

Of the second class there are many kinds of table ware brought over by settlers in the seventeenth and eighteenth centuries. The modern age is apt to overlook the simple fact that in the old days all ceramic goods were harder to get and more expensive than at the present time. Emigrants carried table ware with them, where today they bring merely clothing and money. The Pilgrims and Puritans brought out English and Dutch ware; the Huguenots seemed to have possessed the finest taste in this line, and imported to this country fabrics from the kilns of France and Italy. The Knickerbockers were staunch patrons of Delft, Leyden and other establishments in the Netherlands. The Palatines of New York, who moved to New Jersey and Pennsylvania, betrayed their love of the Rhineland by a goodly assortment of the heavy, dark glazed pottery which prevailed in that district in the first half of the eighteenth century. This love of home was manifested by the Spanish settlers in California, Mexico, Louisiana and Florida, who amid their household goods had many delicate bits of the fine wares of Spain. Rarest of all were Scandinavian goods conveyed to the New World by the Swedes and Finns, who came here in the seventeenth century.

Not more than 200 pieces are known to be in existence today, most of which are held in Philadelphia and other Pennsylvania communities. In the third class are goods turned out by the Colonial and post-Revolutionary potteries. Of these there are at least 10 in operation altogether, which had a fair output. The workmanship was somewhat clumsy, although now and then designs are encountered which possess considerable merit. Some of these are now held in the Widener, Ives, Morgan and Storer collections. The prices paid for these goods are fanciful in the extreme.

WHY MORGAN CAME.

An injustice was done to John W. Morgan, of Trenton, when it was stated that he was in the city to gather statistics and examine into the condition of the western jiggermen, as the representative of the eastern branch of this trade, so that the uniform scale of the west can be adopted by them. While Mr. Morgan was in the city last May he liked it so well that he decided to locate here permanently, and it is for this purpose that he is now here. He will move his family here in a short time.

PIPE PLANT SOLD.

It is reported that Thomas Buckley, a well known potter, has purchased the clay pipe works on Eighth street, owned and operated for many years by Thomas Glenn. The plant, owing to Mr. Glenn's advanced years, has not been operated for some time. Its capacity at the present time is rather limited, there being but one small kiln but it will be increased as the business warrants. Quincy Adams, a son-in-law of the purchaser, will have charge of the plant. The output is confined to clay smoking pipes, and it is considered by many that there is a good opening for this line of ware.

DEMANDS OF SANITARY MEN.

The owners of the Trenton sanitary plants, within a few weeks, will likely be called upon by the Brotherhood to appoint a committee to meet a similar committee from the sanitary workers for the purpose of installing a uniform price list for kilnmen, packers and saggermakers employed in sanitary potteries. Another question which will come before the conference is one asking that sanitary pressers be given the privilege to pay their help and not the firm. This last request comes from the potteries outside of Trenton, as the custom of allowing the pressers to pay their own help is pretty thoroughly observed there.

JETT-WHITE MURDER TRIAL

They Are Being Tried Jointly—Indictment Charging Them With Conspiracy to Murder.

Jackson, Ky., June 11.—The third day of the trial of Curtiss Jett and Thomas White, for the murder of Attorney J. B. Marcum, was marked by the evidence of B. Lewen, the first and leading witness of the commonwealth. Jett and White are being tried jointly, the indictment charging them with conspiracy to murder. It is charged that White entered the court house while Marcum and Ewen were standing together and as he passed them gave the signal to fire. Ewen testified to seeing White just before and after Marcum was shot, and to seeing Jett just after Marcum was carried out of the court house. Ewen's testimony corroborated the statements he had made previously regarding both prisoners and he withstood the most rigid cross-examination.

Other witnesses examined during the day were Judge J. C. Bache, John M. Patrick, Kelly Kash, County Attorney Blanton and William Combs, a farmer. Their testimony was confirmatory of that given by Ewen, and was not shaken in the cross-examination. In the morning, when the witnesses were ordered out of the court room, attorneys for the defendants asked that County Judge Hargis be allowed to remain.

On the objections of attorneys for the commonwealth being sustained Judge Hargis retired with the other witnesses. When the court reconvened in the afternoon the daughter of County Judge Hargis, the leader of the dominant feudists, occupied a seat beside the prisoners. At the afternoon session attorneys for the defendants moved to dispense with the presence of troops in the court room and were overruled. Inspector Hines, from Frankfort, arrived under orders from Governor Beckham. It is generally believed that he will report how the trial is conducted so far as judge prosecutor, jury and officials are concerned, and much interest is taken in his presence.

FIVE MEN KILLED BY LIGHTNING

MEN BUILDING A BARN

Were Struck, a Heavy Timber Which They Were Carrying Being Splintered And Killing Them Instantly. Man on Horseback Also Killed.

Medina, June 11.—Lightning at Acme, a small town nine miles southeast of here, did terrible work Tuesday afternoon. Four men, well known in that part of the county, were killed outright, and a fifth stunned and perhaps fatally hurt. At Lodi, a lad of 12 years was killed about the same time by lightning and a companion prostrated.

The dead at Acme:

WILLIAM REBMAN.
JOHN SHOCK.
JOHN WINKLER.
CLARK FISHER.

Killed at Lodi:

CLEM CARVER.

The four men who met death at Acme, with a companion named Jacob Means, were engaged in rebuilding a large bank barn on a farm owned by J. F. Long, a well-to-do farmer. The farm was occupied by Rebman, who was killed. The place is also known as the Peter Leichey place.

Means, who was perhaps fatally shocked by the lightning, was the contractor of the job, employing the rest of the men including Rebman, who was also a carpenter. Fisher was principal of the public schools at Richmond, but during the summer vacation was doing carpentering.

The storm, which swept over the county with such loss of life, appeared to be only an ordinary summer shower, and very little rain fell. When the storm approached the men working on the barn were loath to drop their tools for so small an affair and worked until the rain began to fall. Then some one suggested that the take shelter inside the partly completed barn. A heavy sill was lying in the yard and the four men shouldered the heavy timber to take it inside to work on during the storm.

The four men were walking toward the building Indian file with the timber on their shoulders, when, with a blinding flash and a deafening roar, a bolt of lightning came from the clouded sky and struck the sill. The timber was splintered into bits and the men thrown to the ground. Death was probably instantaneous. Their bodies were horribly burned in places. Means, the contractor, who stood several feet away directing the work, was thrown to the ground and neighbors bore him away unconscious. It is thought he will die. The news of the accident nearly terrorized the little community. Three of the men were married with families.

Clem Carver, killed at Lodi, was working with several others in the swamps near there when the storm approached. Carver jumped on his horse and rode to a barn for shelter. Just as he reached the shelter he was struck by lightning and instantly killed, as was the horse. A companion named Holmes was rendered unconscious, but will recover. Throughout the swamps the force of the shock was felt and many were affected.

MAYOR MUST APPEAR IN COUR.

True Bill Found Against City Executive for Removing Soldiers Without Cause.

Pittsburg, June 11. — William B. Hays, mayor of Pittsburg, will have to answer at the bar of the criminal court of Allegheny county at this term to the indictment handed down yesterday by the grand jury, charging him with violating the law of the commonwealth of Pennsylvania which prohibits the discharge of old soldiers without cause. The prosecutor is John C. Haymaker, district attorney, and a recent competitor of Mayor Hays for the office which the latter holds. The prosecuting witness will be Samuel Moore, a resident of the Sixth ward and a battle-scarred veteran of the Civil war, who was removed from the position of ordinance officer by Mayor Hays on March 31 for political reasons.

Upon the result of this case depends the positions of 55 old soldiers who were removed by the present city and county administrations for political reasons.

The case will attract attention all over the state and in other states, as it is the first time in Pennsylvania that a test has been made of the power of state, county or municipal authorities to remove old soldiers from public positions with an act on the statute books prohibiting the same.

RAILWAY MEN GO ON STRIKE

Fifteen Hundred Employes Demand Discharge of a Carpenter Because He Is Unfriendly to Union.

Huntington, W. Va., June 11.—The fight between the members of council and Mayor C. M. Buck, which has been on here for two weeks past, took a sensational turn this morning when almost 1,500 employes of the Chesapeake & Ohio shops, including every branch of the industry, even to the office force, went out on strike.

The employes at the institution demanded that William R. Davis, member of council from the Second ward, who is a carpenter at the shops, be discharged by the railway company because he was unfriendly to the union, he having voted along with a majority of the councilmen to take from Mayor Buck his authority to name standing committees for the year, which gave the city a police force not liked by the mayor.

A CRISIS AVERTED.

HE MAKES AN IMPASSIONED PLEA

London, June 11.—By a dexterous and extraordinary speech Premier Balfour temporarily smoothed over the differences in the cabinet, relieved Colonial Secretary Chamberlain of any necessity of resigning, and for the moment averted a crisis which threatened the Unionist party. This Mr. Balfour accomplished without committing the government either to protection or free trade, though the effect of his speech will generally be taken to mean that the tariff issue is to be shelved for the present. Henry Chaplin's amendment which gave rise to the most interesting debate of the present parliament, was defeated by the overwhelming majority of 396 votes, composed of Unionists, Liberals, Irish members, Mr. Chaplin's adherents, and almost all the followers of the government, while many others of the Conservative party abstained from voting.

It was half past ten o'clock when Premier Balfour sprang to his feet to reply to the taunts of the opposition and appeals from his own party.

For two days the House of Commons has rang with echoes of discussion within the cabinet and dissatisfaction without. The premier was loudly cheered. He had scarcely commenced to deal with Mr. Chaplin's amendment before he was interrupted by a hurricane of applause and ironical cheers at the entry of Mr. Chamberlain, who had been absent hitherto throughout the evening. The colonial secretary dropped into his accustomed place. The house was now packed with peers, members of the house, and spectators, as it has not been since the days of home rule, and they waited and listened in tense expectation.

In a whimsical vein Mr. Balfour explained that the only reason that the corn tax was put on was because the government wanted money and the only reason it was taken off was because the government wanted money no longer.

Sir Henry Campbell Bannerman, the Liberal leader, appealed for an opportunity for the house to more fully discuss the issue raised. The members of the house trooped into the lobby to vote against Henry Chaplin's amendment, the general comment being "Balfour has saved Chamberlain."

The colonial secretary himself, jubilant, said: "Our friend, the enemy, is nonplussed this time."

With the exception of some irreconcilable malcontents the Unionist party is greatly relieved by the outcome of the debate, all the members expressing gladness that the crisis was passed, at the same time believing that the same cabinet could not long continue to embrace such opposites on the fiscal policy of Great Britain as Colonial Secretary Chamberlain and Chancellor of the Exchequer Ritchie.

Admires American Energy.

Berlin, June 11.—"It is only Americans that meet my wants" is one of the latest utterances of Emperor William circulating in army and government circles. The Emperor spoke these words recently, according to the Tageblatt, while dining with the officers of one of his favorite Silesian regiments, and the thought pleased the emperor so much that he has frequently repeated it in other forms since then. It is pointed out that the visit of the Prussian finance minister, Baron Von Rheinbaben, to the United States, attracts unusual attention among the initiated because of the emperor's admiration for American energy and practical insight, and it is assumed that his majesty designs giving the minister larger tasks, for which his American observations will be especially useful.

Slips Which Can Be Worn Under More Than One Gown.

The newest slip skirt is made with a tightly gored top and a godet flounce of graduated length in order to give fullness at the edge. One or two narrow gathered frills may edge the slip, or a single one will do if the skirt is fussily trimmed. The slip bodice may be sleeveless, or there can be a light sleeve to the elbow only. The neck can be cut square or high. These details depend entirely upon the make of the gown to be worn over them.

The woman who is able to make some of her clothes at home would do well to invest in some of these slips. With three slips much variety may be obtained, and one of black, one of white and one of some pale color will be found very effective worn under cream or lace robes. A pretty sateen slip can be used under muslin gowns.

The number of robes all ready to be made up in lace, veilings, crepe de chine or other materials is increasing all the time. There is a great demand for fine embroidery and also for gowns which can be run up at home by an inexpensive dressmaker. By means of the robes dresses can be obtained at one-third their actual cost when made by a good dressmaker.

A gown of pale rose veiling is here shown. The skirt has the fashionable triple effect and the latest sleeve, having a wide, tight cuff. The wide belt and rosette are of oriental satin.

EAST END

PERSIAN MISSIONARY TALKS OF HIS PEOPLE

Dr. Yohannon Delighted a Large Audience at Second Presbyterian Church Last Night.

One of the most entertaining lectures heard in a long time by the people of the East End was that of Dr. Yohannon, a young Persian, in the Second Presbyterian church last night. The auditorium was well filled and all were very highly pleased. The lecturer is a young man of extraordinary attainments and one of the few men of his country who have come to the United States to secure an education.

Dr. Yohannon came to this country seven years ago and has been educating himself as a medical missionary. He will return to Persia during the summer and devote his life to the well being of his people. His lecture last night dealt with the manners, customs and religion of the Persians. At an early age he became a school teacher at a salary equivalent to $2.50 a month in American money. Money in that country has a greater purchasing power, however, his subsistence costing him but 25 cents a month. After he had been teaching for some time his salary was increased to $2.75 a month, and later to $5 a month. Most of the people of Persia are Mohammedans, the lecturer stated, although a few of the people hold to other beliefs. There are a few Christians, but they do not make an open avowal of this faith, because of persecutions.

MORE NEW HOUSES

Midway Land Company And Others Are to Keep Up East End's Building Boom.

It was announced this morning that the Midway Land company would soon let the contracts for the erection of four more new dwelling houses on its property south of Mulberry street. Of the seven dwellings just completed by the company on this property but one remains unsold. The contracts for the new structures will provide for their completion during the summer.

Many new buildings in other parts of the East End are being commenced every day and many are being completed. In spite of this fact there are no empty houses and new people who come in daily find it hard to secure a home.

Two Missionary Socials.

The Women's Missionary society of the Second Presbyterian church will hold a social this evening at the home of Mrs. John Grant, on Pennsylvania avenue. Refreshments will be served and a pleasant evening is anticipated.

The Ladies' Aid society of the Erie street M. E. church will give a social this evening at the home of Mrs. Emeline Hamilton, corner Chestnut and Ohio avenues. A cordial welcome is extended and a good time is assured to all.

Reviewers Were Visitors.

The East End was visited this morning by the board of review for East Liverpool, composed of Messrs. J. S. Hilbert, T. H. Arbuckle and C. A. Ferguson. The visit had no particular significance, the board merely wishing to have a personal knowledge of the location of certain East End properties.

Prominent Italian Ill.

Emanuel Campanella, commissary agent for almost the entire number of Italians employed in railroad construction along the river division of the C. & P., has been very seriously ill at Industry, threatened with typhoid fever. Dr. Mowen was called to that town to see him this morning.

EAST END AFFAIRS.

Miss Lena Finley has returned from a brief visit with relatives at Georgetown.

Miss Lola Duncan, of Ohioville, is the guest of Mrs. Archie Searight, of Maple avenue.

Miss Mina McDaniel has gone to Winfield, where she will spend the summer with relatives.

Mort Calhoun, jiggerman at the Klondike, has been idle several days, owing to the illness of his crew.

Quite a number of the members of Eureka council, P. H. C., will attend the social to be given this evening by the new Pleasant Heights lodge.

Mrs. Alice Winegrove, of Erie street, has purchased one of the houses built by the Midway Land company in its addition west of Mulberry street. She will occupy the house next Saturday.

W. D. Hopkins, of Mulberry street, is entertaining his parents, Mr. and Mrs. David Hopkins, and son David, all of Shawnee, O. They arrived this afternoon and will remain a week or more.

MANY CURES IN EAST LIVERPOOL

Will Reed Reports Good Work Done By Hyomei in Curing Catarrh.

It is seldom that a remedy has made so many cures in so short a time as Hyomei has in curing diseases of catarrh in East Liverpool.

Will Reed has so much faith in the powers of Hyomei to cure catarrh that at the very sart he sold the remedy under his personal guarantee to refund the money in case it did not give satisfaction. As yet he has had but two customers who asked him to refund the price, while scores have told of the remarkable cures accomplished by this mdicine.

Hyomei cures catarrh by a new principle, by breathing balsamic air, not by pills, drugs or nauseating liquids. It is the only positive cure ever discovered for this disease, and it is also the pleasantest method of treatment.

The outfit consists of an inhaler, a medicine dropper and a bottle of Hyomei; the total cost being $1.00. The inhaler will last a lifetime, while for treatment of catarrh a bottle of Hyomei is sufficient for more than a month's use. Simply drop a little of the Hyomei into the inhaler and then breathe it for a few minutes four or five times a day. The air filled with the balsamic healing of Hyomei enters the air passages and lungs, killing the disease germs, soothing the irritated membranes and effecting a permanent cure.

If a cure is not gained ask Will Reed to return your money and he will do it without question.

No fairer way of selling a medicine was ever adopted by any one. You ought to begin the use of Hyomei today on this plan.

The Doctor's Part In Race Suicide

By Dr. ROLAND G. CURTIN of Philadelphia

By high fees he may increase the family expenses to such an extent as to plunge the young husband into debt. Where formerly in maternity cases the usual charges were from $10 to $25, they have advanced to as high as $250.

In the matter of nursing practice has changed. Formerly but little nursing was needed. Now it is necessary to have a trained nurse for weeks.

THE LARGEST NUMBER OF CHILDREN COMES FROM THE UNASSIMILATED FOREIGN POPULATION. Therefore it occurs to me that in thirty years the balance of political power will be in the hands of these children and not in those of the "strain" that has brought our country to its present position among nations.

Among the causes of the diminished birth rate not generally mentioned are the changes in the method of living. The apartment house, which is growing in favor, is a bad school for good wives and mothers, especially those that are young. CHILDREN ARE NOT WANTED in such quarters. The servant girl question often drives families to these houses. The population in the apartment houses, as a rule, turns a cold shoulder upon the woman who is a fond mother or commiserates her for her enslaved position.

ANOTHER CAUSE IS THE PURSUIT OF MANLY CALLINGS BY WOMEN. First, it makes them feel independent of marriage, and, second, they take the work from the men, so that THE MEN CANNOT AFFORD TO MARRY.

Another cause is the nervous trades, which bring on exhaustion and unfit women for maternity and housekeeping. CLERKS, STENOGRAPHERS AND SHOP AND FACTORY GIRLS ARE TO BE INCLUDED IN THIS CATEGORY.

THE NEW GAME LAWS OF WEST VIRGINIA

The Times And Seasons During Which Hunting Is Legal in the State.

It shall be unlawful for any person to catch, kill or injure or pursue, with intent to catch, kill or injure, any ruffed grouse, prairie chickens or wild turkey between the 15th day of December and the 15th day of October following, or any quail or Virginia partridge between the 20th day of December and the 1st day of November following, nor shall any person kill more than 12 quails or partridges in any one day; or any blue winged teal, mallard or wood duck, wild goose or brant at any time between the first day of April and the first day of October, or any snipe except between the first day of March and the first day of July and the first day of November inclusive; or any squirrel, rabbit or hare between the first day of January and the 15th day of September following; provided that nothing in this section shall be so construed as to prevent resident land owners of this state from catching, killing, injuring or pursuing in the manner prescribed by law any such squirrel, rabbit or hare at any time upon their own lands.

Accidentally Shoots His Brother.

New Philadelphia, O., June 11. — Three sons of Wesley Smith, a well-to-do farmer of near Newcomerstown, went out into the woods yesterday. Wesley, aged 16, took a gun to shoot woodchucks. The three got to playing, when the gunt went off, and Walter, aged 10, was shot in the left side and died instantly. Charles, aged 19, received a number of shot in the left eye. Dr. Goudy extracted 113 shot from the dead boy's body. Eighteen or more were taken from the head and face of the other.

Began a Long Sentence.

Lansing, Kan., June 11.—Jessie Morison arrived at the state penitentiary here and began serving her 25 years' sentence for killing Mrs. Olin Castle. She was assigned to the dressmaking department, but will be permitted to do fancy work until she shall have recovered her health. She was weak and nervous, but showed no signs of breaking down.

Guilty of Resisting Officers.

Charleston, W. Va., June 11.—Marion Marshal, who was tried in the federal court upon an indictment charging him with resisting officers at Atkinsville last February, in the federal injunction cases, was found guilty.

Woman Attempts Suicide.

Uhrichsville, O., June 11. — Della Wilson, aged 21, shot herself in the head on account of a disagreement with her lover, it is said. She will recover.

Plan Approved.

Washington, June 11. — Secretary Moody approved the plans for the new three 13,000-ton battleships.

WILL HAVE TO SERVE SENTENCE

Sentenced to Be Hanged on the First Trial, But Supreme Court Granted a New One.

Raleigh, N. C., June 11.—James Wilcox, the murderer of Nellie Cropsey, of Elizabeth City, will have to serve his sentence of 30 years in the state prison here. On his first trial he was sentenced to be hanged but the supreme court gave him a new trial because the spectators at the trial made a demonstration when Wilcox's lawyer arose to speak. On the second trial in a different county, he was convicted of murder in the second degree and sentenced to serve 30 years in the penitentiary. This judgment the supreme court affirmed.

The defendant's attorney on the second appeal urged that most of the evidence was insufficient to have been submitted to the jury and that the suicide theory was as reasonable as any other one, maintaining that the deceased had the opportunity, the motive and the time to drown herself.

The supreme court, in its opinion, said that there were several serious difficulties in the way of endorsement of these views, the principal one being that Miss Cropsey would have had to wade 75 feet from shore to reach water four feet deep. While her affections may have been trifled with, the court thought all the matters properly had been submitted to the jury and it could not say the jury's conclusions were incorrect.

It is hard to say new things about Doan's Kidney Pills. They cure the lame and aching back, the sufferer from kidney disorders and the troubles of those whose urinary organism is wrong in its action. That they do this is so easy to prove that not a vestige of doubt remains. Public endorsement of local citizens is easily proven. Read this case:

Mr. H. Thompson, of 306 Fourth street, presser at the D. E. McNicol pottery, resident of East Liverpool for the past 45 years, says: "During my campaign experience between the years '61 and '64 I contracted a weakness of the kidneys, and at intervals I had an aching pain across the small of my back and was subject to attacks of muscular rheumatism, especially in damp weather. I was frequently so bad that I could scarcely get up when down, and in fact could hardly get around at all. I tried many remedies endeavoring to get rid of the trouble, but found nothing until I got Doan's Kidney Pills at the W. & W. pharmacy. They filled the bill exactly. They gave me almost immediately relief and warded off the last attack."

STEUBENVILLE PRIEST MAY BE BISHOP

Columbus, June 11. — At the meeting of the irremovable rectors of the diocese of Columbus, held at the East Broad street residence of Archbishop Henry Moeller, three candidates were selected by ballot, one of whom may be finally appointed by the pope to succeed to the bishopric of the diocese of Columbus, which was made vacant by the elevation of Archbishop Moeller to the coadjutorship of the arch-diocese of Cincinnati.

The bishops of the arch-diocese of Cincinnati will next hold a meeting to nominate three candidates for the office. They may or may not nominate the three chosen by the rectors. This list will also be sent to Rome. It is generally understood that the choice of the bishops will be the same as that of the priests, who made the following recommendations in the order given:

Very Rev. Father M. M. Mears, now pastor of the cathedral and chancellor of the diocese of Columbus.

Rev. Francis W. Howard, now the assistant pastor of St. Joseph's cathedral, Columbus.

COAL RAILROAD TO HAMMONDSVILLE

Capitalists Looking Over a Proposed Route from Bergholz to That Town.

Toronto, June 11.—Oliver B. Roseberry, of Bergholz, a specialist in oil and coal lands, was here over night and left yesterday morning in company with other capitalists to look over the proposed new coal road projected between Bergholz and Hammondsville. About two-thirds of the right of way for this road has been secured. The line will open up some valuable coal territory in the northern part of the county.

The recent mining developments in Springfield township since the discovery of the vein of coal supposed to be known to geologists as vein No. 5, have been phenomenal. The plants at Wolf's run, near Bergholz, and at Amsterdam are model ones in every particular—equipped with electrical mining machinery and every modern appliance for mining. At Wolf's run the vein, which is over five feet thick and of superior quality, is reached at a depth of 85 feet, and at Amsterdam at 192 feet.

It is thought that this vein can be successfully operated at various points along the proposed line of road.

The action of the board of health in deciding to enforce the law providing for the inspection of meat and milk is one that will certainly meet with the approval of consumers of those important food products. Impure meat is probably seldom sold or eaten, because it is an easy matter to discover whether it is tainted or not. But with milk it is different. Adulteration and impurities are not easily detected, and physicians agree that much disease and suffering, particularly among children, is due to unwholesome milk. There is no reason why East Liverpool, receiving its milk supply from adjacent farms and paying a high price for it, should not have the best. Perhaps it does, but it will do no harm to find out, and no dealer who desires to furnish an absolutely pure article can object to a system of inspection.

The News Review is rejoiced to see evidence that the East Liverpool Humane society is still alive. One suit has been entered against a brutal driver for cruelty to horses, and many more similar actions ought to be brought. The case brought to light yesterday where a teamster is alleged to have beaten his horses with a base ball bat, though a particularly aggravated one, is but one instance of acts of cruelty calling for vigorous prosecution. Of course it is idle to expect to teach drivers to be humane, but a few strong fines will at least teach them to be cautious and to moderate their cruelty. The humane society should lose no time in getting down to business and doing its utmost to prevent practices which are a disgrace to a civilized community.

"The word of the next twenty years in the church," says Dr. Hillis, of Plymouth church, Brooklyn, "must be unity. Instead of 167 sects, the time has come for business men and missionary societies to acknowledge that the whole thing is shameful and the worst of mismanagement. In this country there have been re-duplications of church plants until millions of money have been wasted."

Russia boasts that she is abundantly able to take care of the families of the murdered Jews at Kischineff. Doubtless she it, but will she do it? If Russia had exercised more care earlier she would not have brought upon herself the opprobrium under which she now rests.

Eastern ministers propose to form a league and refuse to marry people who have been divorced. If they can get the squires to join them they may lighten the business of the divorce courts materially.

Senator Hanna is noted for his kindness and favors to newspaper men, but the limit to his generosity in that direction was probably reached when he gave his daughter to one of the fraternity.

The syndicate run by Miller in New York had the get-rich-quick theory down fine, but its practices landed its officials in trouble and will probably compel them to wear striped garments.

A Yale graduate with a fondness for dismal statistics finds that there have been 3,233 lynchings in the United States in the past 21 years. Yet we boast of having a law-abiding people.

When the new meat and milk inspection man gets down to work, perhaps he will kindly find out why the prices of both commodities keep at such a dizzy elevation.

The county Democracy will meet in a couple of weeks to select its candidates. At present nobody seems clamorous for the empty honors it will distribute.

The garbage barrel must go and be replaced by the closed can before the city can enjoy that cleanliness which the authorities and the people long for.

Isn't it about time for the C. & P. railroad and the city to make another effort to reach agreement, so that the work of improvement may proceed?

Cured His Mother of Rheumatism.

"My mother has been a sufferer for many years with rheumatism," says W. H. Howard, of Husband, Pa. "At times she was unable to move at all, while at all times walking was painful. I presented her with a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm and after a few applications she decided it was the most wonderful pain reliever she had ever tried. In fact, she is never without it now and is at all times able to walk. An occasional application of Pain Balm keeps away the pain that she was formerly troubled with." For sale by Alvin & Bulger.

Lost Pins.

What becomes of pins?

It would really seem reflecting upon the daily disappearance of pins that the earth would be covered with them and that the annual fall if measured would amount to several inches. Women who start out with pins playing a useful part in the details of a gown will tell you that they never can find a pin; that they are always buying pins; that they are eternally loaning them. In the dressmaker's rooms the expenditure for pins is no small item. The average dressmaker uses and loses twelve papers of pins a month. Yet the floors of her rooms are not matted with them, and frequently her wail goes up, "What has become of all the pins?" Where indeed do they go? Is there a crust of pins subtly forming under the everyday sweep that will puzzle explorers in some far age to come?—Philadelphia Ledger.

Accuracy.

The ordinary person does not have any idea of the painstaking accuracy with which a druggist measures out each ingredient of a prescription, then checks each one over to see that the quantity and kind is exactly right, and then mixes them in the exact way which produces the medicine desired by the physician. Come in sometime and see how it is done. You will have more confidence in the medicine that you get from our Prescription Department afterwards.

THE ST. LOUIS FLOOD.

RIVER RISES WITHOUT WARNING

St. Louis, June 11. — Almost two-thirds of East St. Louis, Ills., is under from 2 to 15 feet of water. Between sunset and dawn 11 lives were sacrificed to the waters, and damage which no man attempted to estimate, had been done to property.

Probably never before in the history of the country has a more valiant fight been made by brave men, with defeat staring them in the face to protect lives and property than has been made by the citizens of East St. Louis. When the rising Mississippi began to threaten the city last Thursday morning Mayor Silas Cook ordered men to work to construct sand bag levees at once. The river rose higher and more men were employed. Citizens of the best classes worked side by side with the laborers. Since Thursday morning 5,000 men, under the leadership of Mayor Cook, without sleep, with little rest and food snatched at intervals, have toiled unceasingly to strengthen levees, and to do everything possible to save the city. Not a wheel of industry is turning in East St. Louis. The smokeless chimneys of manufacturing plants stand lifeless, while the flood whirls at the foundations.

To the south beyond the railway yard, are thousands of homes, mainly humble cottages owned by laborers, and containing their all, submerged to the eaves.

In northern East St. Louis the description is repeated, but not on so large a scale.

The business portion of the city and the district containing the better residences is still intact "but for how long?" is the question. Broadway, running from Eads bridge east to the city limits a wide street walled with stone 15 feet nigh, divides the city in halves. More than 10 feet of water is pressing against Broadway from the south end, and in some places is sweeping through in streams as thick as a man's body. If Broadway shall break the water will rush over much of the city until Missouri avenue, running parallel one block north, is encountered.

Along the river front to the west a levee of sandbags from two to six feet high and two miles long, keeps the river out.

Without warning the river suddenly began to rise. The city was made safe along the river front but suddenly a new danger menaced. Word was received that the Illinois Central embankment skirting the river along the southern boundary of the city was threatening to give way. [illegible] were sent out on horseback and afoot to shout warnings to the inhabitants of the southern half of the city. Carloads of sandbags were rushed to the place and work was hurriedly begun. Accustomed to warnings of impending danger, the inhabitants did not leave their homes. Higher and higher crept the water until a thin stream began pouring over the embankment and suddenly it broke.

News of the inundation excited the people of St. Louis early in the morning. Rumors of many deaths started thousands of sightseers across the Eads bridge. But the authorities prepared to turn back an influx of curious people. At both ends of the bridge ropes were stretched and police were stationed with orders to allow no ingress into the city of spectators who would only hinder the work of rescue. East St. Louis was practically shut off from the world. Even refugees who wanted to go to St. Louis were stopped, and unless they could show that they were sure of being taken care of by friends they were turned back to the relief offered by the city.

Riot guns were collected by Chief of Police Purdy and were given out to-night to guards to patrol the streets where furniture is stacked, and to patrol the sandbag levees. Any thieves or possible levee cutters are to be shot down instantly. Martial law has not been proclaimed officially, but East St. Louis is practically being governed under such a condition during the flood and there is no place for idle and curious persons.

WELLSVILLE

BRAKEMAN KILLED IN CONWAY YARD

Charles Miskall, aged about 28 years and single, was killed instantly, or supposedly so, in Conway yards early yesterday morning. He left this city Tuesday afternoon on the sewer pipe run. Just how the accident happened nobody seems to know. The horribly mangled body was found by the track by his fellow workmen and taken to undertaking rooms, where the remains were prepared for burial. The unfortunate young man had been on the road for some time, and while in Wellsville boarded with Mike Cusick, of the West End.

Mr. Miskall formerly lived at Alikanna, where the remains were taken for interment. He had quite a number of friends in this city and all most keenly feel his untimely departure.

MILLAGE AND ESTIMATES

Prepared By Wellsville Public Service Board—A Hot Discussion.

The board of public service held an all-day session yesterday. About the only real business transacted was the making out of a budget for the coming year's expenses, and this was the last thing done. The following is the budget itemized:

Street repair work, 1 5-10 mills, $3,000; street cleaning, 3-10 mill, $600; new work, 7-10 mill, $1,400; engineering department, 9-10 mill, $1,800; salaries and expenses of office, 7-10 mill, $1,360; poor, 2-10 mill, $400; city building and janitor's salary, 5-10 mill, $1,000; light, 3 mills, $6,000; sewers, 1-10 mill, $200; total mills 7 9-10; total tax, $15,800.

This budget will be submitted to council at the next regular meeting.

During the forenoon the removal of the office came up and a hot discussion ensued. Bowers wants to have the western end of the council chamber fitted up for an office and Stewart wants to move into the hose room. Both expressed themselves very freely. Mr. Herbert, the third member of the board, sided with Bowers and the clerk was instructed to see a carpenter and ascertain whether it would be possible without great expense to have sufficient light in the western end of the council room.

Frank Davis, formerly second engineer at the pump house, came before the board and said he had not been treated fairly while employed at the pumping station. He said he was required to work the night turn and was compelled to do all the repair work. Supt. Ewing was present and showed Mr. Davis where he was mistaken and also that he had been dealt with as properly as the rest. Mr. Ewing said he offered to let Davis work one week at night, then the next day, but Davis refused this. After discussing the matter for about half an hour and both men's temper getting hot, it ended by Davis taking his hat and leaving the room. This little affair closed the meeting.

HORRORS OF THE FLOOD

John Donaghay arrived in town Tuesday evening from St. Louis, his home. He has been kept busy since his arrival relating tales of the horrors caused by the flood. He said the grounds where the great world's fair would be held next year are not and will not be damaged at all, as they are far above the water line. He said where the greatest misery and suffering is becau caused is in East St. Louis, the city being submerged in about eight feet of water.

The water when he left the city was at the greatest height it had ever reached, something over 39 feet. This is two feet higher than ever before. All day long people whose homes have been destroyed by the water are taken to a place where shelter and food are provided. The loss of life is something terrible. The dead are taken to the morgue and if not claimed go to a nameless grave.

He related a peculiar incident of which he was an eye witness. A chicken had floated down the river and was caught under a bridge where it perched on some lumber. A negro on the bridge, 60 feet above, determined to capture the fowl. He put some corn in a basket, then lowered it on a rope beside the chicken. Then he waited for at least two hours for a "bite." At last the chicken hopped into the basket and was slowly drawn up.

Mr. Donaghay, with several other friends was on the bridge on a train, and the negro was on the vehicle road above. When the basket came up to them, one of the men reached out, caught the rope and captured the chicken. The negro was the maddest man in St. Louis.

Mr. Donaghay left St. Louis just in time, as the night he left every bridge out of the city was condemned. It was necessary for the train on which he rode to go through several feet of water for about 12 miles.

Explosion Caused Fire.

Candidates for Police

The Wellsville board of public safety held a short meeting in the mayor's office last evening. Mayor Fogo submitted the following names for members of the city police force: Fred Houser, chief; William Elliott, McIlvane, John Henthorn and William Canaday. They were approved. The city is entitled to six and another officer will be appointed later. This beat was made vacant by the resignation of Harry Snider. The chief will be required to give a $500 bond and each of the officers a bond of $250.

Carr's Son Runs Away.

Patrolman Moore, of the C. & P. railroad, while at the Wellsville depot yesterday morning, noticed a young lad looking nervously around him. Mr. Moore went up to the lad and inquired why he was there. The boy said he had run away from home. He gave his name as Carr and said he was the son of the man arrested in Chester. The boy was taken to the city jail to appear before Mayor Fogo. He said he thought he was 13 years old, but that he might be only 6. He said he was born in 1883. He looks to be about 17 years old.

Ground Hog in His Garden.

Blacksmith Matt De Temple is very much elated over his success as a marksman. In the rear of his lot he has a fine little garden and for some time has been bothered with something nipping different things. Yesterday morning he caught a glimpse of the intruder and went to the house and secured a rifle and slyly crept within range and blazed away. After the smoke had rolled away he investigated his prize and found he had shot a ground hog.

Ejected and Arrested.

John Canaday and a man named Burt, of East Liverpool, were arrested in Wellsville this morning for creating a disturbance on a street car. The conductor gave them back their money and told them to get off. They refused. The conductor then tried to put them off, but could not. Officer Canaday and Constable Thorn were on the car and they came forward, ejected the disturbers and put them in jail.

ing of council relative to the disposal of garbage was considered at length. The board has already made a provision as to how it shall be removed, but it has no right to make any contracts for its removal. There is a rule making it necessary for any person removing garbage to have a wagon that will not leak or barrels that will not permit the filth to escape onto the streets while being conveyed through the city. All such conveyances must be securely covered. Mr. Burgess stated that any violation to the rule can be brought before the board and a severe penalty can be imposed. It was recommended that the council or the board of public service make a contract to have the garbage removed according to the rules of the board. It is probable that council will take the matter up at the next meeting. The code says that council is authorized to contract, for a period not exceeding five years, for the collection and removal and disposal of such garbage, night soil, dead animals, and other solid waste matter at the expense of the municipality or at the expense of persons responsible for the existence of such waste substance.

Mr. Burgess stated that numerous vaults are being dug in the city and asked the board to consider the law regulating them. It was discovered that a vault can be dug only after a permit has been granted by the board of health and that any person violating the law in any manner is subject to a severe penalty.

It was decided to ask the fire department to go to the West End and distinguish the fire that has been burning on the Aten tract for several days. It seems that some one fired a pile of garbage and that it has been causing a very disagreeable stench.

Mr. Haines was unanimously elected president pro tem of the board, after which the body adjourned to meet next week.

An Ancient Tragedy.

A historical paper in Lord Montagu's collection in London tells of a strange tragedy "done in Holborn, a little before Christmas," several centuries ago. "A boy seven years old came up into a gentleman's chamber and prattled to him and drew his sword and flourished with it. The gentleman being in bed, wondered to see the boy toss his blade so and said: 'So, good boy, thou hast done well. Put in the sword.' The boy persisting, the gentleman rose and held him the scabbard, and the rude handed lad, thinking to sheath the sword, lustily chopt it into his belly. Company were called. One offered to strike the child. 'Let him alone,' quoth the gentleman. 'God is just. This boy's father did I kill five years since and none knew. Now he hath revenged it.' And the gentleman died the second dressing."

"A Wonder-Working Remedy For Women," Says Mrs. Brown.

PAINE'S CELERY COMPANY

Tones and Strengthens Every Weak Organ and Invigorates the Whole System.

Paine's Celery Compound has been specially prepared for the relief and cure of the many ailments that afflict women, and it never fails to give a new and healthy tone to the female organs; it removes relaxed debility and unhealthy secretions; it purifies the blood and establishes a perfect and vigorous health.

Mrs. V. L. Brown, Vineland, Cal., writes as follows: "Four years ago female troubles and irregularities commenced to make my life miserable. Though I sought the best medical advice, my sufferings seemed to increase, and recently, upon the advice of a friend, I used Paine's Celery Compound, and found it to be a wonder-working compound. I have used five bottles and can truthfully say I am a new woman. I owe my life and present good health to Paine's Celery Compound."

MARSH HOBBS WORSE

Marshall Hobbs, of New Cumberland, who was shot by Samuel West some time ago, is reported in a critical condition at the home of his uncle, Randolph Hobbs, near New Cumberland. The bullet, which lodged just below his heart, has never been removed.

Hobbs was taken care of at the Gill hospital in Steubenville until it was thought that he would recover and he was then taken to the home of his uncle. During the past few days Hobbs has been gradually getting worse again and now he is sinking rapidly and there are but small hopes for his recovery. West will have a hearing before the circuit court some time this month.

THE GRAND DUCHESS

The Central Opera company has been carefully preparing a new piece for the patrons of the Rock Springs summer theater, and it was presented for the first time this afternoon. The title is "The Grand Duchess," and the company is especially adapted to the production. Manager Strauss has watched the rehearsals during the week and has expressed his entire satisfaction with the piece.

In "The Grand Duchess" the Central Opera company has been properly placed and the production will be sure to please the East Liverpool lovers of music. The cast for the new opera is as follows:

COMPLAINT IS MADE

Of the Actions of Certain Pottery Employes, Who Will Be Brought to Account.

Complaint will likely be made to the Chester authorities in a day or two with reference to the actions of a certain crew of clay workers employed in a Southside pottery.

These men have been annoying certain residents of the town as they passed the shop, and the practice has become so common that steps will be taken to stop it. One of the victims is a well known and much beloved clergyman, and members of his congregation are determined to punish the guilty parties. No more contemptible tricks could be imagined, and the repeated applications of citizens to the firm to have a stop put to it having failed, they have resolved to take the matter into their own hands.

WELLSBURG PYTHIANS

About 500 of Wellsburg's best citizens are picnicking today at Rock Springs, and in spite of the very bad weather are enjoying the day. The excursion was held under the auspices of the K. of P. lodge of Wellsburg, and owing to a misunderstanding with the railroad authorities the attendance is not as large by half as it would have been.

A large number of the visitors attended the matinee during the afternoon, and with the base ball game and the several other amusements the park provides the crowd was enabled to enjoy the outing.

CHESTER NOTES.

A valuable horse belonging to Frank Lowe, of East Liverpool, dropped dead at the park just after noon today. No cause is assigned for the animal's sudden death.

John Shrader went to Pittsburg this morning.

STREETS TO BE CLEANED

Pursuant to the order of council at its last meeting, Commissioner Rose and Engineer Relly, of Chester, have ascertained that it is the duty of Contractor Freshwater to clean the streets, and steps were taken yesterday to have the work done at once.

The streets have been in an abominable condition during the winter, and when warm weather came on and the mud gave way to dust, the condition was no less objectionable. Commissioner Rose asked for instructions at the last meeting of council and was told to look up the contract with Mr. Freshwater. This was done and the contractor has concluded to do the work. The improvement will be greatly appreciated by the residents of the paved streets.

SMART MILLINERY.

Becoming Shapes For Dressy and Ordinary Wear.

Double faced hats, the upper part being white and the under black, are very becoming and smart.

Shapes of black chiffon trimmed with a single ostrich feather are both becoming and useful.

Hydrangeas and jonquils are among the novelties in artificial flowers.

In general the trimmings may be said to be, if anything, flatter than ever, but the outlines of the hat are more raised.

The tailor made hat of the season is much more becoming than formerly, for instead of the universal sailor shape an unusual variety of modes are shown, all of them with rolling or irregular brims and flat or round crowns. With an aigret or a smart bow of ribbon, the trimming is complete, and this can easily be contrived by the woman with a little skill in her fingers.

Secret For Secret.

"I will tell you a secret," said its military governor after surrendering. "The reason of my capitulation was that I had no more powder."

"And, secret for secret," returned the marechal suavely, "the reason of my accepting it on such easy terms was that I had no more balls."

NARROWLY ESCAPED MOB VENGEANCE

HE THREW MOST VICIOUSLY

At Umpire Stillwell Because of a Decision He Thought Unfair And the Crowd Was Closing on Him When Police Interfered—Score, 6 to 4.

By the skin of their teeth the Cuban X Giants won the game from Captain Reark's aggregation yesterday afternoon in the West End park. The fans, numbering fully 500, filed into the park expecting to witness a one-sided affair and were happily surprised when the locals got down to real work and showed the boys of color that they were not playing Wellsville.

But for one feature, almost too disgraceful and low to permit mention, the contest would have gone down on record as being the best of the season and among the best ever witnessed in the park. To Williams, a big burly negro of the first water, so black that ink would appear the color of a bright, new wedding dress along side, is due the credit for the dirty and contemptible portion of the game. That he escaped mob vengeance was due only to the self-respect held by the spectators, none of whom would lay a hand on him. In the history of the game in this city no man ever acted so much like a barbarian.

It was during the most exciting period of the game. The locals had not scored a run until this time. They had not even reached third base for seven long innings. Reark got first on an error made by Williams and Emmerling got a base on an error by Grant, who tried to intercept Reark. Miller stepped forth and smashed the ball far out into left field. He made three bases on it and scored Reark and Emmerling. He then began playing a pace off the bag and when Gibson knocked one down to the pitcher, he rushed in—safe as any man ever scored a run.

"Bully" Williams had received the ball from the pitcher and was so angered when Umpire Stillwell called Miller safe that he drew back and threw the ball as hard as he could directly at Stillwell, who was standing to the rigat of the pitcher's box. Stillwell had a ball in his hand at the time and attempted to strike back, but was unable to land—much to the disappointment of the spectators.

Hardly had Williams let go of the ball until every fan in the park went wild. They shouted: "Kill the brute! String him up! Knock his head off!" and many other forcible epithets. At the critical time Officers Aufderheide, Saulsberry and Morris protected the fellow.

After such a diversion the visiting bunch were strictly in the air and Gibson had no trouble in scoring another run. The confusion did not last long however, and the next three went out without reaching third. The score at this interval stood as it did when the game was finished. And although the locals made a strenuous effort in the ninth to make just two more runs they could not force their luck.

The Giants started off by scoring two in the first, but neither run was earned. A couple of bad throws did the work. In the second and third goose eggs were the results, but in the fourth, fifth and sixth they piled up four more runs by some hard punching and expert base running.

Notwithstanding that the visitors hit him rather freely, Miller played a hard game and was most satisfactory to everyone. He was a little wild, but did great work against such strong people and he did enough to make himself good with the fans when he pounded one for three bases and scored the first runs.

The captain of the Giants said that Brown was one of the best men he has seen this season. He would like to see him have a chance with a faster aggregation. With the fans he is strong and will remain so as long as he remains in the city.

Wallace made a pretty hit, but at the wrong time. Lawrence made a great catch in right, and in fact every one on the local team played the game right up to snuff.

HOUSEWIVES HEADACHES

You don't know why you suffer from headache and you are apt to believe you have some dire female trouble, but its dollars to doughnuts that you are wrong. Women are prone to put off the duties of Nature to attend to the duties of the home and when they do get time to go, the feeling has passed.

every night before going to bed. Keep it up for a few weeks.

A. F. Klopf, of Troy, Ohio, miller at Hayner's Distillery, writes under date of June 10, 1901: "My wife and self suffered off and on for three or four years with Constipation and Sick Headache, and we received almost instant relief by taking Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. The use of several bottles restored our digestive organs to normal condition, and although we are free from any gastric trouble, we do not consider being without a bottle for a minute."

A REMARKABLE GAME IN MANY RESPECTS

THE PRESS TEAM DOWNED THE STREET RAILWAY MEN.

Score Was 13 to 10—Extraordinary Pitching Only Matched By the Batting And Fielding.

The shades of Ben Franklin and Horace Greeley no doubt assumed a pleased expression yesterday afternoon when Old Sol, just cuddling into his nest for the night, beamed down upon the victorious press team as it was leaving Rock Springs park. While some of the members of the two teams have not yet realized that the contest is now a thing of the past, it can be officially announced that the score was 13 to 10 in favor of the pencil pushers.

If the statements of the victors can be believed the "no pushee, no pullee" men were not in it at any stage of the game, but according to the unprejudiced spectators they played an article of ball that would entitle them to win many a game, and had they started Toland as their slab artist, the result might have been different.

On the other hand the disciples of Ben Franklin claim that the seven scored by them in the first two innings looked so good that the only Such rolled them up any old way, just to give his support a chance. Such pitched a gilt edge game, in spite of the fact that the hits of his opponents run into double figures. He was master of the situation all the way through and his record of nine strikeouts in seven innings would bring pleasant recollections to the "only" Christy Matthewson. Such only pitched hard enough to win. The hit column of the fare takers would have been decidedly slim had he let out a few kinks in his arm and had his outfield captured some of the easy scrapers that looked like getting money from home, for his outfield.

The way Harvey Allison slugged the ball ought to make Beaumont feel like a thin dime, and why he was placed at the tail end of the batting order will probably always be a mystery. He was four times at the bat and after one failure landed on the ball three times in succession for three base hits. Another mistake in judgment on the part of the street car men was their selection of a slab artist. Crawford, who started in to do the twirling, was touched up for 10 of the 14 hits and 11 of the 13 runs. Toland, who was substituted in the fourth, had five strike outs and held them down to four hits and two runs.

One of the features of the game was the daring base running of "Peg Leg" McConnell, who, in spite of his crippled condition made third base after being hit by the ball. The rooting of Tidder Irwin was another feature. Count Heinrich de Bullock had his batting eye, but could not get around as far as the home plate. Harris had a one spot in every column except the assists. Martindale, the backstop from the cranberry marshes of Medina county, pulled down several difficult high balls.

J. Allison didn't have much to look after in middle garden, but he captured the only fly that came his way. Jackman, like Harris, had a sequence of ones, until the assist column was reached. Byers, of the hill line, was there with his bat, and Wade hit 'em a few himself. Barnett, behind the bat, had more putouts than the first baseman, and made two pretty catches of foul flies.

HANDICAPPED.

The man who started to run a race in chains and fetters would be visibly handicapped. No one would expect him to succeed. The man who runs the race of life when his digestive and nutritive organs are diseased is equally handicapped. In the one case his strength is overweighted, in the other it is undermined. Success demands above all else a sound stomach.

Doctor Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery cures diseases of the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition. When this is done food is perfectly digested and assimilated and the body receives strength in the only way in which strength can be given—by the nutrition derived from digested and assimilated food.

"The praise I would like to give your 'Golden Medical Discovery' I cannot utter in words or describe with pen," writes James B. Ambrose, Esq., of 1205½ Mifflin Street, Huntingdon, Pa. "I was taken with what our physicians here said was indigestion. I doctored with the best around here and found no relief. I wrote to you and you sent me a question blank to fill out, and I did so, and you then advised me to use Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. I took three bottles and I felt so good that I stopped, being cured. I have no symptoms of gastric trouble or indigestion now."

All interested are requested to be present.

Wellsville vs. Salineville.

The Wellsville base ball team left this morning for Salineville, where they will play the team of that town. The boys of Salineville missed many a meal to practice the national game and will give the boys from here a tight battle. Quite a crowd of rooters went with the team and as they go to make up a large part of a team the victory is assured.

JUST one taste of Hagee's Cordial of Cod Liver Oil (with Hypophosphites of Lime and Soda) will dispel any idea that it is repulsive, nauseating like ordinary cod liver oil.

Those who have been deprived of testing its remarkable reconstructive qualities because they imagined it the greasy, fishy kind, could never be more mistaken.

Hagee's Cordial is a thin palatable fluid, with a pleasant odor and agreeable taste. Children take it readily and it agrees with the most delicate stomach. For thin, emaciated, weak conditions of adults, children or infants, its bracing, tonic effect is marvelous.

BRILLIANT WEDDING

THE PRESIDENT WAS A GUEST

Cleveland, June 11.—Without exception the Hanna-McCormick nuptials, at which Miss Ruth Hanna, the youngest daughter of Senator Hanna and Mrs. Marcus A. Hanna, became the wife of Joseph Medill McCormick, of Chicago, was one of the most brilliant society events the Forest City has ever known. The wedding was solemnized at high noon at St. Paul's Episcopal church. The officiating clergymen were Bishop W. A. Leonard and his assistants, the Rev. Mr. Billings, of Groton, Mass.; Dr. George H. McGrew and the Rev. William H. Jones, of St. John's church. The ceremony was followed by a wedding breakfast at Glenmere, the beautiful Hanna home in Lake avenue. Among the distinguished guests were President Roosevelt and his daughter, Miss Alice, who arrived in town at 5:30 a. m. After the breakfast Mr. and Mrs. McCormick left for their wedding trip to Monticello, Ills. They will be at home in Chicago in the fall.

Precisely at noon the bridal party entered and passed down to the altar. The ushers preceded the maids. They were Howard M. Hanna, of Cleveland, a cousin of the bride; Joseph M. Patterson, of Chicago, a cousin of the groom; Robert Allerton, of Chicago; J. W. Beck, of Chicago; Ernest Minor, of Cincinnati; James Barnes of New York; William Williams, of Philadelphia; Malcolm McBride, of Cleveland. The maids approached the altar two by two, Miss Florence Cobb and Miss Mary Hopkins, of Washington, leading. Following were Miss Claire Hanna, of Cleveland, a cousin of the bride, with Miss Adelaide Hamilton, of Chicago; Miss Virginia Johnston, of Pittsburg, with Miss Frances Lewis, of Portland, Ore.; Miss Laura McClinley, of Pittsburg, with Miss Eleanor Patterson, of Chicago, a cousin of the groom. The maid of honor was Miss Lucia McCurdy, of Cleveland, a cousin of the bride.

The newly wedded couple outwitted their friends in a clever way. Mr. McCormick had been informed that his friends who attended Harvard university with him and who were present at the wedding, had planned to play some tricks on him and his bride. As a result Mr. and Mrs. McCormick left the Hanna home about 4:30 o'clock in a carriage. The groom's college friends followed in a carriage, but after going a short distance Mr and Mrs. McCormick left their carriage and got into an automobile, which was in waiting for them. The automobile was turned loose and the college boys were soon lost. The couple reached Berea, where they boarded a Lake Shore train, and are now en route to Monticello.

RETURNS FROM THE WEDDING

Cleveland, June 11.—The President, Miss Roosevelt, Commander Cowles, U. S. A., and Secretary Loeb left for Washington in a special train over the Pennsylvania railroad at 11 o'clock. The train is due in Washington at 2 o'clock. The evening was spent at the home of Senator Hanna. There was a good sized crowd at the station to wave the President farewell and he responded to the greetings by lifting his hat and bowing.

The remaining guests at the wedding from Washington will leave at their convenience. Many of the Chicago visitors left for the west a few minutes after 11 o'clock.

The precautions taken for the President's safety while in the city were under the personal charge of Chief of Police Frederick Kohler. So efficient was this service and so carefully was the chief executive guarded from possible harm that personal appreciation was expressed by him to Chief Kohler immediately prior to the departure of the train for Washington.

Offers of Relief Declined.

Washington, June 11.—Numerous offers have reached the Russian govern from American sources to aid the families of sufferers in the recent Kischinev incident. All such offers have been declined for the reason that Russia is entirely capable of extending relief, and under the circumstances cannot accept outside aid.

Yellowstone Park Visitors Instructed.

Washington, June 11.—Secretary Hitchcock has issued a new series of instructions to persons traveling through Yellowstone Park. The most notable of the new regulations prohibits all molestation or interference, by feeding or otherwise, with bears and other wild animals in the park.

Head

Hurt So Badly Was Nearly Crazy.

Had no Sleep—Could Hardly Lie Down.

Dr. Miles' Nervine Permanently Cured Me.

"A year ago I suffered from extreme nervous stomach trouble. I was afraid of everything, could not bear to hear singing or music and reading or hearing of a death nearly brought on my own. I could not sleep or hardly lie down, the back of my head hurt me so badly I nearly went crazy. My shoulders hurt and the least thing I did would bring on an attack of extreme nervousness. There were times when I would have a lump in my throat and my mouth would be so dry I could hardly speak. I was in despair until I began to take Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine. I have taken in all twelve bottles and consider myself permanently cured. My home doctor has since remarked on my healthy appearance and said he wished he could say his medicine helped me. He knows it was Dr. Miles' Nervine. We are never without the Anti-Pain Pills and consider your medicines household remedies. I cannot say enough for the Nervine, because in addition to my own case my daughter, who was out of school for a long time because of St. Vitus' dance, was completely cured by eight bottles. She is now feeling fine and going to school every day. We thank you for your kindness and will never stop singing the praises of Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine."—Mrs. C. E. King, Lima, O.

LOCKOUT STILL IN FULL FORCE

Pittsburg, June 11.—The situation in the lockout by the contractors of Pitsburg against the stonemasons' and bricklayers' unions is becoming quite serious, and judging from the determined attitude of the builders, it is apparent that nothing short of a complete settlement of the existing labor warfare will end the lockout. About 8,500 men are locked out.

The Master Builders' association met and decided that the exegencies of the situation rendered it an opportune time for the formation of an international association of builders. To further this end a convention of delegates from builders organizations in various parts of the United States will be held in the Hotel Henry the week beginning June 22. The object of the organization will be to oppose all unjust demands by labor unions and to settle all disputes arising between employer and employe. It is estimated that contracts amounting to at least $10,000,000 will be affected by the lockout and that the wage earners will lose about $25,000 a day.

Verdict of Not Guilty.

Columbus, June 11.—A jury in the United States court brought in a virdict of not guilty in the case of Ivor Hughes, a Columbus attorney, charged with using the mails with intent to defraud. The indictment against him arose out of his connection with the divorce suit of John P. Miller against Mrs. Annie T. Miller, both of whom are now serving sentences in the penitentiary, having been found guilty on similar charges.

Burial of the Liban's Dead.

Marseilles, June 11.—A public funeral of 15 of the victims of the wreck of the French steamer Liban Sunday was held. Every honor possible was shown the dead. WOMAN SHOT FROM AMBUSH

Uniontown, Pa., June 11.—Great excitement has been aroused by developments which seem to point to a heinous attempt to murder Mrs. Chas Ingles, of this city. Some time ago she was shot from ambush and seriously wounded, and Harry Artis, of Fairchance, was brought before a justice in the case, but Mrs. Ingles did not appear against him.

It is now charged that, a few days ago, Artis talked with two colored men, H. O. Grady and Thomas Walker, offering them a gold watch and $50 to kill Mrs. Ingles and providing them with an ironwood stick for the purpose. Artis is alleged to have said to the negroes, "You will know her, as she limps. I shot her once, and intended to kill her, but I shot too low." The negroes have turned the gold watch and the club over to County Detective McBeth and told the story as above related. There is a warrant out for the arrest of Artis, who has disappeared.

Secretary Root at West Point.

West Point, N. Y., June 11.—Secretary of War Root arrived here and will deliver the diplomas to the graduating class of the military academy. He witnessed the first class participate in its last dress parade and afterwards listened to the address of Col. Treat, commandant of cadets, who welcomed the graduates as commissioned officers of the army. Lieutenant General Miles was also present at the ceremonies. The graduating hop at Memorial hall was, in point of attendance the largest and also the most brilliant within the history of the academy.

Attempted Murder and Suicide.

New Model Field Gun for Militia.

Washington, June 11.—General Crozier, with the approval of Acting Secretary Sanger, is making preparations to supply the militia of the several states with the new model field gun and other artillery equipments in accordance with appropriations made for that purpose in the last Congress. These guns will be of the latest model and the same as those supplied to the regular artillery of the army. It is expected that eventually $1,000,000 will be expended for artillery for the militia.

Killed By Lightning.

West Chester Pa., June 11.—Sharpless Baker, a farmer, who occupied the farm of Thomas Brown, a short distance south of this place, was instantly killed by lightning. During the heaviest portion of the storm Baker started across a field, carrying an umbrella with a metal handle. A bolt struck it and the current passed through his body. He was dead when picked up.

BE YOUR OWN JUDGE

Mi-o-na Costs You Nothing if it Does Not Cure, Says Druggist Will Reed.

Mi-o-na, the remarkable flesh-forming food and cure for dyspepsia, has won fame by the unusual way in which it is sold. It is the only remedy offered for the cure of dyspepsia which costs the user absolutely nothing unless it cures.

Will Reed, the popular druggist, is selling a great many packages of Mi-o-na, and with every box is given his personal guarantee to refund the money if Mi-o-na does not give satisfaction, you to be your own judge as to whether the remedy helps or not.

Mi-o-na is an unusual combination, it is a flesh-forming food, combined with agents that regulate the digestive organs and remove irritation, congestion and inflammation from the stomach, liver and intestines. It enables those organs to extract from the food all that goes to make good, rich blood, firm muscle, steady nerves and a sound body. It does not contain any pepsin, pancreatin or other drugs, that never effect a cure and rarely gives temporary relief.

Mi-o-na puts the digestive system into proper working order, gives health, strength and good flesh, and is the only natural cure for indigestion. Even in chronic cases, where life is one long, drawn out pain, this remedy will effect a cure. It is the simplest and most reliable of all remedies. Just one small tablet before or after meals and you can eat a hearty meal with no distress.

If Mi-o-na does not do all that is claimed for it, Druggist Will Reed will cheerfully return your money.

PLEASANT PARTY

Given By Miss Ruby A. Wase on the Occasion of Her Birthday.

The entertainment given last evening by Miss Ruby Alice Wase, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Wase, was one of the most enjoyable social functions given in the younger circles in this city in some time. Miss Wase received the congratulations of her friends upon her fourteenth anniversary.

The home of the hostess on Spring street presented a pretty appearance, being decorated in pink and green in various designs. The hours from 7:30 to 10:30 were made most enjoyable with games. At a late hour a luncheon was served.

Stuttler-Colley.

A very pretty wedding occurred this morning at 10 o'clock in the Hotel Grand building. The parties married were J. W. Colley, a C. & P. brakeman, of Salineville, and Miss Carrie Stuttler, of this city. 'Squire H. P. McCarron performed the ceremony and he states that it has not been his pleasure for a long time to unite such a fine looking couple. They left on the noon train for a honeymoon and will upon their return go to housekeeping in Salineville.

Given a Surprise Party.

Two little sons of Mr. and Mrs. William Dechant have returned from Columbus, where they have been attending school. They will remain for several weeks. A surprise party was given at the home and a very enjoyable season spent by the friends and relatives who attended.

Mission Society Meeting.

The Home Missionary society of the First M. E. church will hold an important meeting this evening at 7:30 o'clock in the church. It is the occasion of the annual mite box opening. All members who find it impossible to be present are requested to send their mite boxes.

HOME AFFAIRS

Taken to Salineville—The remains of Enoch Jones, who died at his home on Pleasant Heights yesterday, were taken to Salineville this morning, where the funeral was held this afternoon. Rev. J. W. Gorrell, pastor of the First Christian church, officiated, and the interment was made in the Salineville cemetery.

Arrested for Loitering—Mrs. Joe McKee and an unknown girl were arrested this morning by Chief Wyman and Officer Aufderheide on a charge of loitering. They were taken before the mayor, who gave them 10 minutes in which to leave the city. Mrs. McKee is the young girl, arrested two weeks ago by Officer Saulsberry, but who was released the day following, her husband appearing and paying her fine.

Change in Pay Day—The C. & P. division of the Pennsylvania company will in the future pay its hands on the 15th of each month instead of the 6th as heretofore. The employes making their headquarters in Cleveland have objected to the change, and there may be trouble over the question. Agent Wassman, of the local office, stated this morning there would be no trouble over the change in East Liverpool.

Notice to Dippers.

Our Jockeys In France.

Rigby, Thompson, O'Connor, McGinn and other American jockeys are again riding in their old form in France, and there are as yet no scandals in connection with the turf. Paris tradesmen are indignant against society giving encouragement to authorities in fixing the date of the Grand Prix in Paris for June 7.

They declare that Americans, English and their rich French patrons date their departure from Paris by this event, which should have been fixed at least a week later, the difference meaning an enormous loss to trade.

Rusie Is Captain of a Minor Team.

Amos Rusie, once one of the most famous of the National league ball pitchers, but for some reason out of the game, has re-entered the game this season in a small way. He has signed a contract to play first base and pitch for the team at Vincennes, Ind., and he will also captain the team. He is in good condition, and it is believed by many that he hopes to get back into the game in one of the big leagues.

LOGSTOWN.

Modern Industry Displaces Famous Old Landmark.

Time soon effaces the works of previous generations. Especially is this so when the demands of the white man's business life decree that the old and the historic shall give way before the new and the useful. Recently the steel trust bought from the Economites their valuable lands at Economy, Pa., on the north bank of the Ohio river between Pittsburg and Beaver. On this land are to be erected enormous steel works, and a new city is to spring up, to be called Ambridge. Thus will be wiped out the quaint old communistic town of Economy, which in turn had usurped the place of Logstown. This former place was a town of great importance in the old days prior to the French and Indian war. It was a center used by the French in their dealings with the Indians, and was located on the Economy lands a short distance down the river bank from the town of Economy. It may have had as many as two score wooden cabins with chimneys in the days of its prime. Here came Washington in 1753 when on his journey as ambassador to the French.

The first definite knowledge we have of Logstown is in the journal of Conrad Weiser, who, on Aug. 27, 1748, arrived there on an important mission to the Ohio Indians. He saluted the town, and says that the salute was returned by about 100 guns. Colonel George Croghan visited the place Dec 16, 1750. French agents were also busy all this time at Logstown. In 1749 Celoron was there. In 1751 Joncaire held a council of all the Indians in the town. This French officer was one of the most able of diplomats in dealing with the Indians, but all his fine art would not win his way with the Logstown chiefs, who returned to him his speech-belt. Logstown was the scene of an important treaty made with the Indians by Colonel Croghan on May 28, 1751. Washington's visit to this famous old town was made on Nov. 25, 1753. There he remained for several days while finishing his plans for the long trip to the French posts at Venango and Le Boeuf. This was about the time of Logstown's greatest glory. The next year Fort Duquesne was built on the present site of Pittsburg, and Logstown began to decline. Its importance as a trading center vanished, and its many houses fell into decay. Then came the French war, with its rapid series of epoch-marking calamities, which drove out the French and installed the English power. So rapid was the decay of Logstown that early in the last century its very site was the subject of a long controversy among historians. Today, however, that question is settled. The ancient site of Logstown will soon be the scene of almost unparalleled industry. Where once was the log cabin metropolis of eighteenth century Indian trade is now arising, as if by magic, the twentieth century city of American manufacture. But the new city will never be as picturesque as the old town, for grimy workmen will take the places once occupied by Frenchmen and Indians.

There are yet living some few persons in Northern Ohio who have a personal recollection of the famous and destructive dry summer of 1845. This drought was not general, but prevailed throughout a fated strip of country lying along the southern shore of Lake Erie for over a hundred miles, and being about sixty miles in width. The spring rains ceased that year in the latter part of March, after which no rain fell till June 10, when during part of a single afternoon a little fall occurred. This small amount of moisture made no impression on the parched ground, and the great dry spell continued absolutely unbroken until July 2, when enough water was let down from the heavens to make a little bit of mud on the roads. Thus did nature merely tantilize the weary and worried people, for the skies again cleared up and assumed their long wonted brassy hue. This continued till in September, when rains came sufficiently copious to start vegetation, but too late to help the sufferers. As this terrible long and dry summer wore on the wells went dry, springs failed, brooks and creeks went dry, and rivers were reduced to mere tiny rivulets meandering along the bottoms of former deep channels. The life ordinarily sustained in the waters was destroyed very largely. Vegetation of course shriveled up. The grass crop became a mere matted tangle of dry and inflammable stuff. The setting of a fire among it was very dangerous, for the flames would run like fiery serpents in all directions. The settlers had to be exceedingly careful as to every spark of fire all through that dreadful summer. Great trouble was experienced with the dust. It was everywhere. Even in meadows one walking would stir up great clouds of it like horses on the roads. Grain crops were practically destroyed. For the most part no attempt was made to harvest them, as they could not have been made to pay for even the time spent in gathering them. The effect of the drought was quite noticeable in the forests, where the trees shed their foliage early in the summer, and the leaves which did not fall dried up on the branches. The only things which seemed to thrive during the dry spell were the grasshoppers, which were reduced at length to the eating of thistles and elders to sustain life. The scarcity of feed which followed compelled the owners of stock to sell at low prices, or to send their animals down into the Scioto valley or over into Pennsylvania. This great drought brought total ruin to many a hard-working man, and it took others many years to recover their lost standing with the world. It is safe to say that never while he lives will any man forget the drought of 1845, who, as a man and a farmer, tried to live unharmed through it.

Abyssinian Money.

The Emperor Menelik has had a curious experience in his efforts to replace barter by a metallic currency in Abyssinia. The Maria Theresa thaler has for generations been current, but for want of a smaller coinage salt blocks became the standard of exchange and resisted all efforts, even of the emperor, to replace them by a new currency coined in Paris some years ago. The salt blocks have given way, but not to the new coinage which the people will not touch. The new standard of values is—the rifle cartridge.

INTERNATIONAL SPORT.

English College Lacrosse Players to Invade America.

The combined lacrosse team from the two English universities, which is to tour the United States this summer, as at present arranged will consist of ten or eleven Cantabs and five or six Oxonians.

The team will be organized under the auspices of the Cambridge University Lacrosse club and is not to be regarded as an Oxford-Cambridge team, because the Cambridge club is twenty years old, while the Oxford club is only in its first season and therefore could not accept challenges or arrange for such a tour.

At the same time the first lacrosse match between the Oxford and Cambridge clubs, held recently, demonstrated that the Oxonians were justified in accompanying the Cantabs, but not in taking a leading or equal part in the tour. The tour itself, in fact, is regarded rather in the light of gaining valuable experience for the English players than meeting the American and much less the Canadian clubs on equal terms. From this point of view the tour has the full approval of the leading English lacrosse associations and the universities' team proposes to sail about June 10, arriving in New York June 17.

The first match will be played with Harvard, and this is considered a happy fixture, as it will precede the Harvard-Yale baseball match. The remainder of the tour will be arranged later. It will begin at Boston and end at Montreal. The team is now waiting for satisfactory information as to how the cost of the tour will be met.

Then there are the young twirlers, and it can be said that Comiskey's chances at the pennant depend almost entirely upon their work. Flaherty, Dunkle and Owen were all successes in the minor leagues last year and have made a good impression in their spring work outs.

If they can keep their minor league reputations in major league company Comiskey will have a string of five strong twirlers, and with "Comy" and Callahan both working for the "run getting" ability the White Sox should make a good showing in the race.

Much depends upon Callahan. This is his first year as manager, and he starts out with a team which is not conceded the championship in advance. Ultimate success, however, will be all the more to his credit when it is once attained.

20TH YEAR. NO. 137. EAST LIVERPOOL, O., WEDNESDAY, JUNE 11, 1903. TWO CENTS.

CURFEW ORDINANCE WILL BE ENFORCED

Mayor Weaver Determined That the Law Shall No Longer Remain a Dead Letter.

EVILS WHICH HE WILL ATTEMPT TO ABOLISH

Mayor Weaver made the positive declaration this morning that he intends to enforce the curfew ordinance to the letter. It has been in existence for several years but has not been made effective and the mayor proposes to see that it is carried out. He said that the action will be taken in the interests of the parents who have no control over their children.

"There are some parents in the city," said he, "that are absolutely powerless to keep their children at home at nights. It is outrageous and I am going to help them. It seems to me a terrible state of affairs when boys ranging from 12 to 16 years are allowed to roam the streets until 12 and 1 o'clock at night. They learn more vulgarity and immorality in this way than the average citizen has any idea of. I suppose that some of the parents will be adverse to the action, when they are compelled to come down to the city hall and pay a fine to get their children released from custody, but it is the only way that I know of to remedy the conditions and I will most certainly have the ordinance enforced. I have instructed the chief to carry out the measure and it will be done. It will also have a tendency to break up the crowd of young girls that walk the streets every night. I feel sorry for their parents. They certainly do not know what their children are doing and learning. It is awful that they are allowed to do it and it emphatically must be stopped."

The curfew ordinance provides that children under the age of 16 must be off the streets before 10 o'clock during the summer months and before 9 o'clock in the winter. The enforcement of the ordinance will cause the police considerable trouble but they are all willing to suffer themselves and will do all within their power to carry out the order of the mayor.

A BLOODY REVOLUTION AT SERVIA'S CAPITAL

Belgrade, Servia, June 11.—(Special.)—A military revolution broke out here at midnight. The troops revolted under the leadership of Major Angikovich, surrounded the palace, shot to death King Alexander, Queen Draga, the queen's brother Nikodem and her sister; Premier Markovitch, Ministers Petrovitich and Tudorovich, General Palolitch, the former minister of war and some of the members of the royal guard.

Prince Karl Georgevitch was proclaimed king, a new government formed and a proclamation issued calling on loyal Servians to aid in maintaining order and security throughout the land.

National representatives have been summoned to meet in Belgrade on June 5.

People are thronging the streets, discussing the terrible tragedy, but without condemnation. The bodies of King Alexander and Queen Draga are lying on a bier in the palace.

Causes leading up to the revolution were the tendency of King Alexander to eliminate the radical element from the government and his reported intention to appoint Queen Draga's brother, Lunjecitza, heir apparent. The people also disliked Draga intensely and were outraged at the recent suspension of the constitution.

The board of public safety will hold a meeting this evening. It was the desire of the board to take action relative to the position of chief of police at this meeting, but owing to the non-action of council at the meeting Tuesday evening the board is powerless to take up the question and the conditions will remain unchanged until council does take the necessary steps.

Mayor Weaver and the members of the board are unable to discover why council failed to pass the ordinance creating the office of chief of police and will insist that the matter be taken up. The mayor cannot appoint a permanent chief until the position is created, and of course the board cannot confirm one that has not been appointed.

From a technical standpoint the city is absolutely without a chief of police, fire chief and officers to serve under them. The code says that council shall pass an ordinance fixing the number, salaries and bonds of all officers and other members of the police and fire departments.

Relative to the chief of police it says that the police department "must" include a chief of police. Though it has been intimated that Mayor Weaver did wrong in making a temporary appointment, he feels that as the code plainly gives him authority to make a temporary appointment and says nothing about who the man shall be, his action was perfectly legal.

The mayor said this morning, when speaking of the question of the age limit, that he inspected the rules compiled by Judge Okey at Columbus recently and discovered that although the judge provided a limit in age, height and weight on every other class of officers, the chief of police is exempt from all restrictions. He feels that any decision made by the board should rule according to merit alone.

Lisbon, June 11.—(Special)—The contested will case in which the heirs of Abraham Hartley, of Washington township, are litigants, was still in progress when court adjourned last evening.

Byron Hudson, one of the executors named in the probated will, and also one of its chief beneficiaries, was put on the stand yesterday afternoon. Hudson was a relative of the deceased only by marriage, Mrs. Hartley having been an aunt. As a tenant of Hartley's farm Hudson had many dealings with the old gentleman and was frequently at his house. He said that one day while he was there Mr. Hartley told his niece Lina, the plaintiff in this action, who was caring for the old gentleman, to get his will and read it to Byron. On this occasion, as on others mentioned in the testimony, the witness said Mr. Hartley declared himself satisfied with the will in the most positive terms.

Abraham Hartley, of East Palestine, a distant relative of the deceased, told on the witness stand how several of the Hartley heirs, including Lina and Amos Hartley, expressed their dissatisfaction over the will at the time of the funeral. He quoted them as expressing the wish that the Hudsons had got nothing under the will and declaring that they wanted to keep them from getting the best of the property as the will provided. He said that Lina and Amos Hartley spoke of taking hold of the estate and settling it up themselves.

The examination of witnesses was continued today, with little prospect of the case reaching the jury before tomorrow. The burden of the testimony introduced by the defense was apparently intended to show that the plaintiffs themselves destroyed the original will.

VEHICLE OVERTURNED

While driving on East Fourth street last evening Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Taylor and Jud McCain and wife were thrown out of a surrey and Mr. McCain was severely injured.

A strap attached to the neck yoke became useless, and the vehicle was allowed to run forward onto the horses. It overturned and in jumping Mr. McCain was hurt. The other members of the party escaped unhurt.

BEES GOT BUSY IN THE DIAMOND

A swarm of honey bees created wild excitement in the Diamond late yesterday fternoon when they swooped down upon the big sign in front of Pattison's jewelry store and insisted on stinging every one who had nerve enough to make an attempt to pass. Who they belonged to, no one seems to know. They came unexpectedly and were soon in command of the peculiar situation.

A street car while passing through the Diamond attracted the swarm and a large number of them darted at it and lit upon many of the passengers. Confusion reigned supreme for a short time and the bees never let up in their attack until the car had reached the city hall. They also attacked numerous other people.

A young man who knew the ways of the bees procured a box and in a few minutes had them all securely in his possession. He sold them to a countryman a short time later.

The excitement caused by the visit of the busy little bodies will never be forgotten. They left their marks upon scores and if they never come back it is safe to predict that no tears will be shed.

CRUELTY TO HORSES TO BE STOPPED

One Suit Has Already Been Entered And More Are Promised.

Action is bound to be taken to prevent cruelty to animals in the city Three cases of brutal and inhuman treatment came to light yesterday and as a result a warrant was issued in the court of 'Squire McLane for the arrest of one John Doe, and it is said that others will be issued before the end of the week.

At the city hall this morning a well known business man appeared and stated that he saw a man unmercifully whipping a team of horses on Broadway and that he had seen the same action yesterday. The report started a discussion of the barbarous happenings and Chief Wyman stated that he intends to arrest and prosecute every man that is reported committing such deeds.

BOARD OF HEALTH WANTS REFORMS

THE RULES ABOUT CARBAGE

The board of health wrestled for three hours last evening with many questions, and as a result of its deliberations the health officer, sanitary policeman and the board of public safety were instructed to be wider awake than ever before for the purpose of abating all nuisances, especially those that are found to be a menace to health. With this end in view the board passed several resolutions, destructly obey the ordinances, and several of the most important ones were cited for particular notice.

Four members, Messrs. Mowen, Birkett, Haines and Harris, were present. They were presided over by Mayor Weaver, and Health Officer Ogden, Sanitary Policeman Burgess and City Solicitor Davidson swelled the number and took an active part in the proceedings. The latter states that until last evening he really did not realize the importance of the board of health. He found by a perusal of the code that its powers are many and mean much to the city.

The first subject introduced for discussion was that pertaining to the right of residents to connect their sanitary sewers with the storm sewers of the city. The solicitor was asked concerning the matter and stated that either the board of health or the board of public service can prevent it. The board of health can declare such work a nuisance and stop it from that standpoint and as the board of public service has control of all sewers it can provide a rule against any such connections. The final decision of the board was that sanitary sewers must not be connected with storm sewers, and steps will be taken not only to have such sewers as are joined disconnected, but to prevent it in the future.

The solicitor, when asked regarding manure boxes that are found in alleys, streets and yards, stated that the board of health has the right to declare them a nuisance and that it is then up to the board of public service to have them removed. Sanitary Policeman Burgess raised the question. He has been appealed to every day for months by people wishing action be taken whereby owners of stables should be forced to remove the boxes. In some sections of the city the complaint is made that around the stables the filthy conditions are sufficient to spread disease at an alarming rate.

The license fee granted venders of milk and meat was raised from 25 cents to $1 and it was decided to have these foods inspected at regular intervals. The licenses are to be procured from the clerk of the board of health.

The question raised at the last meet-

CENTENNIAL ARRANGEMENTS NEARLY PERFECTED.

Brilliant Illuminations and Superb Decorations Will Be Abundant.

Lisbon, June 11.—(Special)—Lisbon is already beginning to assume centennial airs and when the time comes for that event next week even the life-long residents will feel like strangers in a strange land. Tom Johnson's big tent is here and its canvas is spread on a lot on Chestnut street but a short distance from the business part of town. Workmen are busily engaged constructing the large band platform in the center of it for the grand ball to be given Wednesday evening.

Work is also in progress on the speakers' stand and the placing of the seats, all of which must be completed soon to give the decorator time to perform his part of the work. The decorations are to be something elaborate and will be arranged by the firm that had the contract for the decoration at the Chillicothe centennial. Nearly all of the material and designs will be furnished by the contractor.

A large platform to serve as a band stand and reviewing stand from which Senator Hanna and other notables will review the military parade is being erected on the southeast corner of the square opposite the court house. The square at night will be brilliantly illuminated by a number of arc lights and the shade trees in the park have been trimmed to a considerable height to admit of a better effect in this particular.

The Young Men's Lyceum club has tendered the freedom of the club room to the local Elks who will make the visiting brethren of that order welcome there. The lodge rooms of the Grand Army, Masons, Odd Fellows, Knights of Pythias and Knights of the Golden Eagle will also be open to visiting members of the respective orders. Similar action has been taken by the Lisbon Business Men's association, members of all business associations in the county being invited to make the association rooms their headquarters.

BIG DAMAGE SUITS

Against Railroad Company Will Be Tried in the United States Court.

Lisbon, June 11.—(Special)—The Pennsylvania company filed its bond with the clerk of courts here yesterday afternoon for the removal of two damage suits in which the company is the defendant, to the United States court in Cleveland. The cases are those of Mary Coanno, of Salem, who has sued for $10,000 for the death of her husband, and Agnew Bros., of Wellsville, who have sued for $5,000 claiming that their coal yard and business was damaged to that extent by the construction of a switch.

BIG IMPROVEMENT ON STREET RAILWAY

GOOD WORK ALREADY DONE

General Manager L. W. Healy, of the East Liverpool railway, has announced that the improvements now being made on both equipment and trackage will be continued until the entire line has been included. Some months ago it was given out by Mr. Healy that the company would double track its line from the city proper to the East End, and the consent of many of the property owners along the route was secured.

This plan has not been abandoned by any means, and the company is now debating whether or not to include this work in the other improvements. At any rate the present track along the river road is to be torn up before the passing of the summer and relaid with heavier iron. The road bed will be ballasted with rock and graded up above the "mud line."

For a month or more a large force of men have been at work on the line between this city and Wellsville, ballasting the track with rock and picking up the bad joints. This work has been completed with the exception of a very small section. The street car men say the improvement makes it possible to maintain the schedule with ease, as a higher rate of speed with the same degree of safety is possible.

The task of rebuilding the track along the river road will be a stupendous one and will cost many thousands of dollars. When the work is completed, and it will be before winter, the entire line will be in an excellent condition for the rough weather, and its patrons can rest assured of better service than ever before.

Besides the track improvements the company has added four fine double truck cars to its equipment and when all have been placed in service the schedule can be filled with big cars.

NEW MAP OF THE CITY

Is Now Being Prepared, Especially for the Use of Insurance Men.

The Sanborn-Perry Map company has a force of men at work here drawing what is known as a fire map of the city, for the use of insurance men. The map will show the location of every piece of property in the city, with the owners' names in the case of factories and business houses. It also gives the streets and the street numbers and the distances from one building to another.

The last map of the kind for the city was made in 1897, and the growth of the town and its suburbs has been so great since then as to make a new map imperative to show the changes.

CHILDRENS' HOME WELL CONDUCTED

The board of visitors to Columbiana county charity and public institutions, consisting of Dr. William Moore, of Lisbon; Messrs. Ellison, of Damascus, and Wallace, of Negley, and Mrs. Henry Aten, of Wellsville; Mrs. George Holmes, of Salem and Mrs. George P. Ikirt, of East Liverpool, convened at the Fairmount Children's Home near Alliance Tuesday. The board found the Home in most excellent condition. At the present time 35 children are enrolled and all are in good health. The schools, including a fine kindergarten and primary department, are still in session and the work being accomplished in the several grdes is of superior quality. The Home and the cottages are models of neatness.

The ladies having charge of the various cottages and the schools are very proficient and faithful in the discharge of their duties. The only criticism of the board was that the teachers were not as well paid as they should be. Their hours of work are long, and they receive only $15 per month, including laundry and board.

Flowers and choice shrubbery with a well kept lawn make the exterior of the home, with its wealth of shade trees, a beautiful spot. The fine condition of the Home is the result of the skillful management and the untiring devotion to this institution of its efficient superintendent, M. E. Southworth and his estimable wife and to the board of trustees, of which Hon. David Boyce was mny years a member and succeeded by N. A. Frederick.

WITH THE WORKMEN IN THE CLAY PLANTS

POTTERY HISTORY.

Many clever women in this country, who now make a specialty of collecting china, porcelain and earthenware which has been in the United States for more than 100 years, unite patriotism with ceramics. The field is much larger and more difficult than appears at sight. The very age shuts out thousands of specimens which are eagerly sought for by ordinary collectors. The difficulty to the lover of the antique is great, because most of the owners of these precious wares refuse to part with them. There are several collections in New York which are of unusual size and interest. In one there has been a special effort toward the accumulating of Indian, Zuni, Maya, Aztec and Toltec wares. Very many of these are made of simple earthenware decorated in black and other dull colors, and only a few have any glaze.

Of the second class there are many kinds of table ware brought over by settlers in the seventeenth and eighteenth centuries. The modern age is apt to overlook the simple fact that in the old days all ceramic goods were harder to get and more expensive than at the present time. Emigrants carried table ware with them, where today they bring merely clothing and money. The Pilgrims and Puritans brought out English and Dutch ware; the Huguenots seemed to have possessed the finest taste in this line, and imported to this country fabrics from the kilns of France and Italy. The Knickerbockers were staunch patrons of Delft, Leyden and other establishments in the Netherlands. The Palatines of New York, who moved to New Jersey and Pennsylvania, betrayed their love of the Rhineland by a goodly assortment of the heavy, dark glazed pottery which prevailed in that district in the first half of the eighteenth century. This love of home was manifested by the Spanish settlers in California, Mexico, Louisiana and Florida, who amid their household goods had many delicate bits of the fine wares of Spain. Rarest of all were Scandinavian goods conveyed to the New World by the Swedes and Fins, who came here in the seventeenth century.

Not more than 200 pieces are known to be in existence today, most of which are held in Philadelphia and other Pennsylvania communities. In the third class are goods turned out by the Colonial and post-Revolutionary potteries. Of these there are at least 10 in operation altogether, which had a fair output. The workmanship was somewhat clumsy, although now and then designs are encountered which possess considerable merit. Some of these are now held in the Widener, Ives, Morgan and Storer collections. The prices paid for these goods are fanciful in the extreme.

WHY MORGAN CAME.

An injustice was done to John W. Morgan, of Trenton, when it was stated that he was in the city to gather statistics and examine into the condition of the western jiggermen, as the representative of the eastern branch of this trade, so that the uniform scale of the west can be adopted by them. While Mr. Morgan was in the city last May he liked it so well that he decided to locate here permanently, and it is for this purpose that he is now here. He will move his family here in a short time.

PIPE PLANT SOLD.

It is reported that Thomas Buckley, a well known potter, has purchased the clay pipe works on Eighth street, owned and operated for many years by Thomas Glenn. The plant, owing to Mr. Glenn's advanced years, has not been operated for some time. Its capacity at the present time is rather limited, there being but one small kiln but it will be increased as the business warrants. Quincy Adams, a son-in-law of the purchaser, will have charge of the plant. The output is confined to clay smoking pipes, and it is considered by many that there is a good opening for this line of ware.

DEMANDS OF SANITARY MEN.

The owners of the Trenton sanitary plants, within a few weeks, will likely be called upon by the Brotherhood to appoint a committee to meet a similar committee from the sanitary workers for the purpose of installing a uniform price list for kilnmen, packers and saggermakers employed in sanitary potteries. Another question which will come before the conference is one asking that sanitary pressers be given the privilege to pay their help and not the firm. This last request comes from the potteries outside of Trenton, as the custom of allowing the pressers to pay their own help is pretty thoroughly observed there.

JETT-WHITE MURDER TRIAL

They Are Being Tried Jointly—Indictment Charging Them With Conspiracy to Murder.

Jackson, Ky., June 11.—The third day of the trial of Curtiss Jett and Thomas White, for the murder of Attorney J. B. Marcum, was marked by the evidence of B. Lewen, the first and leading witness of the commonwealth. Jett and White are being tried jointly, the indictment charging them with conspiracy to murder. It is charged that White entered the court house while Marcum and Ewen were standing together and as he passed them gave the signal to fire. Ewen testified to seeing White just before and after Marcum was shot, and to seeing Jett just after Marcum was carried out of the court house. Ewen's testimony corroborated the statements he had made previously regarding both prisoners and he withstood the most rigid cross-examination.

Other witnesses examined during the day were Judge J. C. Bache, John M. Patrick, Kelly Kash, County Attorney Blanton and William Combs, a farmer. Their testimony was confirmatory of that given by Ewen, and was not shaken in the cross-examination. In the morning, when the witnesses were ordered out of the court room, attorneys for the defendants asked that County Judge Hargis be allowed to remain.

On the objections of attorneys for the commonwealth being sustained Judge Hargis retired with the other witnesses. When the court reconvened in the afternoon the daughter of County Judge Hargis, the leader of the dominant feudists, occupied a seat beside the prisoners. At the afternoon session attorneys for the defendants moved to dispense with the presence of troops in the court room and were overruled. Inspector Hines, from Frankfort, arrived under orders from Governor Beckham. It is generally believed that he will report how the trial is conducted so far as judge, prosecutor, jury and officials are concerned, and much interest is taken in his presence.

MEN BUILDING A BARN

Were Struck, a Heavy Timber Which They Were Carrying Being Splintered And Killing Them Instantly. Man on Horseback Also Killed.

Medina, June 11.—Lightning at Acme, a small town nine miles southeast of here, did terrible work Tuesday afternoon. Four men, well known in that part of the county, were killed outright, and a fifth stunned and perhaps fatally hurt. At Lodi, a lad of 12 years was killed about the same time by lightning and a companion prostrated.

The dead at Acme:

WILLIAM REBMAN.
JOHN SHOOK.
JOHN WINKLER.
CLARK FISHER.

Killed at Lodi:

CLEM CARVER.

The four men who met death at Acme, with a companion named Jacob Means, were engaged in rebuilding a large bank barn on a farm owned by J. F. Long, a well-to-do farmer. The farm was occupied by Rebman, who was killed. The place is also known as the Peter Leichey place.

Means, who was perhaps fatally shocked by the lightning, was the contractor of the job, employing the rest of the men including Rebman, who was also a carpenter. Fisher was principal of the public schools at Richmond, but during the summer vacation was doing carpentering.

The storm, which swept over the county with such loss of life, appeared to be only an ordinary summer shower, and very little rain fell. When the storm approached the men working on the barn were loath to drop their tools for so small an affair and worked until the rain began to fall. Then some one suggested that the take shelter inside the partly completed barn. A heavy sill was lying in the yard and the four men shouldered the heavy timber to take it inside to work on during the storm.

The four men were walking toward the building Indian file with the timber on their shoulders, when, with a blinding flash and a deafening roar, a bolt of lighning came from the clouded sky and struck the sill. The timber was splintered into bits and the men thrown to the ground. Death was probably instantaneous. Their bodies were horribly burned in places. Means, the contractor, who stood several feet away directing the work, was thrown to the ground and neighbors bore him away unconscious. It is thought he will die. The news of the accident nearly terrorized the little community. Three of the men were married with families.

Clem Carver, killed at Lodi, was working with several others in the swamps near there when the storm approached. Carver jumped on his horse and rode to a barn for shelter. Just as he reached the shelter he was struck by lightning and instantly killed, as was the horse. A companion named Holmes was rendered unconscious, but will recover. Throughout the swamps the force of the shock was felt and many were affected.

MAYOR MUST APPEAR IN COUR.

Pittsburg, June 11. — William B Hays, mayor of Pittsburg, will have to answer at the bar of the criminal court of Allegheny county at this term to the indictemnt handed down yesterday by the grand jury, charging him with violating the law of the commonwealth of Pennsylvania, which prohibits the discharge of old soldiers without cause. The prosecutor is John C. Haymaker, district attorney, and a recent competitor of Mayor Hays for the office which the latter holds. The prosecuting witness will be Samuel Moore, a resident of the Sixth ward and a battle-scarred veteran of the Civil war, who was removed from the position of ordinance officer by Mayor Hays on March 31 for political reasons.

Upon the result of this case depends the positions of 55 old soldiers who were removed by the present city and county administrations for political reasons.

The case will attract attention all over the state and in other states, as it is the first time in Pennsylvania that a test has been made of the power of state, county or municipal authorities to remove old soldiers from public positions with an act on the statute books prohibiting the same.

RAILWAY MEN GO ON STRIKE

Huntington, W. Va., June 11.—The fight between the members of council and Mayor C. M. Buck, which has been on here for two weeks past, took a sensational turn this morning when almost 1,500 employes of the Chesapeake & Ohio shops, including every branch of the industry, even to the office force, went out on strike.

The employes at the institution demanded that William R. Davis, member of council from the Second ward, who is a carpenter at the shops, be discharged by the railway company because he was unfriendly to the union, he having voted along with a majority of the councilmen to take from Mayor Buck his authority to name standing committees for the year, which gave the city a police force not liked by the mayor.

A CRISIS AVERTED.

HE MAKES AN IMPASSIONED PLEA

London, June 11.—By a dexterous and extraordinary speech Premier Balfour temporarily smoothed over the differences in the cabinet, relieved Colonial Secretary Chamberlain of any necessity of resigning, and for the moment averted a crisis which threatened the Unionist party. This Mr. Balfour accomplished without committing the government either to protection or free trade, though the effect of his speech will generally be taken to mean that the tariff issue is to be shelved for the present. Henry Chaplin's amendment which gave rise to the most interesting debate of the present parliament, was defeated by the overwhelming majority of 393 votes, composed of Unionists, Liberals, Irish members, Mr. Chaplin's adherents, and almost all the followers of the government, while many others of the Conservative party abstained from voting.

It was half past ten o'clock when Premier Balfour sprang to his feet to reply to the taunts of the opposition and appeals from his own party.

For two days the House of Commons has rang with echoes of discussion within the cabinet and dissatisfaction without. The premier was loudly cheered. He had scarcely commenced to deal with Mr. Chaplin's amendment before he was interrupted by a hurricane of applause and ironical cheers at the entry of Mr. Chamberlain, who had been absent hitherto throughout the evening. The colonial secretary dropped into his accustomed place. The house was now packed with peers, members of the house, and spectators, as it has not been since the days of home rule, and they waited and listened in tense expectation.

In a whimsical vein Mr. Balfour explained that the only reason that the corn tax was put on was because the government wanted money and the only reason it was taken off was because the government wanted money no longer.

Sir Henry Campbell Bannerman, the Liberal leader, appealed for an opportunity for the house to more fully discuss the issue raised. The members of the house trooped into the lobby to vote against Henry Chaplin's amendment, the general comment being "Balfour has saved Chamberlain."

The colonial secretary himself, jubilant, said: "Our friend, the enemy, is nonplussed this time."

With the exception of some irreconcilable malcontents the Unionist party is greatly relieved by the outcome of the debate, all the members expressing gladness that the crisis was passed, at the same time believing that the same cabinet could not long continue to embrace such opposites on the fiscal policy of Great Britain as Colonial Secretary Chamberlain and Chancellor of the Exchequer Ritchie.

Admires American Energy.

Berlin, June 11.—"It is only Americans that meet my wants" is one of the latest utterances of Emperor William circulating in army and government circles. The Emperor spoke these words recently, according to the Tageblatt, while dining with the officers of one of his favorite Silesian regiments, and the thought pleased the emperor so much that he has frequently repeated it in other forms since then. It is pointed out that the visit of the Prussian finance minister, Baron Von Rheinbaben, to the United States, attracts unusual attention among the initiated because of the emperor's admiration for American energy and practical insight, and it is assumed that his majesty designs giving the minister larger tasks, for which his American observations will be especially useful.

neck can be cut square or high. These details depend entirely upon the make of the gown to be worn over them.

The woman who is able to make some of her clothes at home would do well to invest in some of these slips. With three slips much variety may be obtained, and one of black, one of white and one of some pale color will be found very effective worn under cream or lace robes. A pretty sateen slip can be used under muslin gowns.

The number of robes all ready to be made up in lace, veilings, crepe de chine or other materials is increasing all the time. There is a great demand for fine embroidery and also for gowns which can be run up at home by an inexpensive dressmaker. By means of the robes dresses can be obtained at one-third their actual cost when made by a good dressmaker.

A gown of pale rose veiling is here shown. The skirt has the fashionable triple effect and the latest sleeve, having a wide, tight cuff. The wide belt and rosette are of oriental satin.

German Syrup.

We want to impress on our readers that Boschee's German Syrup is positively the only preparation on the market today that does relieve and cure consumption. It contains the specifics, such as pure tar, extracts of guaiac, etc., which have been so highly endorsed for the cure of coughs, colds and consumption by the great medical congresses. The consumptive, whether his disease is in the throat or lungs, must have rest at night, and be free from the spasm of dry and racking cough in the morning. The diseased parts want rest, healing and soothing treatment, and the patient needs fresh air, good food, etc. German Syrup will give free and easy expectoration in the morning with speedy and permanent relief. Small bottles, 25 cents; regular size, containing nearly four times as much, 75 cents. At all druggists. 2

PERSIAN MISSIONARY TALKS OF HIS PEOPLE

One of the most entertaining lectures heard in a long time by the people of the East End was that of Dr. Yohannon, a young Persian, in the Second Presbyterian church last night. The auditorium was well filled and all were very highly pleased. The lecturer is a young man of extraordinary attainments and one of the few men of his country who have come to the United States to secure an education.

Dr. Yohannon came to this country seven years ago and has been educating himself as a medical missionary. He will return to Persia during the summer and devote his life to the well being of his people. His lecture last night dealt with the manners, customs and religion of the Persians. At an early age he became a school teacher at a salary equivalent to $2.50 a month in American money. Money in that country has a greater purchasing power, however, his subsistence costing him but 25 cents a month. After he had been teaching for some time his salary was increased to $2.75 a month, and later to $5 a month. Most of the people of Persia are Mohammedans, the lecturer stated, although a few of the people hold to other beliefs. There are a few Christians, but they do not make an open avowal of this faith, because of persecutions.

MORE NEW HOUSES

Midway Land Company And Others Are to Keep Up East End's Building Boom.

It was announced this morning that the Midway Land company would soon let the contracts for the erection of four more new dwelling houses on its property south of Mulberry street. Of the seven dwellings just completed by the company on this property but one remains unsold. The contracts for the new structures will provide for their completion during the summer.

Many new buildings in other parts of the East End are being commenced every day and many are being completed. In spite of this fact there are no empty houses and new people who come in daily find it hard to secure a home.

Two Missionary Socials.

The Women's Missionary society of the Second Presbyterian church will hold a social this evening at the home of Mrs. John Grant, on Pennsylvania avenue. Refreshments will be served and a pleasant evening is anticipated.

The Ladies' Aid society of the Erie street M. E. church will give a social this evening at the home of Mrs. Emeline Hamilton, corner Chestnut and Ohio avenues. A cordial welcome is extended and a good time is assured to all.

Reviewers Were Visitors.

The East End was visited this morning by the board of review for East Liverpool, composed of Messrs. J. S. Hilbert, T. H. Arbuckle and C. A. Ferguson. The visit had no particular significance, the board merely wishing to have a personal knowledge of the location of certain East End properties.

Prominent Italian Ill.

Emanuel Campanella, commissary agent for almost the entire number of Italians employed in railroad construction along the river division of the C. & P., has been very seriously ill at Industry, threatened with typhoid fever. Dr. Mowen was called to that town to see him this morning.

EAST END AFFAIRS.

Miss Lena Finley has returned from a brief visit with relatives at Georgetown.

Miss Lola Duncan, of Ohioville, is the guest of Mrs. Archie Searight, of Maple avenue.

Miss Mina McDaniel has gone to Winfield, where she will spend the summer with relatives.

Mort Calhoun, jiggerman at the Klondike, has been idle several days, owing to the illness of his crew.

Quite a number of the members of Eureka council, P. H. C., will attend the social to be given this evening by the new Pleasant Heights lodge.

Mrs. Alice Winegrove, of Erie street, has purchased one of the houses built by the Midway Land company in its addition west of Mulberry street. She will occupy the house next Saturday.

W. D. Hopkins, of Mulberry street is entertaining his parents, Mr. and Mrs. David Hopkins, and son David, all of Shawnee, O. They arrived this afternoon and will remain a week or more.

MANY CURES IN EAST LIVERPOOL

Will Reed Reports Good Work Done By Hyomei in Curing Catarrh.

It is seldom that a remedy has made so many cures in so short a time as Hyomei has in curing diseases of catarrh in East Liverpool.

Will Reed has so much faith in the powers of Hyomei to cure catarrh that at the very sart he sold the remedy under his personal guarantee to refund the money in case it did not give satisfaction. As yet he has had but two customers who asked him to refund the price, while scores have told of the remarkable cures accomplished by this medicine.

Hyomei cures catarrh by a new principle, by breathing balsamic air, not by pills, drugs or nauseating liquids. It is the only positive cure ever discovered for this disease, and it is also the pleasantest method of treatment.

The outfit consists of an inhaler, a medicine dropper and a bottle of Hyomei; the total cost being $1.00. The inhaler will last a lifetime, while for treatment of catarrh a bottle of Hyomei is sufficient for more than a month's use. Simply drop a little of the Hyomei into the inhaler and then breathe it for a few minutes four or five times a day. The air filled with the balsamic healing of Hyomei enters the air passages and lungs, killing the disease germs, soothing the irritated membranes and effecting a permanent cure.

If a cure is not gained ask Will Reed to return your money and he will do it without question.

No fairer way of selling a medicine was ever adopted by any one. You ought to begin the use of Hyomei today on this plan.

The Doctor's Part In Race Suicide

By Dr. ROLAND G. CURTIN of Philadelphia

By high fees he may increase the family expenses to such an extent as to plunge the young husband into debt. Where formerly in maternity cases the usual charges were from $10 to $25, they have advanced to as high as $250.

In the matter of nursing practice has changed. Formerly but little nursing was needed. Now it is necessary to have a trained nurse for weeks.

THE LARGEST NUMBER OF CHILDREN COMES FROM THE UNASSIMILATED FOREIGN POPULATION. Therefore it occurs to me that in thirty years the balance of political power will be in the hands of these children and not in those of the "strain" that has brought our country to its present position among nations.

Among the causes of the diminished birth rate not generally mentioned are the changes in the method of living. The apartment house, which is growing in favor, is a bad school for good wives and mothers, especially those that are young. CHILDREN ARE NOT WANTED in such quarters. The servant girl question often drives families to these houses. The population in the apartment houses, as a rule, turns a cold shoulder upon the woman who is a fond mother or commiserates her for her enslaved position.

ANOTHER CAUSE IS THE PURSUIT OF MANLY CALLINGS BY WOMEN. First, it makes them feel independent of marriage, and, second, they take the work from the men, so that THE MEN CANNOT AFFORD TO MARRY.

Another cause is the nervous trades, which bring on exhaustion and unfit women for maternity and housekeeping. CLERKS, STENOGRAPHERS AND SHOP AND FACTORY GIRLS ARE TO BE INCLUDED IN THIS CATEGORY.

THE NEW GAME LAWS OF WEST VIRGINIA

The Times And Seasons During Which Hunting Is Legal in the State.

It shall be unlawful for any person to catch, kill or injure or pursue, with intent to catch, kill or injure, any ruffed grouse, prairie chickens or wild turkey between the 15th day of December and the 15th day of October following, or any quail or Virginia partridge between the 20th day of December and the 1st day of November following, nor shall any person kill more than 12 quails or partridges in any one day; or any blue winged teal, mallard or wood duck, wild goose or brant at any time between the first day of April and the first day of October, or any snipe except between the first day of March and the first day of July and the first day of November inclusive; or any squirrel, rabbit or hare between the first day of January and the 15th day of September following; provided that nothing in this section shall be so construed as to prevent resident land owners of this state from catching, killing, injuring or pursuing in the manner prescribed by law any such squirrel, rabbit or hare at any time upon their own lands.

Accidentally Shoots His Brother.

New Philadelphia, O., June 11. — Three sons of Wesley Smith, a well-to-do farmer of near Newcomerstown, went out into the woods yesterday. Wesley, aged 16, took a gun to shoot woodchucks. The three got to playing, when the gunt went off, and Walter, aged 10, was shot in the left side and died instantly. Charles, aged 19, received a number of shot in the left eye. Dr. Goudy extracted 113 shot from the dead boy's body. Eighteen or more were taken from the head and face of the other.

Began a Long Sentence.

Lansing, Kan., June 11.—Jessie Morison arrived at the state penitentiary here and began serving her 25 years' sentence for killing Mrs. Olin Castle. She was assigned to the dressmaking department, but will be permitted to do fancy work until she shall have recovered her health. She was weak and nervous, but showed no signs of breaking down.

Guilty of Resisting Officers.

Charleston, W. Va., June 11.—Marion Marshal, who was tried in the federal court upon an indictment charging him with resisting officers at Atkinsville last February, in the federal injunction cases, was found guilty.

Woman Attempts Suicide.

Uhrichsville, O., June 11. — Della Wilson, aged 21, shot herself in the head on account of a disagreement with her lover, it is said. She will recover.

Plan Approved.

WILL HAVE TO SERVE SENTENCE

Sentenced to Be Hanged on the First Trial, But Supreme Court Granted a New One.

Raleigh, N. C., June 11.—James Wilcox, the murderer of Nellie Cropsey, of Elizabeth City, will have to serve his sentence of 30 years in the state prison here. On his first trial he was sentenced to be hanged but the supreme court gave him a new trial because the spectators at the trial made a demonstration when Wilcox's lawyer arose to speak. On the second trial in a different county, he was convicted of murder in the second degree and sentenced to serve 30 years in the penitentiary. This judgment the supreme court affirmed.

The defendant's attorney on the second appeal urged that most of the evidence was insufficient to have been submitted to the jury and that the suicide theory was as reasonable as any other one, maintaining that the deceased had the opportunity, the motive and the time to drown herself.

The supreme court, in its opinion, said that there were several serious difficulties in the way of endorsement of these views, the principal one being that Miss Cropsey would have had to wade 75 feet from shore to reach water four feet deep. While her affections may have been trifled with, the court thought all the matters properly had been submitted to the jury and it could not say the jury's conclusions were incorrect.

It is hard to say new things about Doan's Kidney Pills. They cure the lame and aching back, the sufferer from kidney disorders and the troubles of those whose urinary organism is wrong in its action. That they do this is so easy to prove that not a vestige of doubt remains. Public endorsement of local citizens is easily proven. Read this case:

Mr. H. Thompson, of 306 Fourth street, presser at the D. E. McNicol pottery, resident of East Liverpool for the past 45 years, says: "During my campaign experience between the years '61 and '64 I contracted a weakness of the kidneys, and at intervals I had an aching pain across the small of my back and was subject to attacks of muscular rheumatism, especially in damp weather. I was frequently so bad that I could scarcely get up when down, and in fact could hardly get around at all. I tried many remedies endeavoring to get rid of the trouble, but found nothing until I got Doan's Kidney Pills at the W. & W. pharmacy. They filled the bill exactly. They gave me almost immediately relief and warded off the last attack."

STEUBENVILLE PRIEST MAY BE BISHOP

Columbus, June 11. — At the meeting o the irremovable rectors of the diocese of Columbus, held at the East Broad street residence of Archbishop Henry Moeller, three candidates were selected by ballot, one of whom may be finally appointed by the pope to succeed to the bishopric of the diocese of Columbus, which was made vacant by the elevation of Archbishop Moeller to the coadjutorship of the arch-diocese of Cincinnati.

The bishops of the arch-diocese of Cincinnati will next hold a meeting to nominate three candidates for the office. They may or may not nominate the three chosen by the rectors. This list will also be sent to Rome. It is generally understood that the choice of the bishops will be the same as that of the priests, who made the following recommendations in the order given:

Rev. Francis W. Howard, now the assistant pastor of St. Joseph's cathedral, Columbus.

Capitalists Looking Over a Proposed Route from Bergholz to That Town.

Toronto, June 11.—Oliver B. Roseberry, of Bergholz, a specialist in oil and coal lands, was here over night and left yesterday morning in company with other capitalists to look over the proposed new coal road projected between Bergholz and Hammondsville. About two-thirds of the right of way for this road has been secured. The line will open up some valuable coal territory in the northern part of the county.

The recent mining developments in Springfield township since the discovery of the vein of coal supposed to be known to geologists as vein No. 5, have been phenomenal. The plants at Wolf's run, near Bergholz, and at Amsterdam are model ones in every particular—equipped with electrical mining machinery and every modern appliance for mining. At Wolf's run the vein, which is over five feet thick and of superior quality, is reached at a depth of 85 feet, and at Amsterdam at 192 feet.

It is thought that this vein can be successfully operated at various points along the proposed line of road.

The action of the board of health in deciding to enforce the law providing for the inspection of meat and milk is one that will certainly meet with the approval of consumers of those important food products. Impure meat is probably seldom sold or eaten, because it is an easy matter to discover whether it is tainted or not. But with milk it is different. Adulteration, and impurities are not easily detected, and physicians agree that much disease and suffering, particularly among children, is due to unwholesome milk. There is no reason why East Liverpool, receiving its milk supply from adjacent farms and paying a high price for it, should not have the best. Perhaps it does, but it will do no harm to find out, and no dealer who desires to furnish an absolutely pure article can object to a system of inspection.

The News Review is rejoiced to see evidence that the East Liverpool Humane society is still alive. One suit has been entered against a brutal driver for cruelty to horses, and many more similar actions ought to be brought. The case brought to light yesterday where a teamster is alleged to have beaten his horses with a base ball bat, though a particularly aggravated one, is but one instance of acts of cruelty calling for vigorous prosecution. Of course it is idle to expect to teach drivers to be humane, but a few strong fines will at least teach them to be cautious and to moderate their cruelty. The humane society should lose no time in getting down to business and doing its utmost to prevent practices which are a disgrace to a civilized community.

"The word of the next twenty years in the church," says Dr. Hillis, of Plymouth church, Brooklyn, "must be unity. Instead of 167 sects, the time has come for business men and missionary societies to acknowledge that the whole thing is shameful and the worst of mismanagement. In this country there have been re-duplications of church plants until millions of money have been wasted."

Russia boasts that she is abundantly able to take care of the families of the murdered Jews at Kischineff. Doubtless she it, but will she do it? If Russia had exercised more care earlier she would not have brought upon herself the opprobrium under which she now rests.

Eastern ministers propose to form a league and refuse to marry people who have been divorced If they can get the 'squires to join them they may lighten the business of the divorce courts materially.

Senator Hanna is noted for his kindness and favors to newspaper men, but the limit to his generosity in that direction was probably reached when he gave his daughter to one of the fraternity.

The syndicate run by Miller in New York had the get-rich-quick theory down fine, but its practices landed its officials in trouble and will probably compel them to wear striped garments.

Cured His Mother of Rheumatism.

"My mother has been a sufferer for many years with rheumatism," says W. H. Howard, of Husband, Pa. "At times she was unable to move at all, while at all times walking was painful. I presented her with a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm and after a few applications she decided it was the most wonderful pain reliever she had ever tried. In fact, she is never without it now and is at all times able to walk. An occasional application of Pain Balm keeps away the pain that she was formerly troubled with." For sale by Alvin & Bulger.

Lost Pins.

What becomes of pins?

It would really seem reflecting upon the daily disappearance of pins that the earth would be covered with them and that the annual fall if measured would amount to several inches. Women who start out with pins playing a useful part in the details of a gown will tell you that they never can find a pin; that they are always buying pins; that they are eternally loaning them. In the dressmaker's rooms the expenditure for pins is no small item. The average dressmaker uses and loses twelve papers of pins a month. Yet the floors of her rooms are not matted with them, and frequently her wail goes up, "What has become of all the pins?" Where indeed do they go? Is there a crust of pins subtly forming under the everyday sweep that will puzzle explorers in some far age to come?—Philadelphia Ledger.

THE ST. LOUIS FLOOD.

RIVER RISES WITHOUT WARNING

St. Louis, June 11. — Almost two-thirds of East St. Louis, Ills., is under from 2 to 15 feet of water. Between sunset and dawn 11 lives were sacrificed to the waters, and damage which no man attempted to estimate, had been done to property.

Probably never before in the history of the country has a more valiant fight been made by brave men, with defeat staring them in the face to protect lives and property than has been made by the citizens of East St. Louis. When the rising Mississippi began to threaten the city last Thursday morning Mayor Silas Cook ordered men to work to construct sand bag levees at once. The river rose higher and more men were employed. Citizens of the best classes worked side by side with the laborers. Since Thursday morning 5,000 men, under the leadership of Mayor Cook, without sleep, with little rest and food snatched at intervals, have toiled unceasingly to strengthen levees, and to do everything possiole to save the city Not a wheel of industry is turning in East St. Louis. The smokeless chimneys of manufacturing plants stand lifeless, while the flood whirls at the foundations.

To the south beyond the railway yard, are thousands of homes, mainly humble cottages owned by laborers, and containing their all, submerged to the eaves.

In northern East St. Louis the description is repeated, but not on so large a scale

The business portion of the city and the district containing the better residences is still intact "but for how long?" is the question. Broadway, running from Eads bridge east to the city limits a wide street walled with stone 15 feet nigh, divides the city in halves. More than 10 feet of water is pressing against Broadway from the south end, and in some places is sweeping through in streams as thick as a man's body. If Broadway shall break the water will rush over much of the city until Missouri avenue, running parallel one block north, is encountered.

Along the river front to the west a levee of sandbags from two to six feet high and two miles long, keeps the river out.

Without warning the river suddenly began to rise. The city was made safe along the river front but suddenly a new danger menaced. Word was received that the Illinois Central embankment skirting the river along the sotuhern boundary of the city was threatening to give way. Couriers were sent out on horseback and afoot to shout warnings to the inhabitnats of the southern half of the city. Carloads of sandbags were rushed to the place and work was hurriedly begun Accustomed to warnings of impending danger, the inhabitants did not leave their homes. Higher and higher crept the water until a thin stream began pouring over the embankment and suddenly it broke.

News of the inundation excited the people of St. Louis early in the morning. Rumors of many deaths started thousands of sightseers across the Eads bridge. But the authorities prepared to turn back an influx of curious people. At both ends of the bridge ropes were stretched and police were stationed with orders to allow no ingress into the city of spectators who would only hinder the work of rescue. East St. Louis was practically shut off from the world. Even refugees who wanted to go to St. Louis were stopped, and unless they could show that they were sure of being taken care of by friends they were turned back to the relief offered by the city.

Riot guns were collected by Chief of Police Purdy and were given out to-night to guards to patrol the streets where furniture is stacked, and to patrol the sandbag levees. Any thieves or possible levee cutters are to be shot down instantly. Martial law has not been proclaimed officially, but East St. Louis is practically being governed under such a condition during the flood and there is no place for idle and curious persons.

WELLSVILLE

BRAKEMAN KILLED IN CONWAY YARD

Charles Miskall, aged about 28 years and single, was killed instantly, or supposedly so, in Conway yards early yesterday morning. He left this city Tuesday afternoon on the sewer pipe run. Just how the accident happened nobody seems to know. The horribly mangled body was found by the track by his fellow workmen and taken to undertaking rooms, where the remains were prepared for burial. The unfortunate young man had been on the road for some time, and while in Wellsville boarded with Mike Cusick, of the West End.

Mr. Miskall formerly lived at Alikanna, where the remains were taken for interment. He had quite a number of friends in this city and all most keenly feel his untimely departure.

MILLAGE AND ESTIMATES

Prepared By Wellsville Public Service Board—A Hot Discussion.

The board of public service held an all-day session yesterday. About the only real business transacted was the making out of a budget for the coming year's expenses, and this was the last thing done. The following is the budget itemized:

Street repair work, 1 5-10 mills, $3,000; street cleaning, 3-10 mill, $600; new work, 7-10 mill, $1,400; engineering department, 9-10 mill, $1,800; salaries and expenses of office, 7-10 mill, $1,400; poor, 2-10 mill, $400; city building and janitor's salary, 5-10 mill, $1,000; light, 3 mills, $6,000; sewers, 1-10 mill, $200; total mills 7 9-10; total tax, $15,800.

This budget will be submitted to council at the next regular meeting.

During the forenoon the removal of the office came up and a hot discussion ensued. Bowers wants to have the western end of the council chamber fitted up for an office and Stewart wants to move into the hose room. Both expressed themselves very freely. Mr. Herbert, the third member of the board, sided with Bowers and the clerk was instructed to see a carpenter and ascertain whether it would be possible without great expense to have sufficient light in the western end of the council room.

Frank Davis, formerly second engineer at the pump house, came before the board and said he had not been treated fairly while employed at the pumping station. He said he was required to work the night turn and was compelled to do all the repair work. Supt. Ewing was present and showed Mr. Davis where he was mistaken and also that he had been dealt with as properly as the rest. Mr. Ewing said he offered to let Davis work one week at night, then the next day, but Davis refused this. After discussing the matter for about half an hour and both men's temper getting hot, it ended by Davis taking his hat and leaving the room. This little affair closed the meeting.

HORRORS OF THE FLOOD

John Donaghay arrived in town Tuesday evening from St. Louis, his home. He has been kept busy since his arrival relating tales of the horrors caused by the flood. He said the grounds where the great world's fair would be held next year are not and will not be damaged at all, as they are far above the water line. He said where the greatest misery and suffering is becau caused is in East St. Louis, the city being submerged in about eight feet of water.

The water when he left the city was at the greatest height it had ever reached, something over 39 feet. This is two feet higher than ever before. All day long people whose homes have been destroyed by the water are taken to a place where shelter and food are provided. The loss of life is something terrible. The dead are taken to the morgue and if not claimed go to a nameless grave.

He related a peculiar incident of which he was an eye witness. A chicken had floated down the river and was caught under a bridge where it perched on some lumber. A negro on the bridge, 60 feet above, determined to capture the fowl. He put some corn in a basket, then lowered it on a rope beside the chicken. Then he waited for at least two hours for a "bite." At last the chicken hopped into the basket and was slowly drawn up.

Mr. Donaghay, with several other friends was on the bridge on a train, and the negro was on the vehicle road above. When the basket came up to them, one of the men reached out, caught the rope and captured the chicken. The negro was the maddest man in St. Louis.

Mr. Donaghay left St. Louis just in time, as the night he left every bridge out of the city was condemned. It was necessary for the train on which he rode to go through several feet of water for about 12 miles.

Explosion Caused Fire.

Candidates for Police

The Wellsville board of public safety held a short meeting in the mayor's office last evening. Mayor Fogo submitted the following names for members of the city police force: Fred Houser, chief; William Elliott, McIlvane, John Henthorn and William Canaday. They were approved. The city is entitled to six and another officer will be appointed later. This beat was made vacant by the resignation of Harry Snider. The chief will be required to give a $500 bond and each of the officers a bond of $250.

Carr's Son Runs Away.

Patrolman Moore, of the C. & P. railroad, while at the Wellsville depot yesterday morning, noticed a young lad looking nervously around him. Mr. Moore went up to the lad and inquired why he was there. The boy said he had run away from home. He gave his name as Carr and said he was the son of the man arrested in Chester. The boy was taken to the city jail to appear before Mayor Fogo. He said he thought he was 13 years old, but that he might be only 6. He said he was born in 1883. He looks to be about 17 years old.

Ground Hog in His Garden.

Blacksmith Matt De Temple is very much elated over his success as a marksman. In the rear of his lot he has a fine little garden and for some time has been bothered with something nipping different things. Yesterday morning he caught a glimpse of the intruder and went to the house and secured a rifle and slyly crept within range and blazed away. After the smoke had rolled away he investigated his prize and found he had shot a ground hog.

Ejected and Arrested.

John Canaday and a man named Burt, of East Liverpool, were arrested in Wellsville this morning for creating a disturbance on a street car. The conductor gave them back their money and told them to get off. They refused. The conductor then tried to put them off, but could not. Officer Canaday and Constable Thorn were on the car and they came forward, ejected the disturbers and put them in jail.

ing of council relative to the disposal of garbage was considered at length. The board has already made a provision as to how it shall be removed, but it has no right to make any contracts for its removal. There is a rule making it necessary for any person removing garbage to have a wagon that will not leak or barrels that will not permit the filth to escape onto the streets while being conveyed through the city. All such conveyances must be securely covered. Mr. Burgess stated that any violation to the rule can be brought before the board and a severe penalty can be imposed. It was recommended that the council or the board of public service make a contract to have the garbage removed according to the rules of the board. It is probable that council will take the matter up at the next meeting. The code says that council is authorized to contract, for a period not exceeding five years, for the collection and removal and disposal of such garbage, night soil, dead animals, and other solid waste matter at the expense of the municipality or at the expense of persons responsible for the existence of such waste substance.

Mr. Burgess stated that numerous vaults are being dug in the city and asked the board to consider the law regulating them. It was discovered that a vault can be dug only after a permit has been granted by the board of health and that any person violating the law in any manner is subject to a severe penalty.

It was decided to ask the fire department to go to the West End and distinguish the fire that has been burning on the Aten tract for several days. It seems that some one fired a pile of garbage and that it has been causing a very disagreeable stench.

Mr. Haines was unanimously elected president pro tem of the board, after which the body adjourned to meet next week.

An Ancient Tragedy.

A historical paper in Lord Montagu's collection in London tells of a strange tragedy "done in Holborn, a little before Christmas," several centuries ago. "A boy seven years old came up into a gentleman's chamber and prattled to him and drew his sword and flourished with it. The gentleman being in bed, wondered to see the boy toss his blade so and said: 'So, good boy, thou hast done well. Put in the sword.' The boy persisting, the gentleman rose and held him the scabbard, and the rude handed lad, thinking to sheath the sword, lustily chopt it into his belly. Company were called. One offered to strike the child. 'Let him alone,' quoth the gentleman. 'God is just. This boy's father did I kill five years since and none knew. Now he hath revenged it.' And the gentleman died the second dressing."

MARSH HOBBS WORSE

Marshall Hobbs, of New Cumberland, who was shot by Samuel West some time ago, is reported in a critical condition at the home of his uncle, Randolph Hobbs, near New Cumberland. The bullet, which lodged just below his heart, has never been removed.

Hobbs was taken care of at the Gill hospital in Steubenville until it was thought that he would recover and he was then taken to the home of his uncle. During the past few days Hobbs has been gradually getting worse again and now he is sinking rapidly and there are but small hopes for his recovery. West will have a hearing before the circuit court some time this month.

COMPLAINT IS MADE

Of the Actions of Certain Pottery Employes, Who Will Be Brought to Account.

Complaint will likely be made to the Chester authorities in a day or two with reference to the actions of a certain crew of clay workers employed in a Southside pottery.

These men have been annoying certain residents of the town as they passed the shop, and the practice has become so common that steps will be taken to stop it. One of the victims is a well known and much beloved clergyman, and members of his congregation are determined to punish the guilty parties. No more contemptible tricks could be imagined, and the repeated applications of citizens to the firm to have a stop put to it having failed, they have resolved to take the matter into their own hands.

WELLSBURG PYTHIANS

About 500 of Wellsburg's best citizens are picnicking today at Rock Springs, and in spite of the very bad weather are enjoying the day. The excursion was held under the auspices of the K. of P. lodge of Wellsburg, and owing to a misunderstanding with the railroad authorities the attendance is not as large by half as it would have been.

A large number of the visitors attended the matinee during the afternoon, and with the base ball game and the several other amusements the park provides the crowd was enabled to enjoy the outing.

CHESTER NOTES.

A valuable horse belonging to Frank Lowe, of East Liverpool, dropped dead at the park just after noon today. No cause is assigned for the animal's sudden death.

STREETS TO BE CLEANED

Pursuant to the order of council at its last meeting, Commissioner Rose and Engineer Kelly, of Chester, have ascertained that it is the duty of Contractor Freshwater to clean the streets, and steps were taken yesterday to have the work done at once.

The streets have been in an abominable condition during the winter, and when warm weather came on and the mud gave way to dust, the condition was no less objectionable. Commissioner Rose asked for instructions at the last meeting of council and was told to look up the contract with Mr. Freshwater. This was done and the contractor has concluded to do the work. The improvement will be greatly appreciated by the residents of the paved streets.

SMART MILLINERY.

Becoming Shapes For Dressy and Ordinary Wear.

Double faced hats, the upper part being white and the under black, are very becoming and smart.

Shapes of black chiffon trimmed with a single ostrich feather are both becoming and useful.

Hydrangeas and jonquils are among the novelties in artificial flowers.

In general the trimmings may be said to be, if anything, flatter than ever, but the outlines of the hat are more raised.

The tailor made hat of the season is much more becoming than formerly, for instead of the universal sailor shape an unusual variety of modes are shown, all of them with rolling or irregular brims and flat or round crowns. With an aigret or a smart bow of ribbon, the trimming is complete, and this can easily be contrived by the woman with a little skill in her fingers.

JUDIC CHOLLET.

Secret For Secret.

"I will tell you a secret," said its military governor after surrendering. "The reason of my capitulation was that I had no more powder."

"And, secret for secret," returned the marechal suavely, "the reason of my accepting it on such easy terms was that I had no more balls."

Wanted Something Effective.

"Do not touch with canes or umbrellas."

NARROWLY ESCAPED MOB VENGEANCE

At Umpire Stillwell Because of a Decision He Thought Unfair And the Crowd Was Closing on Him When Police Interfered—Score, 6 to 4.

By the skin of their teeth the Cuban X Giants won the game from Captain Reark's aggregation yesterday afternoon in the West End park. The fans, numbering fully 500, filed into the park expecting to witness a one-sided affair and were happily surprised when the locals got down to real work and showed the boys of color that they were not playing Wellsville.

But for one feature, almost too disgraceful and low to permit mention, the contest would have gone down on record as being the best of the season and among the best ever witnessed in the park. To Williams, a big burly negro of the first water, so black that ink would appear the color of a bright, new wedding dress alongside, is due the credit for the dirty and contemptible portion of the game. That he escaped mob vengeance was due only to the self-respect held by the spectators, none of whom would lay a hand on him. In the history of the game in this city no man ever acted so much like a barbarian.

It was during the most exciting period of the game. The locals had not scored a run until this time. They had not even reached third base for seven long innings. Reark got first on an error made by Williams and Emmerling got a base on an error by Grant, who tried to intercept Reark. Miller stepped forth and smashed the ball far out into left field. He made three bases on it and scored Reark and Emmerling. He then began playing a pace off the bag and when Gibson knocked one down to the pitcher, he rushed in—safe as any man ever scored a run.

"Bully" Williams had received the ball from the pitcher and was so angered when Umpire Stillwell called Miller safe that he drew back and threw the ball as hard as he could directly at Stillwell, who was standing to the right of the pitcher's box. Stillwell had a ball in his hand at the time and attempted to strike back, but was unable to land—much to the disappointment of the spectators.

Hardly had Williams let go of the ball until every fan in the park went wild. They shouted: "Kill the brute! String him up! Knock his head off!" and many other forcible epithets. At the critical time Officers Aufderheide, Saulsberry and Morris protected the fellow.

After such a diversion the visiting bunch were strictly in the air and Gibson had no trouble in scoring another run. The confusion did not last long, however, and the next three went out without reaching third. The score at this interval stood as it did when the game was finished. And although the locals made a strenuous effort in the ninth to make just two more runs they could not force their luck.

The Giants started off by scoring two in the first, but neither run was earned. A couple of bad throws did the work. In the second and third goose eggs were the results, but in the fourth, fifth and sixth they piled up four more runs by some hard punching and expert base running.

Notwithstanding that the visitors hit him rather freely, Miller played a hard game and was most satisfactory to everyone. He was a little wild, but did great work against such strong people and he did enough to make himself good with the fans when he pounded one for three bases and scored the first runs.

The captain of the Giants said that Brown was one of the best men he has seen this season. He would like to see him have a chance with a faster aggregation. With the fans he is strong and will remain so as long as he remains in the city.

Wallace made a pretty hit, but at the wrong time. Lawrence made a great catch in right, and in fact every one on the local team played the game right up to snuff.

HOUSEWIVES HEADACHES

You don't know why you suffer from headache and you are apt to believe you have some dire female trouble, but its dollars to doughnuts that you are wrong. Women are prone to put off the duties of Nature to attend to the duties of the home and when they do get time to go, the feeling has passed.

every night before going to bed. Keep it up for a few weeks.

A. F. Klopf, of Troy, Ohio, miller at Hayner's Distillery, writes under date of June 10, 1901: "My wife and self suffered off and on for three or four years with Constipation and Sick Headache, and we received almost instant relief by taking Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. The use of several bottles restored our digestive organs to normal condition, and although we are free from any gastric trouble, we do not consider being without a bottle for a minute."

A REMARKABLE GAME IN MANY RESPECTS

Score Was 13 to 10—Extraordinary Pitching Only Matched By the Batting And Fielding.

The shades of Ben Franklin and Horace Greeley no doubt assumed a pleased expression yesterday afternoon when Old Sol, just cuddling into his nest for the night, beamed down upon the victorious press team as it was leaving Rock Springs park. While some of the members of the two teams have not yet realized that the contest is now a thing of the past, it can be officially announced that the score was 13 to 10 in favor of the pencil pushers.

If the statements of the victors can be believed the "no pushee, no pullee" men were not in it at any stage of the game, but according to the unprejudiced spectators they played an article of ball that would entitle them to win many a game, and had they started Toland as their slab artist, the result might have been different.

On the other hand the disciples of Ben Franklin claim that the seven scored by them in the first two innings looked so good that the only Such rolled them up any old way, just to give his support a chance. Such pitched a gilt edge game, in spite of the fact that the hits of his opponents run into double figures. He was master of the situation all the way through and his record of nine strike-outs in seven innings would bring pleasant recollections to the "only" Christy Matthewson. Such only pitched hard enough to win. The hit column of the fare takers would have been decidedly slim had he let out a few kinks in his arm and had his outfield captured some of the easy scrapers that looked like getting money from home, for his outfield.

The way Harvey Allison slugged the ball ought to make Beaumont feel like a thin dime, and why he was placed at the tail end of the batting order will probably always be a mystery. He was four times at the bat and after one failure landed on the ball three times in succession for three base hits. Another mistake in judgment on the part of the street car men was their selection of a slab artist. Crawford, who started in to do the twirling, was touched up for 10 of the 14 hits and 11 of the 13 runs. Toland, who was substituted in the fourth, had five strike outs and held them down to four hits and two runs.

One of the features of the game was the daring base running of "Peg Leg" McConnell, who, in spite of his crippled condition made third base after being hit by the ball. The rooting of Tidder Irwin was another feature. Count-Heinrich de Bullock had his batting eye, but could not get around as far as the home plate. Harris had a one spot in every column except the assists. Martindale, the backstop from the cranberry marshes of Medina county, pulled down several difficult high balls.

J. Allison didn't have much to look after in middle garden, but he captured the only fly that came his way. Jackman, like Harris, had a sequence of ones, until the assist column was reached. Byers, of the hill line, was there with his bat, and Wade hit 'em a few himself, Barnett, behind the bat, had more putouts than the first baseman, and made two pretty catches of foul flies.

Following is the score:

HANDICAPPED.

The man who started to run a race in chains and fetters would be visibly handicapped. No one would expect him to succeed. The man who runs the race of life when his digestive and nutritive organs are diseased is equally handicapped. In the one case his strength is overweighted, in the other it is undermined. Success demands above all else a sound stomach.

Doctor Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery cures diseases of the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition. When this is done food is perfectly digested and assimilated and the body receives strength in the only way in which strength can be given—by the nutrition derived from digested and assimilated food.

"The praise I would like to give your 'Golden Medical Discovery' I cannot utter in words or describe with pen," writes James B. Ambrose, Esq., of 1203½ Mifflin Street, Huntingdon, Pa. "I was taken with what our physicians here said was indigestion. I doctored with the best around here and found no relief. I wrote to you and you sent me a question blank to fill out, and I did so, and you then advised me to use Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. I took three bottles and I felt so good that I stopped, being cured. I have no symptoms of gastric trouble or indigestion now."

Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser, sent free on receipt of stamps to cover expense of mailing only. Twenty-one one-cent stamps for the book in paper covers, or 31 stamps for the cloth-bound volume. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

The Lineup for Today.

As the result of yesterday's most interesting game an immense crowd is expected to witness the contest today. The following lineups will wage the battle:

Y. M. C. A.—Gibson, short; Youngson, third; Wallace, first; Brown, second; Lawrence, right; Harker, left; Reark, middle; Emmerling, catcher; Winters, pitcher.

League Officials to Meet.

The officials of the Crockery City league and the managers of the clubs that compose it will meet tonight at city hall at 7:30 o'clock sharp. A schedule of games for the remainder of the season and rules governing the teams have been prepared and will be presented for ratification. Precaution will be taken to prevent the players jumping from one club to another and the games will be conducted along practically the same lines as the big leagues. All interested are requested to be present.

Wellsville vs. Salineville.

The Wellsville base ball team left this morning for Salineville, where they will play the team of that town. The boys of Salineville missed many a meal to practice the national game and will give the boys from here a tight battle. Quite a crowd of rooters went with the team and as they go to make up a large part of a team the victory is assured.

SPORTING MISCELLANY.

Andrew Duffy is organizing a base ball team at Toronto.

Baltimore has released "Steve" Brodie for the seventh time.

Tommy Feltz offers Harry Forbes, the Chicago bantam, $500 to sign articles ofr a battle for the championship in his class.

It is said Taylor, Chicago's winning pitcher, got his curve ideas on the top of freight trains. He used to stand on the rear car and play catch with the fireman while rounding curves.

JUST one taste of Hagee's Cordial of Cod Liver Oil (with Hypophosphites of Lime and Soda) will dispel any idea that it is repulsive, nauseating like ordinary cod liver oil.

Those who have been deprived of testing its remarkable reconstructive qualities because they imagined it the greasy, fishy kind, could never be more mistaken.

Hagee's Cordial is a thin palatable fluid, with a pleasant odor and agreeable taste. Children take it readily and it agrees with the most delicate stomach. For thin, emaciated, weak conditions of adults, children or infants, its bracing, tonic effect is marvelous.

BRILLIANT WEDDING

Cleveland, June 11.—Without exception the Hanna-McCormick nuptials, at which Miss Ruth Hanna, the youngest daughter of Senator Hanna and Mrs. Marcus A. Hanna, became the wife of Joseph Medill McCormick, of Chicago, was one of the most brilliant society events the Forest City has ever known. The wedding was solemnized at high noon at St. Paul's Episcopal church. The officiating clergymen were Bishop W. A. Leonard and his assistants, the Rev. Mr. Billings, of Groton, Mass.; Dr. George H. McGrew and the Rev. William H. Jones, of St. John's church. The ceremony was followed by a wedding breakfast at Glenmere, the beautiful Hanna home in Lake avenue. Among the distinguished guests were President Roosevelt and his daughter, Miss Alice, who arrived in town at 5:30 a. m. After the breakfast Mr. and Mrs. McCormick left for their wedding trip to Monticello, Ills. They will be at home in Chicago in the fall.

Precisely at noon the bridal party entered and passed down to the altar. The ushers preceded the maids. They were Howard M. Hanna, of Cleveland, a cousin of the bride; Joseph M. Patterson, of Chicago, a cousin of the groom; Robert Allerton, of Chicago; J. W. Beck, of Chicago; Ernest Minor, of Cincinnati; James Barnes of New York; William Williams, of Philadelphia; Malcolm McBride, of Cleveland. The maids approached the altar two by two. Miss Florence Cobb and Miss Mary Hopkins, of Washington, leading. Following were Miss Claire Hanna, of Cleveland, a cousin of the bride, with Miss Adelaide Hamilton, of Chicago; Miss Virginia Johnston, of Pittsburg, with Miss Frances Lewis, of Portland, Ore.; Miss Laura McGinley, of Pittsburg, with Miss Eleanor Patterson, of Chicago, a cousin of the groom. The maid of honor was Miss Lucia McCurdy, of Cleveland, a cousin of the bride.

The newly wedded couple outwitted their friends in a clever way Mr. McCormick had been informed that his friends who attended Harvard university with him and who were present at the wedding, had planned to play some tricks on him and his bride. As a result Mr. and Mrs. McCormick left the Hanna home about 4:30 o'clock in a carriage. The groom's college friends followed in a carriage, but after going a short distance Mr and Mrs. McCormick left their carriage and got into an automobile, which was in waiting for them. The automobile was turned loose and the college boys were soon lost. The couple reached Berea, where they boarded a Lake Shore train, and are now en route to Monticello.

RETURNS FROM THE WEDDING

Cleveland, June 11.—The President, Miss Roosevelt, Commander Cowles, U. S. A., and Secretary Loeb left for Washington in a special train over the Pennsylvania railroad at 11 o'clock. The train is due in Washington at 2 o'clock. The evening was spent at the home of Senator Hanna. There was a good sized crowd at the station to wave the President farewell and he responded to the greetings by lifting his hat and bowing.

The remaining guests at the wedding from Washington will leave at their convenience. Many of the Chicago visitors left for the west a few minutes after 11 o'clock.

The precautions taken for the President's safety while in the city were under the personal charge of Chief of Police Frederick Kohler. So efficient was this service and so carefully was the chief executive guarded from possible harm that personal appreciation was expressed by him to Chief Kohler immediately prior to the departure of the train for Washington.

Head

Hurt So Badly Was Nearly Crazy.

Dr. Miles' Nervine Permanently Cured Me.

"A year ago I suffered from extreme nervous stomach trouble. I was afraid of everything, could not bear to hear singing or music and reading or hearing of a death nearly brought on my own. I could not sleep or hardly lie down, the back of my head hurt me so badly I nearly went crazy. My shoulders hurt and the least thing I did would bring on an attack of extreme nervousness. There were times when I would have a lump in my throat and my mouth would be so dry I could hardly speak. I was in despair until I began to take Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine. I have taken in all twelve bottles and consider myself permanently cured. My home doctor has since remarked on my healthy appearance and said he wished he could say his medicine helped me. He knows it was Dr. Miles' Nervine. We are never without the Anti-Pain Pills and consider your medicines household remedies. I cannot say enough for the Nervine, because in addition to my own case my daughter, who was out of school for a long time because of St. Vitus' dance, was completely cured by eight bottles. She is now feeling fine and going to school every day. We thank you for your kindness and will never stop singing the praises of Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine."—Mrs. C. E. Ring, Lima, O.

LOCKOUT STILL IN FULL FORCE

Pittsburg, June 11.—The situation in the lockout by the contractors of Pitsburg against the stonemasons' and bricklayers' unions is becoming quite serious, and judging from the determined attitude of the builders, it is apparent that nothing short of a complete settlement of the existing labor warfare will end the lockout About 8,500 men are locked out.

The Master Builders' association met and decided that the exegencies of the situation rendered it an opportune time for the formation of an international association of builders. To further this end a convention of delegates from builders organizations in various parts of the United States will be held in the Hotel Henry the week beginning June 22. The object of the organization will be to oppose all unjust demands by labor unions and to settle all disputes arising between employer and employe. It is estimated that contracts amounting to at least $10,000,000 will be affected by the lockout and that the wage earners will lose about $25,000 a day.

WOMAN SHOT FROM AMBUSH

Uniontown, Pa., June 11.—Great excitement has been aroused by developments which seem to point to a heinous attempt to murder Mrs. Chas Ingles, of this city. Some time ago she was shot from ambush and seriously wounded, and Harry Artis, of Fairchance, was brought before a justice in the case, but Mrs. Ingles did not appear against him.

It is now charged that, a few days ago, Artis talked with two colored men, H. O. Grady and Thomas Walker, offering them a gold watch and $50 to kill Mrs. Ingles and providing them with an ironwood stick for the purpose. Artis is alleged to have said to the negroes, "You will know her, as she limps. I shot her once, and intended to kill her, but I shot too low." The negroes have turned the gold watch and the club over to County Detective McBeth and told the story as above related. There is a warrant out for the arrest of Artis, who has disappeared.

Treat, commandant of cadets, who welcomed the graduates as commissioned officers of the army. Lieutenant General Miles was also present at the ceremonies. The graduating hop at Memorial hall was, in point of attendance the largest and also the most brilliant within the history of the academy.

Attempted Murder and Suicide.

New Model Field Gun for Militia.

Washington, June 11.—General Crozier, with the approval of Acting Secretary Sanger, is making preparations to supply the militia of the several states with the new model field gun and other artillery equipments in accordance with appropriations made for that purpose in the last Congress These guns will be of the latest model and the same as those supplied to the regular artillery of the army. It is expected that eventually $1,000,000 will be expended for artillery for the militia.

Killed By Lightning.

West Chester Pa., June 11.—Sharpless Baker, a farmer, who occupied the farm of Thomas Brown, a short distance south of this place, was instantly killed by lightning. During the heaviest portion of the storm Baker started across a field, carrying an umbrella with a metal handle. A bolt struck it and the current passed through his body. He was dead when picked up.

BE YOUR OWN JUDGE

Mi-o-na, the remarkable flesh-forming food and cure for dyspepsia, has won fame by the unusual way in which it is sold. It is the only remedy offered for the cure of dyspepsia which costs the user absolutely nothing unless it cures.

Will Reed, the popular druggist, is selling a great many packages of Mi-o-na, and with every box is given his personal guarantee to refund the money if Mi-o-na does not give satisfaction, you to be your own judge as to whether the remedy helps or not.

Mi-o-na is an unusual combination, it is a flesh-forming food, combined with agents that regulate the digestive organs and remove irritation, congestion and inflammation from the stomach, liver and intestines. It enables those organs to extract from the food all that goes to make good, rich blood, firm muscle, steady nerves and a sound body. It does not contain any pepsin, pancreatin or other drugs, that never effect a cure and rarely gives temporary relief.

Mi-o-na puts the digestive system into proper working order, gives health, strength and good flesh, and is the only natural cure for indigestion. Even in chronic cases, where life is one long, drawn out pain, this remedy will effect a cure. It is the simplest and most reliable of all remedies. Just one small tablet before or after meals and you can eat a hearty meal with no distress.

If Mi-o-na does not do all that is claimed for it, Druggist Will Reed will cheerfully return your money.

PLEASANT PARTY

The entertainment given last evening by Miss Ruby Alice Wase, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Wase, was one of the most enjoyable social functions given in the younger circles in this city in some time. Miss Wase received the congratulations of her friends upon her fourteenth anniversary.

The home of the hostess on Spring street presented a pretty appearance, being decorated in pink and green in various designs. The hours from 7:30 to 10:30 were made most enjoyable with games. At a late hour a luncheon was served.

Stuttler-Colley.

A very pretty wedding occurred this morning at 10 o'clock in the Hotel Grand building. The parties married were J. W. Colley, a C. & P. brakeman, of Salineville, and Miss Carrie Stuttler, of this city. 'Squire H. P. McCarron performed the ceremony and he states that it has not been his pleasure for a long time to unite such a fine looking couple. They left on the noon train for a honeymoon and will upon their return go to housekeeping in Salineville.

Given a Surprise Party.

Two little sons of Mr. and Mrs. William Dechant have returned from Columbus, where they have been attending school. They will remain for several weeks. A surprise party was given at the home and a very enjoyable season spent by the friends and relatives who attended.

Mission Society Meeting.

The Home Missionary society of the First M. E. church will hold an important meeting this evening at 7:30 o'clock in the church. It is the occasion of the annual mite box opening. All members who find it impossible to be present are requested to send their mite boxes.

HOME AFFAIRS

Taken to Salineville—The remains of Enoch Jones, who died at his home on Pleasant Heights yesterday, were taken to Salineville this morning, where the funeral was held this afternoon. Rev. J. W. Gorrell, pastor of the First Christian church, officiated, and the interment was made in the Salineville cemetery.

Arrested for Loitering—Mrs. Joe McKee and an unknown girl were arrested this morning by Chief Wyman and Officer Aufderheide on a charge of loitering. They were taken before the mayor, who gave them 10 minutes in which to leave the city. Mrs. McKee is the young girl, arrested two weeks ago by Officer Saulsberry, but who was released the day following, her husband appearing and paying her fine.

Change in Pay Day—The C. & P. division of the Pennsylvania company will in the future pay its hands on the 15th of each month instead of the 6th as heretofore. The employes making their headquarters in Cleveland have objected to the change, and there may be trouble over the question. Agent Wassman, of the local office, stated this morning there would be no trouble over the change in East Liverpool.

Notice to Dippers.

There will be a special meeting of Local No. 18 Friday evening. All dippers please attend.

Our Jockeys In France.

Rigby, Thompson, O'Connor, McGinn and other American jockeys are again riding in their old form in France, and there are as yet no scandals in connection with the turf. Paris tradesmen are indignant against society giving encouragement to authorities in fixing the date of the Grand Prix in Paris for June 7.

They declare that Americans, English and their rich French patrons date their departure from Paris by this event, which should have been fixed at least a week later, the difference meaning an enormous loss to trade.

Rusie Is Captain of a Minor Team.

Amos Rusie, once one of the most famous of the National league ball pitchers, but for some reason out of the game, has re-entered the game this season in a small way. He has signed a contract to play first base and pitch for the team at Vincennes, Ind., and he will also captain the team. He is in good condition, and it is believed by many that he hopes to get back into the game in one of the big leagues.

LOGSTOWN.

Modern Industry Displaces Famous Old Landmark.

Time soon effaces the works of previous generations. Especially is this so when the demands of the white man's business life decree that the old and the historic shall give way before the new and the useful. Recently the steel trust bought from the Economites their valuable lands at Economy, Pa., on the north bank of the Ohio river between Pittsburg and Beaver. On this land are to be erected enormous steel works, and a new city is to spring up, to be called Ambridge. Thus will be wiped out the quaint old communistic town of Economy, which in turn had usurped the place of Logstown. This former place was a town of great importance in the old days prior to the French and Indian war. It was a center used by the French in their dealings with the Indians, and was located on the Economy lands a short distance down the river bank from the town of Economy. It may have had as many as two score wooden cabins with chimneys in the days of its prime. Here came Washington in 1753 when on his journey as ambassador to the French.

The first definite knowledge we have of Logstown is in the journal of Conrad Weiser, who, on Aug. 27, 1748, arrived there on an important mission to the Ohio Indians. He saluted the town, and says that the salute was returned by about 100 guns. Colonel George Croghan visited the place Dec 16, 1750. French agents were also busy all this time at Logstown. In 1749 Celoron was there. In 1751 Joncaire held a council of all the Indians in the town. This French officer was one of the most able of diplomats in dealing with the Indians, but all his fine art would not win his way with the Logstown chiefs, who returned to him his speech-belt. Logstown was the scene of an important treaty made with the Indians by Colonel Croghan on May 28, 1751. Washington's visit to this famous old town was made on Nov. 25, 1753. There he remained for several days while finishing his plans for the long trip to the French posts at Venango and Le Boeuf. This was about the time of Logstown's greatest glory. The next year Fort Duquesne was built on the present site of Pittsburg, and Logstown began to decline. Its importance as a trading center vanished, and its many houses fell into decay. Then came the French war, with its rapid series of epoch-marking calamities, which drove out the French and installed the English power. So rapid was the decay of Logstown that early in the last century its very site was the subject of a long controversy among historians Today, however, that question is settled. The ancient site of Logstown will soon be the scene of almost unparalleled industry. Where once was the log cabin metropolis of eighteenth century Indian trade is now arising, as if by magic, the twentieth century city of American manufacture. But the new city will never be as picturesque as the old town, for grimy workmen will take the places once occupied by Frenchmen and Indians.

THE GREAT DROUGHT OF 1845.

There are yet living some few persons in Northern Ohio who have a personal recollection of the famous and destructive dry summer of 1845 This drought was not general, but prevailed throughout a fated strip of country lying along the southern shore of Lake Erie for over a hundred miles, and being about sixty miles in width. The spring rains ceased that year in the latter part of March, after which no rain fell till June 10, when during part of a single afternoon a little fall occurred. This small amount of moisture made no impression on the parched ground, and the great dry spell continued absolutely unbroken until July 2, when enough water was let down from the heavens to make a little bit of mud on the roads. Thus did nature merely tantilize the weary and worried people, for the skies again cleared up and assumed their long wonted brassy hue. This continued till in September, when rains came sufficiently copious to start vegetation, but too late to help the sufferers. As this terrible long and dry summer wore on the wells went dry, springs failed, brooks and creeks went dry, and rivers were reduced to mere tiny rivulets meandering along the bottoms of former deep channels. The life ordinarily sustained in the waters was destroyed very largely. Vegetation of course shriveled up. The grass crop became a mere matted tangle of dry and inflammable stuff. The setting of a fire among it was very dangerous, for the flames would run like fiery serpents in all directions. The settlers had to be exceedingly careful as to every spark of fire all through that dreadful summer. Great trouble was experienced with the dust. It was everywhere. Even in meadows one walking would stir up great clouds of it like horses on the roads. Grain crops were practically destroyed. For the most part no attempt was made to harvest them, as they could not have been made to pay for even the time spent in gathering them. The effect of the drought was quite noticeable in the forests, where the trees shed their foliage early in the summer, and the leaves which did not fall dried up on the branches. The only things which seemed to thrive during the dry spell were the grasshoppers, which were reduced at length to the eating of thistles and elders to sustain life. The scarcity of feed which followed compelled the owners of stock to sell at low prices, or to send their animals down into the Scioto valley or over into Pennsylvania. This great drought brought total ruin to many a hard-working man, and it took others many years to recover their lost standing with the world. It is safe to say that never while he lives will any man forget the drought of 1845, who, as a man and a farmer, tried to live unharmed through it.

Abyssinian Money.

The Emperor Menelik has had a curious experience in his efforts to replace barter by a metallic currency in Abyssinia. The Maria Theresa thaler has for generations been current, but for want of a smaller coinage salt blocks became the standard of exchange and resisted all efforts, even of the emperor, to replace them by a new currency coined in Paris some years ago. The salt blocks have given way, but not to the new coinage which the people will not touch. The new standard of values is—the rifle cartridge.

INTERNATIONAL SPORT.

English College Lacrosse Players to Invade America.

The combined lacrosse team from the two English universities, which is to tour the United States this summer, as at present arranged will consist of ten or eleven Cantabs and five or six Oxonians.

The team will be organized under the auspices of the Cambridge University Lacrosse club and is not to be regarded as an Oxford-Cambridge team, because the Cambridge club is twenty years old, while the Oxford club is only in its first season and therefore could not accept challenges or arrange for such a tour.

At the same time the first lacrosse match between the Oxford and Cambridge clubs, held recently, demonstrated that the Oxonians were justified in accompanying the Cantabs, but not in taking a leading or equal part in the tour. The tour itself, in fact, is regarded rather in the light of gaining valuable experience for the English players than meeting the American and much less the Canadian clubs on equal terms. From this point of view the tour has the full approval of the leading English lacrosse associations, and the universities' team proposes to sail about June 10, arriving in New York June 17.

The first match will be played with Harvard, and this is considered a happy fixture, as it will precede the Harvard-Yale baseball match. The remainder of the tour will be arranged later. It will begin at Boston and end at Montreal. The team is now waiting for satisfactory information as to how the cost of the tour will be met.

Then there are the young twirlers, and it can be said that Comiskey's chances at the pennant depend almost entirely upon their work. Flaherty, Dunkle and Owen were all successes in the minor leagues last year and have made a good impression in their spring work outs.

If they can keep their minor league reputations in major league company Comiskey will have a string of five strong twirlers, and with "Comy" and Callahan both working for the "run getting" ability the White Sox should make a good showing in the race.

Much depends upon Callahan. This is his first year as manager, and he starts out with a team which is not conceded the championship in advance. Ultimate success, however, will be all the more to his credit when it is once attained.

All Were Prostrated and One So Badly Injured That His Life Is Despaired Of.

A DESTRUCTIVE STORM NEAR HOOKSTOWN

A destructive thunder storm visited the vicinity of Hookstown yesterday, creating havoc with the crops and resulting in injuries likely to cause the death of one man.

The storm gathered about 3 o'clock in the afternoon, and broke forth with all the fury of a western cyclone. The rain came down in torrents, and the lightning was the sharpest ever seen by the oldest residents. The storm was severest in the immediate vicinity of McCreary postoffice, where a large force of men were working the roads. Six workmen were in one party, and they were handling a road scraper to which several teams of horses were hitched.

The road workers had not noticed the approach of the storm, and were not prepared for it. At the very outbreak of the tempest a bolt of lightning struck the scraper, reducing it to scrap iron.

Wilbur McCullough was driving the horses, and was near the scraper when it was struck. He was knocked to the ground and rendered unconscious, while the remainder of the party were so severely shocked that they had to be assisted from the scene. When McCullough was picked up it was thought he was dead, but after a doctor, who was hastily summoned had made an examination, it was discovered that a spark of life still remained. Since then every effort has been made to revive him, but he remains in an unconscious condition, and will likely die.

One of the horses was killed outright and the others rendered helpless by the shock. The other members of the party of workmen are all very ill today, and it will be some time before they have entirely recovered from their thrilling experience.

McCullough is a married man and has several small children. The family has the sympathy of the entire community, since the unusual occurrence, if it results fatally, will leave the wife in bad circumstances. The news was a severe shock to the friends and relatives of the McCulloughs at Chester, where they are well and favorably known.

THE BREAKING LEVEES THREATEN DESTRUCTION

Panic and Terror Seize the People of East St. Louis. Scores Drowned Already and More Horrible Calamity Imminent.

St. Louis, June 10.—(Special.)—Confronted by perils as great as threatened the people of Johnstown when the South Fork dam broke a few years ago, the residents of East St. Louis are in a state of panic and terror. Already scores of people have been drowned. It is impossible to estimate the exact number of victims, but it is reliably stated that fully 50 people are known to have met death in this way.

At noon today the conditions were more terrifying and alarming than ever. Water was rushing through half a dozen breaks in the levee, and it was thought that the utmost endeavor would be powerless to prevent the complete destruction of the embankment.

The city of East St. Louis is now nearly all under water, and at the present rate of rise will be totally submerged by evening. The governor has been appealed to for troops to protect property and a prompt response is anticipated.

Organized bands are doing their utmost to save life and property, but it looks as though human efforts would be largely unavailing, and that one of the gravest calamities recorded in recent American history would be the result.

BONDS MAY BE ISSUED BY VOTE OF THE COUNCIL WITHOUT ANY ELECTION

From present indications there will be a bond issue whether the people vote for it or not. Council last evening practically decided to adopt a recommendation made by Solicitor George E. Davidson, which gives the body the lawful right to issue bonds upon a two-thirds vote, when the issue is to extend time of payment of debts already existing.

Solicitor Davidson stated that he and J. J. Purinton, of the tax commission, had thoroughly investigated the sections of the code pertaining to the issuing of bonds and that they had found it to be unnecessary to submit the matter to the people. Previous action taken on the question was under the Longworth act, which provides for a popular vote. The solicitor argued that to carry out the plan as commenced the city will be put to an entirely unnecessary expense. The plan provides for the advertising of each fund separately and for a separate vote for each. The section under which the solicitor advises an issuance reads as follows:

"The trustees or council of any municipal corporation, for the purpose of extending the time of payment of any indebtendenss which, from its limits of taxation, such corporation is unable to pay at maturity, or when it appears to the said trustees or council for the best interest of the said municipal corporation, shall have power to issue bonds of such corporation or borrow money so as to change but not to increase the indebtedness in such amounts or for such length of time and at such rate of interest as the council may deem proper, not to exceed the rate of 6 per cent per annum, payable annually or sefi-annually; provided, however, that no indebtedness of any municipal corporation should be funded, refunded or extended unless such indebtedness shall first be determined to be an existing, valid and binding obligation of any such municipal corporation by a formal resolution of the trustees or council of such municipal corporation, which resolution shall also state the amount of the existing indebtedness to be funded, refunded or extended, the aggregate amount of the bonds to be issued therefor, their number and denomination, the date of maturity, the rate of interest they shall bear and the place of payment of principal and interest."

MAN WHO WORKS AT TWO TRADES

QUEER CASE INVESTICATED

A peculiar condition exists in the ranks of the East Liverpool division No. 52, Amalgamated Association of Street Railway Employes, and an investigation by the officials has to the present only served to make matters worse.

Charles Heidrick came to East Liverpool some time ago and was admitted to membership in the street railway men's union. He has been known, the members say, as a very peculiar individual, and no one has been able to get next to him in a satisfactory manner. The case in question is best told by the members of the union, who said:

"When the matter first came to our attention we were informed that the man had taken the contract for painting a house in the east end of the city, and it was such an unusual occurrence that we determined to investigate. The business agent of the painters' union was informed and promised to look the matter up. Yesterday morning this individual went to the house and found Heidrick hard at work. He was asked if he thought it was altogether proper for him to be engaged at two trades when the painters were on strike. He informed the walking delegate that he did not care what his own local or the painters said; he proposed to go ahead with the work in hand. After obtaining a statement from Heidrick the agent lost no time in informing the officers of my union and an investigation was at once set on foot. The painter-motorman would make no defense, and it is likely that he will be deprived of his membership in our organization."

When seen Heidrick said the work on which he was engaged was a contract job, and being outside the state, the local painters had no jurisdiction. A special meeting of the street car men's union may be called to take action in Heidrick's case, but it may be left off until the regular meeting. In any case, the condition is one of the most peculiar the organization has had to deal with since its institution, and several of the officers are at a loss to know just what to do. It is likely Heidrick will be expelled from the union for conduct unbecoming a member of the union.

Representatives of Local Firms Go to the Seaside for Consultation.

Representatives of local pottery firms to the number of 25 left this afternoon on a special Pullman car attached to the 4 o'clock east bound train, for Atlantic City, N. J., where the semi-annual meeting of the Western Manufacturing Potters' association is to be held, commencing tomorrow. Representatives of other potteries in the western district will join the party enroute.

The manufacturers will doubtless take up the demands of the operatives, sanctioned by the national convention at Wheeling, though several members of the association, when approached by a News Review reporter this afternoon, refused to discuss the objects of the meeting

It is generally conceded, however, that the usual committee to confer with a committee from the Brotherhood will be appointed and a harmonious outcome is predicted. It is reported that the western manufacturers will confer with those in the east on matters of interest to the trade. The demands of the sanitary operatives will be considered separately and by different committees and will have no bearing on the general ware operatives and manufacturers.

People living on Franklin avenue were up in arms and justly indignant over the action of a well known man, who cruelly whipped a team of horses that he was driving up the thoroughfare this morning. The horses are fine appearing animals and were hauling an immense load. In some manner they tripped and fell down. The brutal man ran to some boys that were playing ball and seizing one of their bats went back to the horses and commenced beating them in a most barbarous manner.

A lady spectator fainted at the cruel sight and numerous others were nearly prostrated. A man passing by interfered and the degenerated driver turned upon him with the bat. It is said that the driver has done the same thing upon several occasions and the residents of the city have announced the intention of having him arrested.

CONGRESSMAN GILL BUYS A NEWSPAPER

From a Staff Correspondent.

Columbus, June 10.—Announcement has been made of the sale of the Dispatch, one of the oldest and best paying papers in Columbus, to the Dispatch Printing company, a corporation organized under the laws of Ohio, with a capital stock of $300,000. Congressman J. J. Gill, of Steubenville, owns a controlling interest in the company. Mr. Gill tried to purchase the Ohio State Journal, of this city, several months ago, when the property changed hands. It is stated he has been endeavoring for some time to secure a newspaper at the state capital as a means, it is surmised, of furthering his candidacy for governor.

Governor Nash has dismissed the charges brought to oust Mayor Charles Boach, Democrat, of Hamilton. Malfeasance in office was alleged, it being claimed the mayor was short something over $500 in his accounts. The latter claims that he remitted the amount alleged to be a shortage in fines and that not one cent of it went into his pockets. The governor threw out the case on the ground that the acts complained against did not occur since the code became effective. Mayor Boach is now serving his sixth term as mayor. The charges were filed by a faction which failed to defeat him. The governor has found that though the code empowers him to suspend or remove mayors, it gives him no authority to summon witnesses or have them sworn.

The result of the state bar examination nation was announced Tuesday evening. Out of a class of 275 applicants all passed but 39. One lady took the examination and was successful—Miss Ragan, of Napoleon. A large number of eastern Ohio applicants passed, among them being the following from Columbiana county: Loren B. Harris, of Salem; Clyde Brown Kenty, of Lisbon; William O'Grady, of Wellsville; Irving Holland Randolph, of Winona, and Charles F. Smith, of Salem. Those who passed will be sworn in by the supreme court this week.

The supreme court, in two decisions handed down yesterday, sustains the constitutionality of the law providing for the centralization of township school districts. The question was raised in Trumbull county.

Fined $1 And Costs.

James Hayes, arrested last evening by Officer Woods for being drunk, was arraigned this morning and pleading guilty to the charge was fined $1 and costs. He paid the amount and was released.

LABOR DAY PICNIC BEING ARRANGED FOR

The Labor day picnic committee of Trades and Labor Council held a meeting last night and a vast amount of work was attended to pertaining to the picnic which is to be held at Rock Springs in Septemoer.

The committee has succeeded in securing a permanent headquarters and will meet in the Potters' Herald office every Monday evening or oftener if the members deem it necessary. Preparations for the annual outing of the unionists of the city will be pushed from now on, and the committee will be very busy directing the work.

It is the intenuon to appoint subcommittees within a few days whose duty it will be to aid the general body. A program and printing committee was appointed at the meeting and will be composed of Charles Kontnier, Fred Pennington and Thomas Collins. A committee on sports was also appointed and will be made up of P. J. McKeone and John Reark. This is one of the most important departments of the celebration. Realizing this fact the general committee has resolved to begin work at once.

The sports committee promise a number of entirely new features in the sports line, and in order that the features may be properly handled a number of other members of Trades Council will be added to the committee.

Lisbon, June 10.—(Special.)—Frank P. Nuzum, the Elkton wounded man, is making a remarkable fight for life, although his case seemed a hopeless one from the start. He is reported to be very weak today, however, and his head is said to be affected.

The septic conditions of the wound, which recently made necessary the insertion of drainage tubes, seems to have been overcome and it is again healing.

Arbiters Not Necessary.

Kilnmen's local No. 9 held a special meeting last night to take action in regard to a dispute that had arisen at the C. C. Thompson plant over placing yellow ware in the bisque. After some discussion President Neal appointed the following committee to confer with the firm: Thomas Collins, Lyman Earl and Thomas Hodge. The firm receded from the position it had taken in the matter this morning and the services of the arbiters were not necessary.

News and Notes About The Potteries

THE EXPOSITION PLANT.

S. A. Weller, a manufacturer of art ware at Zanesville, will erect a $30,000 reproduction of his mammoth pottery plant on the Louisiana Purchase fair grounds at St. Louis, which he will operate during the life of that, the greatest exposition the universe has ever known. This announcement is made semi-officially and only lacks the signing of the contract to make the matter positively binding, most of the preliminary details having been gone over by the fair management.

Mr. Weller has stated that he had not actually signed the contract; that there yet remained some important details to be considered in closing before the papers would be graced by signatures, but that the coming ten days would suffice to settle all details. It has been the policy of the exposition people to grant but one such privilege; that is to say, there will be but one art ware factory on the grounds, and in getting together with Mr. Weller all other potteries of the Weller character are effectually shut out. It will therefore become patent that the Zanesville concern will have a clear field, and one can readily imagine the thousands of pieces of Dickens, Louelsa, Lonhuda and French productions that will be carried from the St. Louis grounds as souvenirs.

Mr. Weller anticipates taking a complete force of people from the kilnmen and jiggermen to the high priced artist to the exposition factory, to turn out ware as rapidly as possible, during all the time that the fair is in progress.

DELAY IN STARTING.

It is not likely that the Union plant, which has been undergoing a change from a line of scheme to general ware, will resume operations in full until after the mid-summer loaf. It has been given out, unofficially, that the clay hands will not be started until that time. The changes have taken longer than was at first thought and the plant could not be placed in rediness for the new line in time to accomplish much before the holiday season. Part of the operatives have been putting in a few days, finishing up the odds and ends of the ware that was in process of manufacture when the alterations were commenced.

DIED FROM BURNS.

Carl Smith, aged 23 years, is dead from the result of burns received a short time ago while making his escape from his burning home in Sebring, where he was employed as a shipping clerk with the Sebring Pottery company. At one time he was employed as a pottery salesman and was well known in this city. He was a popular young man and had hosts of friends in the western pottery district.

MAY HAVE BEEN KILLED.

One of the two homing pigeons sent to St. Louis, Mo., several days ago by Teddy McDermott, arrived home Monday morning in good time. The other one failed to appear and it may be that it was caught in the heavy wind and rain and killed.

WILL VISIT TIFFIN.

C. C. Smith, of the glost kiln crew at the Sevres, accompanied by his wife, will leave in a few days for Tiffin, O., to witness the commencement exercises of the high school of that city. Mr. Smith's brother, Grover C. Smith, is one of the graduates, and won the honor of being the valedictorian of the class. Mr. Smith will return shortly, while Mrs. Smith will remain a month with relatives.

IF YOU HAVE PAIN IN YOUR BACK

Do Not Be Deceived. You have Kidney Trouble, and You Do Not Need a Physician to Tell You So.

Pain in the back is an almost infallible sign of kidney disease; a surer sign is the condition of your urine. If you have a pain in the back, then look to the condition of your urine. It is easily done. Take a glass or tumbler and fill it with urine; after it has stood 24 hours, if it has a sediment, if it is milky or cloudy, if it is pale or discolored, stringy or ropy, your kidneys and bladder are in a dangerous condition and need immediate attention, or the consequences may prove fatal. Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy is the one medicine that really cures all diseases of the kidneys, liver, bladder and blood, rheumatism, dyspepsia and chronic constipation, and it will take you but a short trial to convince yourself of its wonderful curative power.

G. F. Sammer of No. 409 Tioga street, Syracuse, N. Y., in a recent letter says:

"I was afflicted for years with severe pains in my back and kidneys. I tried many doctors and many medicines, but got no relief. I bought a bottle of Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy and it has entirely cured me."

It is for sale by all druggists in the New 50 Cent Size and the regular $1.00 size bottles—less than a cent a dose.

Sample bottle—enough for trial, free by mail.

GIBBS IMPROVING.

John Gibbs, bench boss of the glost kiln crew at Cartwright's, who has been seriously ill for the past month with typhoid fever, is recovering, much to the satisfaction of his many friends at the plant and over town. He was able yesterday to visit the plant for the first time since his illness and was given a hearty welcome. It will be a week or more until he is able to resume his duties.

HERRON "HOODOOED."

Will Herron, a gilder employed at Laughlin No. 2, seems to be "hoodooed" when playing ball. Within the last two years he has had his arm broken twice while playing foot ball and at present is laid up for repairs on account of a broken finger received while playing base ball last week. He will be unable to work for about three weeks.

PRESSERS WORKING AGAIN.

The pressers at the Sevres, who have been laid off for the past week because there was no work, went on again yesterday and have orders enough ahead to keep them busy until the mid-summer loaf. Basil Vogle, of the biscuit kiln crew, who has been idle for the same reason, also returned to work yesterday.

IN A TRANCE.

MORGAN DOING WELL.

Word has been received by friends in this city from George Morgan, formerly a kilnman at the Klondike, who went to California a short time ago for the benefit of his health, that he is doing well and improving. This will be cheering news to his many friends.

AMONG THE WORKMEN.

Fred Pennington and Pete Devine, of the packing department at the Sevres, were among those who took in the excursion to New Castle yesterday.

William Hesketh, boss packer at the Oliver, Sebring, has resigned his position and is undecided as to what he will engage in for the future. His successor has not been named.

Thousands Have Kidney Trouble and Don't Know it.

How To Find Out.

Fill a bottle or common glass with your water and let it stand twenty-four hours; a sediment or settling indicates an unhealthy condition of the kidneys; if it stains your linen it is evidence of kidney trouble; too frequent desire to pass it or pain in the back is also convincing proof that the kidneys and bladder are out of order.

What to Do.

There is comfort in the knowledge so often expressed, that Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy fulfills every wish in curing rheumatism, pain in the back, kidneys, liver, bladder and every part of the urinary passage. It corrects inability to hold water and scalding pain in passing it, or bad effects following use of liquor, wine or beer, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go often during the day, and to get up many times during the night. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases. If you need a medicine you should have the best. Sold by druggists in 50c. and $1. sizes.

You may have a sample bottle of this wonderful discovery and a book that tells more about it, both sent absolutely free by mail. Address Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. When writing mention reading this generous offer in this paper.

COUNCIL HELD A BUSY SESSION

THE GARBAGE QUESTION

Was Taken Up And It Was Resolved to Make a Contract With Otto Schmidtbauer for Hauling — Mayor's Office May Receipts Large.

The meeting of council last evening was one of the most important held since the new body took the oath of office. The entire membership was present and under the leadership of President Horwell an unusually large amount of business was attended to in a very short time.

Auditor Davidson was called upon for the recommendations of the two boards as to the tax levy they deem necessary to run their respective departments for the fiscal year. The safety board submitted the following: For the fire department, 2.3, which is equivalent to $13,800; for the police department, .5, calling for $3,000. The board of public service recommended for the streets, 2.8, or $16,800; for the lighting, 2.1, or $12,600, and .5, or $3,000, for the sanitary fund. The engineer's salary, $2,000; the street commissioner's salary, $900, and the secretary of the board, $200, are included in the above.

The reports were not discussed, the members being of the belief that they were correct and they were turned over to the finance committee of council. After this committee passes upon them they will be submitted to the tax commission and will then be returned to council for final action.

The street committee reported their investigation made of the plat submitted by Melvin Smith for acceptance. It was the decision of the committee that the plat should be rejected owing to the failure of Mr. Smith to meet the requirements of section 465. A motion was passed rejecting the plat.

Mr. Bullock stated that he had found a provision in the code relative to the passing of an ordinance placing a restriction on vehicles, but had not time to determine upon a tax that should be assessed. He was instructed to have an ordinance ready by the next meeting.

Mayor Weaver's report showed that considerable business had been done by the police during the month of May. He had collected $303, for fines and licenses, not including the fines imposed on two saloonists, which would have increased the amount $100.

Chief Morley's report was as follows: Fire calls, 4; patrol calls, 54; ambulance calls, 7, making a total of 65. The total number hauled to the city hall was 73.

A petition was submitted by residents and property holders on Cadmus street asking that the street from Minerva street to the Morton addition be sewered and graded. The petition was referred to the street committee and city engineer.

Mr. Bullock consumed considerable time in advocating a remedy for the garbage nuisance from the standpoint of its disposal. He said that at the present time the residents of the city are unable to get garbage hauled from their premises and he recommended that something be done. The question was discussed generally and council finally decided to instruct the board of public service to make a contract with Otto Schmidtbauer for the hauling of all garbage. The reason expressed for giving the contract to Schmidtbauer was that he has the proper kind of wagons and that no one should be allowed to carry the filth unless they obtain beds for their wagons that will not leak. It was also thought advisable for the contractor to have his wagons supplied with coverings, in order that residents will not be compelled to inhale the disagreeable effluvia while the wagons go through the city.

Mr. Johnston introduced the question pertaining to the propriety of passing an ordinance making it necessary for every street in the city having established grade lines. The question was discussed at length. Numerous damage suits have been won owing to grade lines being established after a house has been erected and the opinion expressed by the members was that all new plats should have the grade established before accepted and that before a grade is established on a street where buildings are standing a petition signed by every property owner on the thoroughfare should be submitted asking for the grade.

Mr. Croxall insisted that to take action at the present time would be unfair and inconsistent, arguing that heretofore the owners of a plat were not required to have a grade established. The argument did not meet the approval of the remaining members, all being of the opinion that simply because old councils had made a mistake was no reason that the present body should continue in like manner. There was no definite action taken on the matter but it will be given final treatment at the next meeting.

Contractor Rinehart had notified one of the members that he intends to sue the city for the money alleged to be due him for doing certain paving last year. The members were not much frightened at the threat, it being shown that he had not done the work in accordance with the order of council and the city engineer.

Mr. Smith stated that the East Liverpool Railway company has abandoned a switch laid several years ago on Dewey avenue and Pennsylvania avenue in order that a gravel pit might be reached and it is now being an obstruction. He moved that the company be ordered to remove it. The motion was carried.

Mr. Barlow asserted that a sidewalk in front of the residence of a Mrs. Surles on Grant street is in a terrible condition and asked that she be ordered to repair it. The matter was referred to the board of public service.

ROCK RUN COMPANY FIRST WELL A DUSTER

Came in Yesterday With No Indications of Oil or Gas And Will Be Abandoned.

The first well drilled in on the holdings of the Rock Run Oil & Gas company in the Knoxville field proved to be a duster, and while the stockholders are a great deal disappointed, they are not discouraged, and other tests will be made. The hole was about 1,400 feet deep when the pay rock was reached yesterday afternoon, but there was no indication of either oil or gas.

Several hundred people watched the well come in, many of the spectators being farmers and land owners in the neighborhood. That oil was not found was a surprise to all. The well was located among other paying wells and from surface and topographical indications the prospects seemed bright. There was no "pay streak" in the rock, which was 47 feet through, and for this reason the well will not be shot.

A report was circulated in Toronto yesterday afternoon that a 100-barrel gusher had been struck and A. P. Ayler, who was in that city, brought the report to the East End, where it caused considerable excitement. A corresponding depression was noted when the true state of affairs became known.

SPEEDY RACE HORSES AT COLUMBIAN PARK

Interest in the string of fast horses, owned by Harrison Rinehart and Sam Groves and quartered in Columbian park, has been growing since the warm weather permits of sending the animal around the track at a fast clip. The morning turnouts are witnessed by a great many people.

Redmond, the horse with quite a local reputation, is showing up well this year, and Joan, a half sister to the famous Dan Patch, has been doing some fast half miles. Lady France, another one of Rinehart's fast ones, promises to clip a few seconds off her record this season. Tom Moffet and "Fatty" Fowler are Rinehart's trainers.

It is conceded by turfmen that Groves has a promising goer in Gentry, Jr. He has several others in his stable and they are being trained for an early start in the racing season. Mr. Groves and Ed Lounsford are doing the training.

Celebration Was Marred.

The anniversary celebrations at the Swan home on Ohio avenue yesterday were marred owing to the inability of several children and near relatives to be presnt, owing to illness. Mrs. J. P. Lyenberger, of Toronto, and Rev. C. W. Swan and wife, of Shreve, were among the number detained for this reason. Among those present were: Rev. W. L. Swan and wife, of Salem; J. L. Swan, of Canton, and Miss Pearl Swan. The day was quietly spent and a big family dinner was served.

Damaged by the Storms.

'Squire L. W. Carman has received a letter from his son, C. S. Carman, of Iowa, telling of the devastation wrought in his section by the terrible rain and windstorms of the past week. The crops of many of the farmers were entirely destroyed and their loss can hardly be calculated. Mr. Carman was fortunate in comparison to some of his neighbors, losing but 47 acres of oats and about 50 acres of corn.

Foot Painfully Burned.

Mrs. W. C. Bryan, of Erie street, had her right foot painfully scalded yesterday while attending to some household duties. Mrs. Bryan was assisting a neighbor lady in lifting a wash boilerful of boiling water when in some way the vessel overturned, the contents psilling upon her foot. She is suffering excruciating pain and will be laid up for a number of days.

Social Tomorrow.

The ladies of the aid society of the Erie street M. E. church are anticipating a pleasant and profitable time at the social to be given tomorrow at the home of Mrs. Hamilton, corner of Ohio avenue and Chestnut street. Refreshments of ice cream and cake will be served.

EAST END AFFAIRS.

H. Carman, of Wellsburg, will be the guest of his brother, 'Squire L. W. Carman, tomorrow.

Rev. W. E. Hill, of Ohio avenue, was a visitor to Pittsburg yesterday.

A. L. Bryant, of Lorain, is the guest of his son, W. C. Bryant, of Erie street.

Ladies and Children Invited.

All ladies and children who cannot stand the shocking strain of laxative syrups, cathartics, etc., are invited to try the famous Little Early Risers. They are different from all other pills. They do not purge the system. Even a double dose will not gripe, weaken or sicken, many people call them the Easy Pill. W. H. Howell, Houston, Tex., says nothing better can be used for constipation, sick headache, etc. Bob Moore, Lafayette, Ind., says all others gripe and sicken, while DeWitt's Little Early Risers do their work well and easy. Sold by Alvin H. Bulger.

"POOR DIGESTION, LANGUID AND TIRED."

[An Interesting Letter Concerning Pe-ru-na.]

Miss Della Janveau, Globe Hotel, Ottawa, Ont., is from one of the oldest and best known French Canadian families in Canada. In a recent letter to The Peruna Medicine Co., of Columbus, Ohio, she says:

"Last spring my blood seemed clogged up, my digestion poor, my head ached and I felt languid and tired all the time. My physician prescribed for me, but a friend advised me to try Peruna. I tried it and am pleased to state that I found it a wonderful cleanser and purifier of the system. In three weeks I was like a new woman, my appetite had increased, I felt buoyant, light and happy and without an ache or pain. Peruna is a reliable family medicine."

Adia Brittain, of Sekitan, O., writes:

"After using your wonderful Peruna three months I have had great relief. I had continual heaviness in my stomach, was bilious, and had fainting spells, but they all have left me since using Peruna."—Adia Brittain.

If you do not derive prompt and satisfactory results from the use of Peruna, write at once to Dr. Hartman, giving a full statement of your case and he will be pleased to give you his valuable advice gratis.

THOUSANDS OF PYTHIANS AT M'KINLEY'S TOMB

Canton, June 10.—Three thousand or more Knights of Pythias, attending the 34th annual convention of the grand lodge of the Ohio domain, yesterday held the annual parade, which included a march and counter-march past the McKinley home, and a visit to the tomb of the late president Mrs. McKinley, with a small company of friends, viewed the column from the famous front porch. The marching knights approached the house with uncovered heads. They again uncovered their heads as they approached the tomb and the committee entered the vault to place the emblem of the order worked out in cut flowers on the casket.

Returning to the city the formal opening of the grand lodge occurred, Allen Cook, of the local committee, presiding. Welcoming addresses were delivered by Mayor W. H. Smith for the city, and by ex-Mayor James A. Rice, for the fraternal societies. The grand lodge degree was conferred. The afternoon was given over to an outing at Meyers' lake. In spite of showers and threatening weather the program of races, athletic contests etc., was carried out. The annual meeting of the past chancellors' association last night was followed by a banquet of that branch of the convention at Hotel McKinley. Several hundred members of the grand temple of the Rathbone Sisters are also here.

REV. JOHN M. CASTON LOST HIS BAGGAGE

He And Mrs. Gaston Were on a Wrecked Train, But Were Not Injured.

Pittsburg, June 10.—Rev. John M. Gaston, of the Hazelwood Presbyterian church, with his wife, reached home yesterday from California, where he was one of the commissioners from the Pittsburg presbytery to the general assembly of the Presbyterian church. They were on the Santa Fe train which was so badly wrecked last Thursday at Stillwell, Kan., when nine persons were killed.

The collision was head-on and all the dead were in the first car. Rev. Mr. Gaston and his wife were in the eighth car and were not in the least injured. The baggage and mail cars were burned, and it is supposed that their baggage was in the burned car, as it has not yet arrived.

Rheumatism
Is Not a Skin Disease.

Most people have an idea that rheumatism is contracted like a cold, that the damp, chilly air penetrates the muscles and joints and causes the terrible aches and pains, or that it is something like a skin disease to be rubbed away with liniment or drawn out with plasters; but Rheumatism originates in the blood and is caused by Urea, or Uric Acid, an irritating, corroding poison that settles in muscles, joints and nerves, producing inflammation and soreness and the sharp, cutting pains peculiar to this distressing disease.

Exposure to bad weather or sudden chilling of the body will hasten an attack of Rheumatism after the blood and system are in the right condition for it to develop, but have nothing to do with the real true causes of Rheumatism, which are internal and not external.

Liniments, plasters and rubbing will sometimes reduce the inflammation and swelling and ease the pain for a time, but fail to relieve permanently because they do not reach the seat of the trouble. S. S. S. cures Rheumatism because it attacks it in the blood, and the Uric Acid poison is neutralized, the sluggish circulation stimulated and quickened, and soon the system is purified and cleansed, the aching muscles and joints are relieved of all irritating matter and a lasting cure of this most painful disease effected.

S. S. S. is a harmless vegetable remedy, unequalled as a blood purifier and an invigorating, pleasant tonic. Book on Rheumatism will be mailed free.

Bowling Green, Ky.

About a year ago I was attacked by acute rheumatism in my shoulders, arms and legs below the knee. I could not raise my arm to comb my hair. Doctors prescribed for me for over two months without giving me any relief. I saw S. S. S. advertised and decided to try it. Immediately I commenced its use I felt better, and remarked to mother that I was glad I had at last found some relief. I continued its use and am entirely well. I will always feel deeply interested in the success of S. S. S. since it did me so much good.

BLOOD POISON

On account of its terrible effects, blood disease is called the king of all diseases. It may be either hereditary or contracted; so while it may not be a crime to have the disease, it is a crime to permit it to remain in the system. It may manifest itself in the form of Scrofula, Eczema, rheumatic pains, stiff or swollen joints, itchiness of the skin, eruptions or blotches, ulcers in the mouth or on the tongue, sore throat, falling out of hair, disordered stomach, and a general depression of the system. If you have any of these symptoms don't neglect yourself. You have no time to lose. Beware of "old fogy" treatment—beware of mineral poisons—beware of Quacks and Fakirs. OUR NEW METHOD TREATMENT is guaranteed to cure this disease, never to return. Bank Bonds will protect you. Our treatment is not injurious in any way, but reaches the very root of the disease and eliminates all poison from the system. The symptoms of disease gradually disappear. The blood becomes pure and enriched, the whole system is cleansed and purified, and the patient feels prepared anew for the duties and the pleasures of life. CURES GUARANTEED OR NO PAY. 25 Years in Ohio. 250,000 Cured.

In his testimony before the interstate commerce commission R. M. Olyphant, formerly president of the Delaware & Hudson railroad, said that the coal trust with which he is connected would raise the price of coal 10 cents a month until the maximum advance of 50 cents is reached. His explanation of this policy was that the exigencies of the trade justified the demand. But he did not explain the exigencies, and there was a word of significance in his assertion: "We could get a higher price if we asked for it." The coal trust has been too long defiant of law and public opinion. It affords a splendid opportunity for the government to make a practical test of the value and efficacy of the anti-trust legislation.

An appeal is now being issued by the committee in charge of the work of raising funds for the purchase of a silver service for the battleship Ohio, and for the proposed McKinley medallion figure to be attached to the forward turret of the vessel in memory of the lamented president. It is proposed to spend $25,000 or $30,000 on these mementoes. The sum is small in comparison with the wealth of the state, and the contributions ought to be prompt and ample. Every bank in the state is authorized to receive money for the purpose.

By an ordinance passed by the Columbus city council it will hereafter be a misdemeanor to allow weeds to grow on a vacant lot after notice has been given by the health department to cut them, and the offender is liable to a more or less heavy fine. This is one of the ordinances passed at the instance of the women of the capital city, who are making diligent efforts to rid the city of eyesores and nuisances.

Those newspapers who a short time ago foresaw that Cuba was drifting rapidly toward ruin have another guess. General Maximo Gomez, a visitor in this country, reports that the government is fulfilling the most sanguine expectations, Cuba is prospering and its people contented. Its rally has been wonderful, thanks to the treatment of its skilled physician, Uncle Sam.

Governor Bailey, of Kansas, before election, promised to get married if he got elected. He has now redeemed his campaign pledge and married a widow. Before he made a selection more than 2,000 women of various ages, merits and complexions offered to be his. The governor's experience has been unique, but doubtless not so amusing to him as to others.

The president is said to be impatient over the delay of the Colombian government in ratifying the canal treaty. The impatience is shared by the people. The great work ought to be begun; Uncle Sam is ready, and he will probably make it plain that he is not accustomed to do business on the "tomorrow" principle.

If the Democrats are to make a figure on tariff revision they would better prepare for a long campaign. The senate is decidedly Republican until 1907, and there is not the remotest chance of it being otherwise for a long time after that date.

"The Democratic party," Mr. Bryan declares, "is not the enemy of wealth." Yet, in spite of Mr. Bryan, history records that whenever Democratic policies have triumphed poverty has increased in this country.

The Republican candidate for vice president is already being discussed and Ohio men, as usual, figure most numerously on the list of those receiving honorable mention.

The college that teaches a man to work is filling the highest educational mission.

Uncle Reuben's Opinion.

"They may say what they please, but listen—hear me; I've taken all kinds of laxatives, purgatives and cathartics but when it comes to one that is easy and pleasant to take, mild and gentle in its action, and that makes one want an extra slice of bacon for breakfast, just give me Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets, and you may have all the laxative syrups, dyspepsia medicines and pills little or big, there is in this country. Them Tablets surely do make one feel joyful." For sale by Alvin & Bulger.

Nature hid one of her greatest blessings in the liver of a fish, but practically prohibited its use by the nauseating grease and fishy flavor. Science has now extracted this good without the grease, and presented it to suffering humanity in the form of Hagee's Cordial of Cod Liver Oil.

COUNTY MEDICAL MEN HOLD A MEETING

Lisbon, June 10.—(Special)—The recently organized Columbiana County Medical society held its first monthly meeting in the room of the Business Men's association in this city yesterday afternoon. As the society was just organized at a meeting in East Liverpool a few weeks ago and is not yet fully under way, no regular program was prepared for yesterday's meeting. Several interesting clinical cases were discussed, however, and the secretary, Dr. W. E. Morris, of Lisbon, gave a report of the previous meeting in East Liverpool.

The president, Dr. W. N. Bailey, of East Liverpool, presided. Thirteen new members were added to the society as follows: Dr. William Moore, F. P. Moore, Frank Graham, G. H. Albright, W. C. Nevin, D. J. Jones, and T. B. Marquis, of Lisbon; W. N. Gilmore, West Point; H. E. Blazer and J. A. Lindsay, Salineville; J. S. Campbell, Wellsville; A. L. Cope, Winona, and S. J. Patterson, East Fairfield.

The society adjourned to meet in Salem the second Tuesday in July.

THE WESTERN RESERVE

THRILLING FRONTIER TRAGEDY.

The reader who sits to-day in his comfortable home and enjoys the peaceful life of this section of our land can scarcely appreciate the great hardships which the pioneer settlers of Pennsylvania and Ohio endured a century and more ago, as they fought back the wilderness line and brought this rich country under cultivation and civilization. This is the story of the first white child born in the Western Reserve, and of the melancholy fate which overtook it. The first exploring party of settlers whas led into the Reserve by General Moses Cleaveland in 1796. They were hardy men, born to conquer the wilderness and make it blossom as the rose, and they came with the conscious tread of those behind whom were following millions. In the western progress of the Cleaveland party a halt was made at a spot on the southern shore of Lake Erie, where since has grown up the town of Conneaut, Ohio. They were here for some time during the early summer of 1796, and then at length passed on westward to the mouth of the Cuyahoga, where they laid the foundations of a new city which is now known as Cleveland.

Here we leave them, for this story has to do with a brave man and his family who followed alone the track of the Cleaveland party. This man was James Kingsbury, who had in the early summer left his old home in New York state and set out with family and household goods to seek a newer habitation in the virgin Ohio country. Their sad adventures during the following winter furnish one of the most thrilling of frontier tragedies. Kingsbury belonged to that numerous class to whom the promise of new things always seemed the certainty of better things, and the great rich lands lying to the south of Lake Erie seemed like an Eden, or a Canaan, full of promise. Making all preparations possible he followed in the trail of General Cleaveland's surveying party. Only a short time after they had left Conneaut this venturesome family, consisting of husband, wife and several children, arrived at that spot. Constructing a crude cabin close by the lake, these pioneers settled down to spend the winter, being the first family to winter in the Reserve. Their quarters were rude, affording but poor accommodations for a man, not to say anything of the more tender woman and children who so bravely set their hands to the conquest of the untamed wilderness. Soon after this rough beginning was made Mr. Kingsbury found that he would have to make a journey back to his former home in the East to attend to some business matters which his sudden departure had compelled him to leave unfinished. This made necessary the leaving of his family alone in that exposed situation, but no one flinched from the hardship, and the husband and father sat out on his way. Weeks went by and the time of his expected return arrived. No sign of his approach was seen. The days passed and the weeks increased. The brave pioneer wife and mother began to fear that death had overtaken her absent loved one, but all she could do was to watch and wait. Food became scarce and they were compelled to reduce their allowance, so that hunger troubled them as well as cold. Their situation was becoming desperate, and there was no way of helping matters. Meantime, back in old York state, Mr. Kingsbury had attended to his business and was just about to set out on his return, when he was taken ill with a fever, which laid him up for long weeks. It would be hard to appreciate his feelings during this enforced delay. At last, well on into the winter, he was able to start back home. At Buffalo he hired an Indian guide, that he might save time. At Presqu Isle he bought twenty pounds of flour, all he could carry. Finally one morning he reached his cabin and the sight made his heart sick. His wife lay in bed ill, and in the advanced stages of emaciation from starvation. By her side lay the body of a child born during his absence, which had died for lack of nourishment. This was the first white child born in the Western Reserve, and such was its early and sad fate, born in a land rich and fertile, only to be starved to death in a few days. The other children were gaunt and hollow-eyed, but still living. The food which the father brought soon turned the tide of life, and trouble vanished for the time. A century has wrought marvelous changes at Conneaut. Where the lone cabin stood is now a busy, growing community of thousands, a commercial center of great activity. The actual site of the Kingsbury cabin has for three-quarters of a century been covered by the encroaching waters of the lake, as the shore line changed. It appears that Mr. Kingsbury in later years moved to the vicinity of Cleveland. Of him it is related that his was the hand which thrust the first sickle into a ripened field of wheat on the Western Reserve. In his later life he became a legislator and judge. During the past winter his grandson, an aged an honored Methodist Episcopal clergyman, died at Alliance, Ohio.

The Victoria Medal.

The Victoria medal is made out of bronze from Russian guns captured in the Crimean war. The design is the work of the prince consort of Queen Victoria. The medals are made separately and only when one is needed. Thus when some soldier or sailor, no matter what his rank may be, has shown "conspicuous bravery or devotion to the country in the presence of danger," as the act reads, the war office sends to the royal jewelers the bronze needed for the metal. It is carefully cast, filed smooth around the edges and then the design is brought out by casting. The soldier's medal is suspended by a red ribbon and that of the sailor by a blue piece of silk.

A Letter to Mother.

"You promised mother a letter. Write it now," is one of the mottoes on the walls of the Nagasaki Home For Seamen, a motto that, it is asserted, has restrained more men from going wrong than almost any other influence of the place. Wanderers over the globe are not the only ones who need such a reminder. Indeed they might be able to give lessons in filial duty to many who have never realized how fortunate they are that home and mother are not far away, but near at hand.—Youth's Companion.

WELLSVILLE

OLD FASHIONED FOURTH FOR WELLSVILLE

Proposition for a Lively Celebration Now Under Serious Discussion.

The citizens of Wellsville have now begun in earnest to prepare for a glorious Fourth. Several of the labor organizations have taken up the good work and are devoting considerable of their time to aid making the celebration one to be remembered. A plan is now on foot to organize a band for the occasion. The material is here and it would be very little trouble to get it together. All the instruments necessary are in the city. Without any exertion at all a band of 15 pieces could be collected for this day and if things move smoothly the band could still hold together.

Quite a number of the business men of the city are interesting themselves in a general celebration and have expressed their willingness to make a donation. The program now proposed is in the morning to have all the contests, such as foot races, bicycle races, greased pig, greased pole, sack races, etc., and in the afternoon a good ball game at the park and in the evening the fire works.

Fined for Striking His Wife.

William Suggert, who was arrested Monday evening and jailed, was brought before Mayor Fogo yesterday afternoon. He was arrested for assault and battery on charges preferred by his wife, who said he beat her unmercifully, but after he had been placed in jail she wanted him released. Suggert works at E. E. Gamble's meat market and is a rather small man. The wife is large and strong. At the trial the husband stated that he and his wife had had frequent spats but this was the first time he ever struck her. The mayor imposed a fine of $4.60, which was paid. The husband and wife have become reconciled.

Janitor's Bond Approved.

The board of public service held a short meeting yesterday. Little business was transacted. The bond of Janitor Dallas Pittinger in the sum of $1,000 was approved, Stewart voting no. City Engineer Leith was instructed to engage fifty men and begin the work on the contemplated sewer on Charles avenue, from Eighteenth street to Kelly avenue. This sewer has been petitioned for several times by the residents. Mr. Leith was ordered to begin work today.

Repairing the Church.

The entire first floor of the Wellsville M. E. church was taken out yesterday and a new one is being laid with all possible speed. The floor has been in a rather poor condition for some time and a new one will improve the property greatly. The carpenters propose to have the work completed before Sunday, when the children's day exercises will be held. A delightful program has been arranged with an abundance of good music.

Bids Accepted.

Washington June 10. — Secretary Moody announced the acceptance of the three lowest bids for the three new 16,000-ton battleships, and the following awards have been made. Minnesota—Newport News Shipbuilding company, of Newport News, Va., $4,110,000. Kansas—New York Shipbuilding company, of Camden, N. J., for $4,179,000, and the Vermont to the Fore River Manufacturing company of Weymouth, Mass., for $4,165,000. Secretary Moody has ruled that portable equipment is not to be included in the limit of cost fixed by changes which was $4,212,000 for each ship.

Fatally Shot the Girl.

Three shots were fired, but two missed the mark. Miss Miller is one of the prettiest girls in the city. Jealousy is said to have been the cause of the tragedy.

Washington, June 10.—With three other passengers, Col. William H. Michael, chief clerk of the department of state, fell four stories in an elevator, without serious results. The accident occurred in an apartment house in the northeast section, where Colonel Michael was visiting his daughter.

Important Financial Statement.

New York, June 10.—The statement is made on the best of authority that an offer has been made to the syndicate which has agreed to underwrite the $75,000,000 new Pennsylvania railroad stock at 120 by a very important financial interest to take over any part or all of the stock that may come into the syndicate's possesion. In fact, it is asserted that this financial interest is ready to take all the new stock. It is intimated that, with its present holdings, the possession of the new stock would probably carry control of that potential property.

CHAMBERLAIN'S EXIT

Rumored Resignation of Great Britain's Colonial Secretary.

HOUSE OF COMMONS IS PACKED

Even If He Is Persuaded to Remain in the Cabinet His Influence as a Political Power in Great Britain Is at Least Temporarily Eclipsed.

London, June 10.—The rumored resignation of Colonial Secretary Chamberlain is the most startling development of the proposal of the chancellor of the exchequer, Mr. Ritchie, to abolish the corn tax, the debate on which kept the House of Commons to-day packed and spellbound until midnight. Even if Premier Balfour persuades Mr. Chamberlain to remain in the cabinet, the colonial secretary's preferential tariff program is hopelessly snowed under, and his influence as a political power in Great Britain at least temporarily eclipsed.

All the members of the government who contributed to the debate vigorously declared themselves as free traders and frankly opposed Mr. Chamberlain's proposals. Except for Mr. Chaplin, not a voice on either side of the house was raised in effective support of Mr. Chamberlain's campaign.

Former members of cabinet and private members, irrespective of party, protested against any dickering with Great Britain's fiscal policy. The Unionists vied with the Liberals in declaring themselves out-and-out free traders. All that was lacking in the complete rout of the Protectionist minister was Mr. Balfour's official pronouncement, as premier, and on behalf of the government that the cabinet as a whole refused to adopt Mr. Chamberlain's views.

"Black Michael" as he is familiarly called, was never seen to better advantage. The ministers sat with troubled faces, Mr. Balfour looking especially dejected. Mr. Chamberlain, deserting his usual place, paler than even usual, then stretched himself nonchalently at the end of the treasury bench. Throughout the afternoon he never exchanged a word with his colleagues. After Mr. Ritchie had denounced the colonial secretary's ideas Mr. Chamberlain stalked out of the chamber without even a nod to Mr. Balfour.

Member after member rose from the Unionist ranks; some who supported Mr. Chaplin refused to "eat their words," with which they had previously supported the government when the corn tax was originally brought in; others lauded Chancellor of the Exchequer Ritchie for his refusal to pander to the spirit of protection; all demanded that Mr. Balfour enlighten them regarding the government's view as a whole.

After the dinner recess the excitement was heightened by the absence of both the colonial secretary and the premier.

The latest gossip in best-informed quarters is to the effect that Mr. Chamberlain will not speak and that he will not resign, while the government will endeavor to dispose of the Irish land bill and stave off affairs until October.

Militia Company Not Molested.

Topeka, Kas., June 10.—As far as known the Osborne militia company, on the way to St. Francis with the men accused of the killing of Daniel Berry and his sons, has not been molested by the parties of armed settlers. W. B. Lockwood, a member of the state legislature, wires that he looks for bloodshed, as the settlers recognize in the present case an opportunity to settle old scores with the cattlemen.

DEAD OF THE DAY.

Captain John M. Brinker.

Buffalo, June 10. — Capt. John M. Brinker, well known in the coal and iron trade and as the man who conceived the idea of holding a Pan-American exposition, is dead of paralysis, aged 68 years.

William P. Bruce.

Rev. Dr. Faye Walker.

Hamilton, O., June 10.—A telegram received here announced the death today, at Philadelphia, of Rev. Dr. Faye Walker, president of Oxford College for Women from 1883 to 1900. Dr. Walker was one of the most widely known educators and preachers of the middle west. He went to Philadelphia three years ago as pastor of Hebron Presbyterian church.

Captain Daniel W. Fisk.

New York, June 10.—Captain Daniel W. Fisk, for many years one of the proprietors of the Helena, Mont., Herald, is dead at St. Peter's hospital, Brooklyn. The body will be shipped to Salt Lake City, Utah, to be buried by the side of his wife. Captain Fisk belonged to the Loyal Legion and the Grand Army of the Republic, having enlisted in the volunteer service in Indiana at the opening of the Civil war.

It is seen that the above section provides in every manner for the conditions existing in the question before council and with the object in view of saving every cent possible the members will doubtless carry out the suggestion. They have conformed with one of the requirements, having passed a resolution declaring it necessary to issue bonds and designating the funds. Before further action can be taken, however, the resolution will have to become effective, which will be in ten days. At that time a special meeting will be called. If the work is carried out with dispatch the money will be in the hands of the city treasurer by the middle of July.

A PASSENGER TRAIN WRECKED

Fireman So Badly Scalded That He Died — Thirteen Persons Were Injured.

Louisville, Ky., June 10.—A passenger train on the Louisville & Nashville railroad, from New Orleans to Cincinnati, was wrecked on Muldraugh's Hill, 32 miles south of Louisville, John Keller, of Louisville, the fireman, was so badly scalded that he died. Thirteen persons were injured.

The train had just passed through a tunnel and was rounding a sharp curve when the engine careened and rolled to the bottom of a 60-foot hill, burying the engineer and fireman. The mail car, a combination baggage and express, followed, but were stopped by a large tree. The smoker, a day coach, a Pullman and a dining car also left the track, but remained on the roadbed. One of the rails, torn up by the force of the wreck, passed through the smoker, striking Mr. Moorehead, and breaking both his legs. On the train were four physicians, who aided the injured. President Milton H. Smith, of the Louisville & Nashville, was on board, but was uninjured.

Arrested for Embezzlement.

Washington, June 10.—James M. Watson, Jr., a clerk in the office of the auditor for the District of Columbia, and the son-in-law of a wealthy retired railroad contractor, was arrested on a charge of embezzlement of government funds. The amount is estimated at $60,000 to $75,000. The warrant makes the specific charge of embezzlement of $8,000, which represents only a portion of the alleged peculations. Watson was not bonded, and in case he or his relatives, several of whom are said to eb wealthy, fail to make good the alleged losses, Auditor J. T. Petty will be held responsible for the amount. The auditor's bond is for $20,000.

Jett-White Jury Completed.

Jackson, Ky., June 10—The jury to try Curtis Jett and Tom White, charged with the shooting of J. B. Marcum, was completed. The present indications are that the taking of testimony will be commenced before noon. The jury are all Magoffin county farmers, who said they knew none of the details of the tragedy. They were accepted after many arguments, challenges and the filing of numerous affidavits. A detail of soldiers joined the elisor in attendance upon the jury. Both sides seem satisfied with the body. The defense exhausted its 15 peremptory challenges and the prosecution used three of its five.

No More Indiscriminate Firing.

Frankfort, Ky., June 10.—A long conference was held here, in which Governor Beckham, State Inspector H. B. Hines, Col. Roger William, in command at Jackson, and Major E. W. Lillard, second in command, participated. At its close the state guard officers left for Jackson, accompanied by the state inspector, who will look into the situation there and report to the executive. The officers were directed by the governor to issue notice to the people of Breathitt county that any more indiscriminate firing in the town of Jackson will be considered an attack on the soldiers and the parties guilty of it will be severely dealt with.

Miners' Trial Begun.

Charleston, W. Va., June 10.—In the federal court here Judge Keller began the trials against the striking miners for resisting arrest at Atkinsville and Stanford City, February 21 and 25. The case set for trial first was that of Marion Marshall and the government has put in all its testimony.

How Oysters Grow.

A man who has devoted much time to the study of the oyster says that this bivalve is born with his shell on and that he grows only in the summer time. The beard of an oyster is not only his breathing organ—that is, his lungs—but it also serves to convey food to his mouth. When the warm, calm days of June come the oyster opens his shell and by means of his beard begins building an additional story to his house. This he does by depositing very, very fine particles of carbonate of lime till at last they form a substance as thin as silver paper and exceedingly fragile. Then he adds more and more till at last the new shell is as hard as the old shell.

GIANTS RAN UP ENORMOUS SCORE

The Cubans Defeated Wellsville 20 to 3, But the Game Was Interesting.

In a game that was exceedingly interesting at times the Wellsville boys were badly defeated yesterday afternoon, at Central park, by the Cuban X Giants. Barring some of the errors the home team played a good game and deserves credit for being able to score against such a strong team.

The Cubans were first to bat and secured one run, but not a hit. Grant went down on a dead ball and on an error scored. In the third two men went to first on errors and Smith, the heavy man, placed the ball over the left field fence for a home run.

After the fourth things began to look bad. In the sixth, by bunching five hits, three Wellsville men crossed the plate. The home team could hit the ball fairly well, but Jordan would catch the boys napping on bases and throw them out. The eighth inning proved a slaughter. The first five of the visitors secured good clean hits and with a two-bagger added by Smith, seven runs were scored. In the ninth the Giants secured one more.

The redeeming features of the home team were the long catches made by Patterson and Hamilton.

The Marines, of the East Liverpool league, lost to the Athletics of New Castle yesterday by a score of 9 to 3. The locals say that they were never accorded such unfair treatment as that received at the hands of the Pennsylvania boys. They state that had they been given a fair deal they would have won the game easily. The score was as follows, notwithstanding that Pittsburg papers published it differently:

Hollenden, 4; Imperials, 3.

The Imperial and Hollenden teams played at Columbian park yesterday afternoon, the latter winning in an exciting seven-inning contest, the game being called to permit another contest to be played upon the grounds. Ferguson and Rigby, the opposing twirlers, were very effective and kept the base hits well scattered. The fielding of both teams was sharp. Following is the score:

										R.	H.	E.

The world is full of women whose life is one long struggle against diseases peculiar to their sex—whose days and nights are full of quiet, patient suffering. The head the seat of pain and pressure—the result of nerve depression and physical weakness brought on by uterine or ovarian trouble—the nerves on edge—inclined to laugh or cry at anything—an ever present dragging in the back, hips and limbs—a feeling of utter weariness, lassitude and despondency. To these people the Dr. A. W. Chase Nerve Pills are of incomparable value, having as they do the power to rebuild, to reinvigorate and resupply every organ, every nerve, every muscle, with the lost energy and to ensure a complete return to health, strength and vigor again.

Mrs. Margaret Tracy, of No. 178 Seventh street, East Liverpool, Ohio, says: "One of my family was very nervous, subject to nervous spells—weak and miserable—could not sleep and the indigestion was very poor. I asked the invalid to take Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills I got at Larkins' drug store. The result was splendid—the medicine built her up—enriched the blood—made the nerves strong—gave restful sleep and so strengthened the stomach that digestion is perfect—the old time languid, played out feeling has given place to one of strength and energy and as a result we are more than pleased with the medicine."

FLOOD AT ST. LOUIS

OFFICIAL HIGH WATER MARK

Cause of the Rise Problematical—Forecaster Bowie Says It Will Be of Short Duration and the Decline Will Be Rapid.

St. Louis, Mo., June 10.—The Mississippi flood, which began to recede after reaching a stage of 37.5 feet, began a rapid rise, establishing the highest official watermark ever recorded in St. Louis. The rise was rapid after the dawn of day, the water creeping up from 37.1 feet, steadily increasing until at noon the stage had reached 37.75 feet. From that time the river remained stationary.

What has caused the rise is problematical. Forecaster Bowie says the rise will be of short duration and the decline consequently will be rapid.

A report has been current all day that nine persons were drowned by the capsizing of a boat near the Madison railroad depot, but despite all efforts this report has not been confirmed.

It is estimated that 8,000 refugees have found shelter in St. Louis and vicinity. It is also estimated that 4,000 people are still living in flooded homes in Granite City, Venice and Madison. A supply boat has been outfitted and will make daily trips to relieve suffering.

The flood situation in East St. Louis is still critical. It was believed that the flood had been conquered, and work on the levees was stopped, but the additional rise caused work on the levees to be resumed and all business was abandoned once more.

The viaduct leading from East St Louis to the East bridge, which was a viewing point for thousands of people, was ordered closed, as it is believed the water has weakened the abutments and rendered the bridge dangerous. Trains crossing the Eads bridge must stop at the relay station and passengers are taken by boat to land and transported to places where waiting trains can be boarded.

Reports are received constantly that river thieves are continuing to loot submerged houses of the three stricken cities north of East St. Louis.

Reports indicate that both the Missouri and Mississippi rivers are falling above here. Heavy winds probably had much to do with forcing backwater from lowlands into the channel and helped to cause the rise. For this reason it is believed that the flood crisis is over and a steady decline will continue until normal conditions prevail once more.

Word was received here at 2:10 o'clock that the water is rushing into East St. Louis from the southside in a torrent and people are fleeing for their lives The heavy pressure that tore away the Illinois Central embankment swept other barriers aside and flowed on in a torrent into the southern portion of the city. There is no means of communication except by telephone, and the excitement is so great that little can be learned.

DARING AND DASTARDLY CRIME

Three Men Held Up By Three Highwaymen, Who Shot and Robbed Two of Them.

Wilkesbarre, June 10.—One of the most daring and dastardly crimes ever perpetrated in this city took place in the southern part of the town. Three men, all delegates to the Staats Verband convention of German Catholic societies, in session here, were walking from Memorial hall toward the hotel where the Altoona delegation were stopping. They were John Baltes, of this city, Benedict Kressler and John Weidman, the latter from Altoona. Just before they reached their hotel they were held up by three highwaymen, who shot and robbed Baltes and Kressler, Weidman escaping without injury. Baltes was shot twice in the abdomen and was removed to the Mercy hospital, where he died. Kressler, who was shot in the calf of the right leg, was cared for by the police and was removed to his hotel, where he is getting along nicely.

A suspect was arrested, who gave his name as George Stroh, of Pittston. Later this afternoon it turns out that he is John Plunkett, of that city. He is being held for further investigation. The county commissioners will meet to-morrow and offer a large reward for the apprehension of the assassins.

Shot for Refusing to Halt.

Kansas City, Mo., June 10.—For refusing to obey the command to halt, Albert Hurley was shot and mortally wounded by John Maloney, a member of Company A, Sixth United States infantry, who was doing guard duty in Kansas City, Kas., where a mild form of martial law has been in force since the flood.

Relief for Flood Sufferers.

Topeka, Kan., June 10.—It is expected that a special session of the Kansas legislature will be called to pass bills for the relief of the flood sufferers. Word has been received from 25 members of the legislature promising to serve without pay. Nearly $60,000 is now in the flood relief.

MONEY AT AUCTION

In the year 1864 the citizens of Salineville and the farmers of the surrounding neighborhood started a subscription for the purpose of bringing home and burying their soldier dead and erecting a suitable monument to their memory. A large sum was subscribed, but the project was permitted to lag and only about $90 was paid in. Frank Rogers was appointed custodian of this fund. Some $50 was expended in the bringing home and burial of dead soldiers. The remainder of the subscription was kept by the treasurer in a sealed envelope, just as it had been paid to him, until a few days ago, when it was turned over to the Grand Army of the Republic post of that village.

The different pieces of money which had been donated by citizens, almost all of whom have since died, were sold at auction and the proceeds will be applied to the soldiers' monument, the erection of which is again being agitated.

Improvements Delayed.

Cleveland, June 10.—F. D. Underwood, of the Erie railroad, who was in this city, said that because of the scarcity of labor extensive improvements to be made on that road cannot be started before fall. Regarding the probable changing of the route of the road so as to put this city on the main line of the Erie road, Mr. Underwood said that the matter was under consideration, and that surveyors are going over the ground.

RAILROAD COLLISION

COLLIDES WITH LOCAL FREIGHT

Every Effort of the Crew to Retard the Speed of the Train Was of No Avail — Three Were Killed and Three Injured.

Altoona, Pa., June 10.—Control of a southbound heavily loaded freight train was lost on its descent down the Allegheny mountains on the Tyrone division of the Pennsylvania railroad when going at a high rate of speed at Fowelton station, three miles east of Philipsburg. It crashed with fearful velocity into a local freight train Three men were killed and three seriously injured

The dead—Jacob Bolger, engineer, Tyrone; Andrew Friday, brakeman, Tyrone; Robert Wilson, brakeman, Curwensville. The injured — Oelig Burley, engineer; Earl White, fireman; Harry Edwards, brakeman. The three latter are all residents of Tyrone. The runaway train had three engines, but the two leading engines had been cut loose and the pushing engine was unable to hold the heavy train. Every effort of the crew to retard the speed of the train in its wild dash was of no avail.

When the local freight was overtaken there came a terrific crash and a dozen or more cars were smashed to splinters. In one of the cars of the local freight were 25 mules. Most of them were killed, while a few escaped with severe injuries. Their shrieks could be plainly heard above the noise of the wreck. The accident occurred on a sharp curve during a severe rain storm and the local freight crew had no opportunity of seeing the approaching runaway.

Trial of Robert A. Ammon.

New York, June 10.—Two jurors were selected to take the places of the two withdrawn, for the trial of Robert A. Ammon, former attorney for the Franklin syndicate, and the trial proceeded. In his opening address the assistant district attorney said it would be shown that before going to Canada, Miller, the ostensible head of the syndicate, turned over to Ammon $195,000. Miller, who is serving a term in Sing Sing for the part he took in the operations of the Franklin syndicate, was on the stand during the day. He gave evidence as to the organization and operation of the syndicate. Ammon's alleged connection with the syndicate had not been mentioned when adjournment for the day was reached.

Shot Himself Through the Heart.

Shoals, Ind., June 10. — Arthur Lyons, the slayer of his stepmother, who has been a fugitive from justice for several days in this county, pursued by a posse of several hundred shot himself through the heart as he stood hemmed in on every side by a band of enraged farmers. The members of the posse were within 20 feet of him before he fired. Young Lyons was driven from the woods by the posse and in an instant was the target for a dozen guns. He returned the fire and made his escape round a turn in the road. Later he was overtaken, and ,turning toward his pursuers, who were but a short distance behind, he shot himself through the heart.

Spurs for Archie Roosevelt.

Deadwood, S. D., June 10.—Capt. Seth Bullock, of Deadwood, has ordered as a present for Archie Roosevelt, third son of President Roosevelt, a handsome pair of cowboy's spurs made on special order. They are handmade, and represent the highest skill in forging and finishing. They are of the regulation cowboy pattern, with drop shank, large rowels and locks with wide hand stamped russet leather straps and gold conchas. The spurs are silver-mounted and chased with an artistic design. The boy for whom they are intended rode much with Captain Bullock when the latter was in Washington.

Fugitive from Justice.

Chicago, June 10.—Herman B. Wickersham, former president of the Lincoln Park board, is a fugitive from justice. His bonds in each of six cases were declared forfeited. Wickersham is under indictment for larceny, embezzlement, and for obtaining money by false pretenses. His methods are said to have been to secure money from persons whom he represented for investment in mortgages, which money he secured by worthless deeds and mortgages with himself named as trustee and acting as counsel for the investor. Nearly 50,000 is alleged to have been thus misused by him.

Articles of Incorporation Filed.

Washington, June 10.—The American and Mexican Smelting and Refining company filed articles of incorporation here. Its capital is $30,000,000. The incorporators are O. S. Lee, N. C. Clark and Edwin Christy. The company is empowered to own, lease and operate mines. The main office will be in New York city and branch offices will be established throughout the west. E. R. Holden, of New York, formerly of Colorado, probably will be the general manager of the new corporation.

Another club woman, Mrs. Haule, of Edgerton, Wis., tells how she was cured of irregularities and uterine trouble, terrible pains and backache by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

"A while ago my health began to fail because of female troubles. The doctor did not help me. I remembered that my mother had used Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound on many occasions for irregularities and uterine troubles, and I felt sure that it could not harm me at any rate to give it a trial.

"I was certainly glad to find that within a week I felt much better, the terrible pains in my back and side were beginning to cease, and at the time of menstruation I did not have nearly as serious a time as heretofore, so I continued its use for two months, and at the end of that time I was like a new woman. I really have never felt better in my life, have not had a sick headache since, and weigh 20 pounds more than I ever did, so I unhesitatingly recommend Vegetable Compound."—Mrs. May Haule, Edgerton, Wis., President Household Economics Club. — $5000 forfeit if original of above letter proving genuineness cannot be produced.

Women should remember there is one tried and true remedy for all female ills, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Refuse to buy any other medicine, you need the best.

ON HIS JOURNEY TO CLEVELAND

Everything Going Smoothly and Indications Are That the Train Will Be On Time.

York, Pa., June 10.—President Roosevelt passed through York on a special train, en route for Cleveland, where he will attend the Hanna-McCormick wedding. The train passed slowly through the city and at every crossing he was greeted by crowds of people and heartily cheered. The President appeared on the platform of the rear coach, and waved his hand to the crowds.

Harrisburg, June 10. — The President's train arrived at Harrisburg at 7:40, and during a five minutes' wait the engine and crews were changed. When the train pulled into the station the President was seated in the rear of the last coach reading a book. A small crowd quickly gathered on the otuside and applauded. Mr. Roosevelt laid down his book and walked out onto the platform. "Good evening, ladies and gentlemen," he said, "I am glad to be with you once again. It is a great pleasure, I assure you."

Altoona, June 10.—President Roosevelt's special train en route to Cleveland, arrived at 11:30. The train consists of a combination baggage car, the Pullman sleeper, "Texas," and Pullman drawing-room car, "Elysian." On account of the lateness of the hour only a small crowd gathered at the station. The President is accompanied by his daughter, Miss Alice, Commander Cowles, Private Secretary Loeb and two detectives. So far the trip was uneventful.

Will Rely on the Police.

Cleveland, June 10.—None of the relatives of Leon Czolgoscz, the assassin of President McKinley, will be placed in jail during President Roosevelt's visit to Cleveland to attend the marriage of Miss Ruth Hanna, daughter of Senator M. A. Hanna, to Joseph Medill McCormick. While the President was on his western tour a brother of the assassin was placed in jail in Los Angeles, as a precautionary step in the interest of the President's welfare. The Cleveland police think this step is unnecessary here, but members of the Czolgoscz family will be kept under close surveillance during the President's stay.

Destructive Fire at Palm Beach.

West Palm Beach, Fla., June 10.—At 11:30 The Breakers, the smaller of the two largest hotels at Palm Beach, was seen to be in flames. The hotel building, power house, Cory's block of stores, the Casino, south of the hotel, and one of the large cottages north of the hotel were destroyed. Some furniture from the hotel was saved, but it was badly damaged. The losses are: The Breakers, $500,000; furniture, $200,000; Casino, cottage and Cory block, about $25,000. Other losses are about $5,000. The hotel was insured for $300,000.

Cured His Mother of Rheumatism.

"My mother has been a sufferer for many years with rheumatism," says W. H. Howard, of Husband, Pa. "At times she was unable to move at all, while at all times walking was painful. I presented her with a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm and after a few applications she decided it was the most wonderful pain reliever she had ever tried, in fact, she is never without it now and is at all times able to walk. An occasional application of Pain Balm keeps away the pain that she was formerly troubled with." For sale by Alvin & Bulger.

A wedding of interest to many East Liverpool citizens took place at Nashville, Tenn., when Miss Parthenia Calhoon, of this city, and Mr. Albert M. Bailey, of Memphis, were married June 3. Miss Calhoon was prominent in the social circles of this city previous to her departure for Bowling Green, Ky., where she was taking a course in music at Potter Female college. The marriage was quite a society event at Nashville, as the ceremony was both romantic and pretty. In the presence of a number of friends the ceremony was performed by Rev. J. H. Early, pastor of the State street Methodist church. The bride wore an elaborate gown of white crepe de chine over taffeta silk. An elegant decoration and trimming of tucks and spider web lace were used as an embellishment for the gown. The bride carried a shower bouquet of white carnations and lilies of the valley.

Mr. Bailey is an active young business man of Memphis and is connected with the firm of J. C. McCrory & Co. The couple were given a reception following the ceremony.

Wedding at Sebring.

A quiet wedding occurred at the home of Rev. and Mrs. C. W. Huffer in Sebring, their daughter, Miss Iva, being married to Joseph May, of East Liverpool, only a few of the immediate friends of the family being present to witness the ceremony. The nuptials were pronounced at high noon, the bride's father officiating. Both are popular young people, the bride being a lady of refinement and culture, and the groom a bookkeeper in one of the local potteries. The happy couple left for a brief wedding visit with friends, after which they will take up their home in this city.

Birthday Party.

Miss Ruby Alice Wase, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Wase, this evening will give an elaborate entertainment to about 20 of her friends at her home at 115 Spring street, in celebration of her fourteenth birthday. The hours will be from 7:30 to 10:30. Progressive peanuts and a donkey contest will occupy most of the time.

A Delightful Outing.

Mrs. S. E. Fisher delightfully entertained her Sunday school class of the First Presbyterian church at her home near Pleasant Heights yesterday afternoon and evening. The scholars visited the woods near by for wild flowers, after which a dainty luncheon was served.

Nearly all who were present at the Y. M. C. A. ladies' auxiliary meeting yesterday afternoon expressed a wish to join the physical culture class. It will start with 50 members, with a prospect of a large increase.

Embroidery Circle Met.

The Embroidery Circle of St. Stephen's church held an important business meeting last evening in the parish house. The attendance was good and enthusiasm not lacking.

Lisbon, June 10.—(Special.)—The Hartley will case of Salineville was in progress when court adjourned last evening. Several of the plaintiff's witnesses were examined yesterday afternoon, the plaintiff's attorney endeavoring to show that the deceased, Abraham Hartley, had destroyed his will some time before his death with the intention of revoking it, thus revoking that which was probated. Miss Lena Hartley, the plaintiff and principal witness in the case, was on the stand and said she went to make her home with her father at his request two or three years before his death. She said his last will was written by Attorney Moore, of Salineville, and that her father kept it in a desk from which he frequently took it and had her read it to him.

One day, three or four weeks before his death, she said her father declared his intention of burning a lot of documents that he had already kept too long, as he expressed it, and she saw them thrown upon the grate fire and destroyed. The day after the funeral she said she examined the papers in his desk, and the will was not there.

It seems that the defendants in this case were not blood relatives of the deceased, and his children feel that he rued his determination to make two of them the executors of his will and heirs to a large part of his estate, and therefore destroyed the document.

Conference Was Fruitless.

In accordance with the order given the grievance committee at the last meeting of Trades Council, the members of that body met with the painters and Contractor Dinerstein last night, but very little was accomplished. Both sides were heard by the committee, and when the conference had ended there was little to relate. Dinerstein asserts that he is in need of men, but will not hire any of the painters not idle. He says they are not competent, and the journeymen maintain that the contractor does not stand in need of workmen at all.

FEDERAL UNION HAS BEEN FORMED

Labor Organization Much Needed in the City Has Been Launched.

Organizer Charles Kontnier last night formed the organization to be known as the Federal Union of East Liverpool. The gentleman has been at work on the project for some time, and has refrained from doing anything toward instituting the union until everything was in readiness. It was feared that hasty action would spoil the prospects of the new organization. Since the union will be composed wholly of laborers and will be made up of workmen from every vocation, it was necessary that all classes of men be interested before the move was made.

The need of an organization of this character has long been felt in the city; for, in case of trouble or disputes in any of the regular trades unions, it has heretofore been a difficult matter to control the laborers. The list of officers is not made public for certain reasons, and will not be given out for a week at least.

Animals Becoming Extinct.

Every century sees several species of animal becoming extinct. In the race for life the weak must yield to the strong, and because they are persistently sought for food or for feathers not only individuals but whole families cease to exist. The disappearance of the great auk can be laid to the nineteenth century. It became extinct on the American side of the Atlantic about 1840 and in Europe about 1844. The South African quagga disappeared about 1870 owing to the slaughter by hide hunters. The twin shelled tortoise of the Galapagos islands became extinct in all probability about 1875. The black emu of South Australia was also exterminated during the century, though it was abundant in 1863. The great cormorant was last seen alive about 1830, and many other species of birds from all parts of the world have likewise been exterminated. In the Danish West India islands, for example, out of fourteen species catalogued in 1795 only six still exist, and a similar history can be told of many other localities.

Shelley Liked Bread.

The poet Shelley was very simple in his tastes and found his chief pleasure in long, solitary rambles. Bread became his chief sustenance when his regimen attained to that austerity which afterward distinguished it. He could have lived on bread alone without repining.

"Do you know," he said one day to a friend, with much surprise, "that Mr. G. does not like bread? Did you ever know a person who disliked bread?" His friend explained to him that Mr. G. probably had no objection to bread in moderate quantity at a proper time and with the usual adjuncts and was only unwilling to devour several pounds of dry bread at a meal.

Shelley had no such objection; his pockets were generally well stored with bread. Sometimes he ate with his bread the common raisins which he bought at small grocers' shops.

Sea Serpents Breathe Air.

Like all other serpents, the sea serpents, though permanently inhabiting the sea, are air breathers. The lateral flattening of their tails greatly helps them to swim in any direction, and it specially enables them to rise rapidly to the surface of the water to breathe. That they may do this the more easily and securely their nostrils are placed at the very end of the muzzle and are furnished with valves, which secure them from being entered by the water in which they live.

Unlike other snakes, they cast their skins in small pieces. Their eyes are not adapted to see well out of water, and thus they cannot when in the air take a good aim to bite. They feed on small fishes, which they paralyze by means of their poison, and thus they have nothing to fear from the spines of the fishes they eat.

Mimickry In Caterpillars.

A very large caterpillar stretched itself from the foliage of a tree which I was examining and startled me by its resemblance to a small snake. The first three segments behind the head were dilatable at the will of the insect and had on each side a large black pupillated spot, which resembled the eye of the snake. It was a poisonous or viperine species mimicked and not an innocuous snake. This was proved by the imitation of keeled scales on the crown, which was produced by the recumbent hair as the caterpillar threw itself backward. I carried off the caterpillar and alarmed every one in the village where I was then living to whom I showed it.—"Records of a Naturalist In the Amazon."

Two Tales of Truffled Turkeys.

The Abbe Morelet was accustomed to say: "There needs be two to eat a truffled turkey. I never do otherwise. I have one today. We will be two—the turkey and myself."

The archbishop of Sanzai was another truffled turkey lover. His grand vicar had lost a turkey to him on a bet and delayed paying up because, as he alleged, "truffles were bad that year."

"Bah! Bah!" said the archbishop. "We will chance the truffles. This is a false report that has been circulated by the turkeys."—"The Pleasures of the Table," by G. H. Ellwanger.

Toilet of the Cat.

A Chinaman's Smoke.

In Persia and in Japan pipes about the size of a baby's thimble are used, providing two draws, a great waste of time. It is the Chinaman, however, who in smoking gets endless work out of practically nothing at all.

He carries a little box about twice the size of an ordinary silver cigarette case. This is half filled with water. In one end is a removable tiny tube to serve as pipe. At the other end is the pipestem. First of all, he removes the tube and blows through it to remove all blockage. Then he fumbles through his awkward clothes, searching for tobacco and produces a bit of rag in which it is wrapped.

Carefully he extracts a wad of tobacco, puts away his rag and slowly plugs the tube, which holds perhaps the tenth part of an ordinary cigarette. But he never has any matches.

So he has to borrow or hunt out a brown paper stem and light it—it glows for a long time and can be puffed into flame again—he gives a long draw; slowly, appreciatively, the smoke oozes from between his Celestial lips; he spits; he draws again and gets small result. The smoke is over. He removes the tube, blows through it, and the proceeding begins all over again.

The Heart.

The human heart is practically a force pump about six inches in length and four inches in diameter. It beats 70 times per minute, 4,200 times per hour, 100,800 times per day and 36,792,000 times per year and 2,575,440,000 times in seventy years, which is "man's appointed threescore years and ten." At each of these beats it forces 2½ ounces of blood through the system, 175 ounces per minute, 656¼ pounds per hour or 703 tons per day. All the blood in the body, which is about thirty pounds, passes through the heart every three minutes. This little organ pumps every day what is equal to lifting 122 tons one foot high or one ton 122 feet high—that is, one ton to the top of a forty yard mill chimney or sixteen persons seven score each to the same height. During the seventy years of a man's life this marvelous little pump, without a single moment's rest, night or day, discharges the enormous quantity of 178,850 tons of blood.

All Were Prostrated and One So Badly Injured That His Life Is Despaired Of.

A DESTRUCTIVE STORM NEAR HOOKSTOWN

A destructive thunder storm visited the vicinity of Hookstown yesterday, creating havoc with the crops and resulting in injuries likely to cause the death of one man.

The storm gathered about 3 o'clock in the afternoon, and broke forth with all the fury of a western cyclone. The rain came down in torrents, and the lightning was the sharpest ever seen by the oldest residents. The storm was severest in the immediate vicinity of McCreary postoffice, where a large force of men were working the roads. Six workmen were in one party, and they were handling a road scraper to which several teams of horses were hitched.

The road workers had not noticed the approach of the storm, and were not prepared for it. At the very outbreak of the tempest a bolt of lightning struck the scraper, reducing it to scrap iron.

Wilbur McCullough was driving the horses, and was near the scraper when it was struck. He was knocked to the ground and rendered unconscious, while the remainder of the party were so severely shocked that they had to be assisted from the scene. When McCullough was picked up it was thought he was dead, but after a doctor, who was hastily summoned had made an examination, it was discovered that a spark of life still remained. Since then every effort has been made to revive him, but he remains in an unconscious condition, and will likely die.

One of the horses was killed outright, and the others rendered helpless by the shock. The other members of the party of workmen are all very ill today, and it will be some time before they have entirely recovered from their thrilling experience.

McCullough is a married man and has several small children. The family has the sympathy of the entire community, since the unusual occurrence, if it results fatally, will leave the wife in bad circumstances. The news was a severe shock to the friends and relatives of the McCulloughs at Chester, where they are well and favorably known.

THE BREAKING LEVEES THREATEN DESTRUCTION

St. Louis, June 10.—(Special.)—Confronted by perils as great as threatened the people of Johnstown when the South Fork dam broke a few years ago, the residents of East St. Louis are in a state of panic and terror. Already scores of people have been drowned. It is impossible to estimate the exact number of victims, but it is reliably stated that fully 50 people are known to have met death in this way.

At noon today the conditions were more terrifying and alarming than ever. Water was rushing through half a dozen breaks in the levee, and it was thought that the utmost endeavor would be powerless to prevent the complete destruction of the embankment.

The city of East St. Louis is now nearly all under water, and at the present rate of rise will be totally submerged by evening. The governor has been appealed to for troops to protect property and a prompt response is anticipated.

Organized bands are doing their utmost to save life and property, but it looks as though human efforts would be largely unavailing, and that one of the gravest calamities recorded in recent American history would be the result.

BONDS MAY BE ISSUED BY VOTE OF THE COUNCIL WITHOUT ANY ELECTION

From present indications there will be a bond issue whether the people vote for it or not. Council last evening practically decided to adopt a recommendation made by Solicitor George E. Davidson, which gives the body the lawful right to issue bonds upon a two-thirds vote, when the issue is to extend time of payment of debts already existing.

Solicitor Davidson stated that he and J. J. Purinton, of the tax commission, had thoroughly investigated the sections of the code pertaining to the issuing of bonds and that they had found it to be unnecessary to submit the matter to the people. Previous action taken on the question was under the Longworth act, which provides for a popular vote. The solicitor argued that to carry out the plan as commenced the city will be put to an entirely unnecessary expense. The plan provides for the advertising of each fund separately and for a separate vote for each. The section under which the solicitor advises an issuance reads as follows:

"The trustees or council of any municipal corporation, for the purpose of extending the time of payment of any indebtendenss which, from its limits of taxation, such corporation is unable to pay at maturity, or when it appears to the said trustees or council for the best interest of the said municipal corporation, shall have power to issue bonds of such corporation or borrow money so as to change but not to increase the indebtedness in such amounts or for such length of time and at such rate of interest as the council may deem proper, not to exceed the rate of 6 per cent per annum, payable annually or sefi-annually; provided, however, that no indebtedness of any municipal corporation should be funded, refunded or extended unless such indebtedness shall first be determined to be an existing, valid and binding obligation of any such municipal corporation by a formal resolution of the trustees or council of such municipal corporation, which resolution shall also state the amount of the existing indebtedness to be funded, refunded or extended, the aggregate amount of the bonds to be issued therefor, their number and denomination, the date of maturity, the rate of interest they shall bear and the place of payment of principal and interest."

MAN WHO WORKS AT TWO TRADES

QUEER CASE INVESTICATED

A peculiar condition exists in the ranks of the East Liverpool division No. 52, Amalgamated Association of Street Railway Employes, and an investigation by the officials has to the present only served to make matters worse.

Charles Heidrick came to East Liverpool some time ago and was admitted to membership in the street railway men's union. He has been known, the members say, as a very peculiar individual, and no one has been able to get next to him in a satisfactory manner. The case in question is best told by the members of the union, who said:

"When the matter first came to our attention we were informed that the man had taken the contract for painting a house in the east end of the city, and it was such an unusual occurrence that we determined to investigate. The business agent of the painters' union was informed and promised to look the matter up. Yesterday morning this individual went to the house and found Heidrick hard at work. He was asked if he thought it was altogether proper for him to be engaged at two trades when the painters were on strike. He informed the walking delegate that he did not care what his own local or the painters said; he proposed to go ahead with the work in hand. After obtaining a statement from Heidrick the agent lost no time in informing the officers of my union and an investigation was at once set on foot. The painter-motorman would make no defense, and it is likely that he will be deprived of his membership in our organization."

When seen Heidrick said the work on which he was engaged was a contract job, and being outside the state, the local painters had no jurisdiction. A special meeting of the street car men's union may be called to take action in Heidrick's case, but it may be left off until the regular meeting. In any case, the condition is one of the most peculiar the organization has had to deal with since its institution, and several of the officers are at a loss to know just what to do. It is likely Heidrick will be expelled from the union for conduct unbecoming a member of the union.

Representatives of Local Firms Go to the Seaside for Consultation.

Representatives of local pottery firms to the number of 25 left this afternoon on a special Pullman car attached to the 4 o'clock east bound train, for Atlantic City, N. J., where the semi-annual meeting of the Western Manufacturing Potters' association is to be held, commencing tomorrow. Representatives of other potteries in the western district will join the party enroute.

The manufacturers will doubtless take up the demands of the operatives, sanctioned by the national convention at Wheeling, though several members of the association, when approached by a News Review reporter this afternoon, refused to discuss the objects of the meeting

It is generally conceded, however, that the usual committee to confer with a committee from the Brotherhood will be appointed and a harmonious outcome is predicted. It is reported that the western manufacturers will confer with those in the east on matters of interest to the trade. The demands of the sanitary operatives will be considered separately and by different committees and will have no bearing on the general ware operatives and manufacturers.

CITY HIGH SCHOOL IN FIRST GRADE

High Compliment to East Liverpool By State University Visitor.

The city school is placed by the university in the first grade and hereafter its graduates will be received without examination into the colleges of arts, philosophy and science, where 15 units are required. This grading places East Liverpool among the foremost of the high schools of the state.

People living on Franklin avenue were up in arms and justly indignant over the action of a well known man, who cruelly whipped a team of horses that he was driving up the thoroughfare this morning. The horses are fine appearing animals and were hauling an immense load. In some manner they tripped and fell down. The brutal man ran to some boys that were playing ball and seizing one of their bats went back to the horses and commenced beating them in a most barbarous manner.

A lady spectator fainted at the cruel sight and numerous others were nearly prostrated. A man passing by interfered and the degenerated driver turned upon him with the bat. It is said that the driver has done the same thing upon several occasions and the residents of the city have announced the intention of having him arrested.

CONGRESSMAN GILL BUYS A NEWSPAPER

Columbus, June 10.—Announcement has been made of the sale of the Dispatch, one of the oldest and best paying papers in Columbus, to the Dispatch Printing company, a corporation organized under the laws of Ohio, with a capital stock of $300,000. Congressman J. J. Gill, of Steubenville, owns a controlling interest in the company. Mr. Gill tried to purchase the Ohio State Journal, of this city, several months ago, when the property changed hands. It is stated he has been endeavoring for some time to secure a newspaper at the state capital as a means, it is surmised, of furthering his candidacy for governor.

Governor Nash has dismissed the charges brought to oust Mayor Charles Boach, Democrat, of Hamilton. Malfeasance in office was alleged, it being claimed the mayor was short something over $500 in his accounts. The latter claims that he remitted the amount alleged to be a shortage in fines and that not one cent of it went into his pockets. The governor threw out the case on the ground that the acts complained against did not occur since the code became effective. Mayor Boach is now serving his sixth term as mayor. The charges were filed by a faction which failed to defeat him. The governor has found that though the code empowers him to suspend or remove mayors, it gives him no authority to summon witnesses or have them sworn.

The result of the state bar examination nation was announced Tuesday evening. Out of a class of 275 applicants all passed but 39. One lady took the examination and was successful—Miss Ragan, of Napoleon. A large number of eastern Ohio applicants passed, among them being the following from Columbiana county: Loren B. Harris, of Salem; Clyde Brown Kenty, of Lisbon; William O'Grady, of Wellsville; Irving Holland Randolph, of Winona, and Charles F. Smith, of Salem. Those who passed will be sworn in by the supreme court this week.

The supreme court, in two decisions handed down yesterday, sustains the constitutionality of the law providing for the centralization of township school districts. The question was raised in Trumbull county.

Fined $1 And Costs.

James Hayes, arrested last evening by Officer Woods for being drunk, was arraigned this morning and pleading guilty to the charge was fined $1 and costs. He paid the amount and was released.

LABOR DAY PICNIC BEING ARRANGED FOR

The Labor day picnic committee of Trades and Labor Council held a meeting last night and a vast amount of work was attended to pertaining to the picnic which is to be held at Rock Springs in Septemoer.

The committee has succeeded in securing a permanent headquarters and will meet in the Potters' Herald office every Monday evening or oftener if the members deem it necessary. Preparations for the annual outing of the unionists of the city will be pushed from now on, and the committee will be very busy directing the work.

It is the intention to appoint subcommittees within a few days whose duty it will be to aid the general body. A program and printing committee was appointed at the meeting and will be composed of Charles Kontnier, Fred Pennington and Thomas Collins. A committee on sports was also appointed and will be made up of P. J. McKeone and John Reark. This is one of the most important departments of the celebration. Realizing this fact the general committee has resolved to begin work at once.

The sports committee promise a number of entirely new features in the sports line, and in order that the features may be properly handled a number of other members of Trades Council will be added to the committee.

Wounded Frank P. Nuzum Continues to Linger Between Life And Death.

Lisbon, June 10.—(Special.)—Frank P. Nuzum, the Elkton wounded man, is making a remarkable fight for life, although his case seemed a hopeless one from the start. He is reported to be very weak today, however, and his head is said to be affected.

The septic conditions of the wound, which recently made necessary the insertion of drainage tubes, seems to have been overcome and it is again healing.

Arbiters Not Necessary.

Kilnmen's local No. 9 held a special meeting last night to take action in regard to a dispute that had arisen at the C. C. Thompson plant over placing yellow ware in the bisque. After some discussion President Neal appointed the following committee to confer with the firm: Thomas Collins, Lyman Earl and Thomas Hodge. The firm receded from the position it had taken in the matter this morning and the services of the arbiters were not necessary.

News and Notes About The Potteries

THE EXPOSITION PLANT.

S. A. Weller, a manufacturer of art ware at Zanesville, will erect a $30,000 reproduction of his mammoth pottery plant on the Louisiana Purchase fair grounds at St. Louis, which he will operate during the life of that, the greatest exposition the universe has ever known. This announcement is made semi-officially and only lacks the signing of the contract to make the matter positively binding, most of the preliminary details having been gone over by the fair management.

Mr. Weller has stated that he had not actually signed the contract; that there yet remained some important details to be considered in closing before the papers would be graced by signatures, but that the coming ten days would suffice to settle all details. It has been the policy of the exposition people to grant but one such privilege; that is to say, there will be but one art ware factory on the grounds, and in getting together with Mr. Weller all other potteries of the Weller character are effectually shut out. It will therefore become patent that the Zanesville concern will have a clear field, and one can readily imagine the thousands of pieces of Dickens, Louelsa, Lonhuda and French productions that will be carried from the St. Louis grounds as souvenirs.

Mr. Weller anticipates taking a complete force of people from the kilnmen and jiggermen to the high priced artist to the exposition factory, to turn out ware as rapidly as possible, during all the time that the fair is in progress.

DELAY IN STARTING.

It is not likely that the Union plant, which has been undergoing a change from a line of scheme to general ware, will resume operations in full until after the mid-summer loaf. It has been given out, unofficially, that the clay hands will not be started until that time. The changes have taken longer than was at first thought and the plant could not be placed in readiness for the new line in time to accomplish much before the holiday season. Part of the operatives have been putting in a few days, finishing up the odds and ends of the ware that was in process of manufacture when the alterations were commenced.

DIED FROM BURNS.

Carl Smith, aged 23 years, is dead from the result of burns received a short time ago while making his escape from his burning home in Sebring, where he was employed as a shipping clerk with the Sebring Pottery company. At one time he was employed as a pottery salesman and was well known in this city. He was a popular young man and had hosts of friends in the western pottery district.

MAY HAVE BEEN KILLED.

One of the two homing pigeons sent to St. Louis, Mo., several days ago by Teddy McDermott, arrived home Monday morning in good time. The other one failed to appear and it may be that it was caught in the heavy wind and rain and killed.

WILL VISIT TIFFIN.

C. C. Smith, of the glost kiln crew at the Sevres, accompanied by his wife, will leave in a few days for Tiffin, O., to witness the commencement exercises of the high school of that city. Mr. Smith's brother, Grover C. Smith, is one of the graduates, and won the honor of being the valedictorian of the class. Mr. Smith will return shortly, while Mrs. Smith will remain a month with relatives.

GIBBS IMPROVING.

John Gibbs, bench boss of the glost kiln crew at Cartwright's, who has been seriously ill for the past month with typhoid fever, is recovering, much to the satisfaction of his many friends at the plant and over town. He was able yesterday to visit the plant for the first time since his illness and was given a hearty welcome. It will be a week or more until he is able to resume his duties.

HERRON "HOODOOED."

Will Herron, a gilder employed at Laughlin No. 2, seems to be "hoodooed" when playing ball. Within the last two years he has had his arm broken twice while playing foot ball and at present is laid up for repairs on account of a broken finger received while playing base ball last week. He will be unable to work for about three weeks.

PRESSERS WORKING AGAIN.

The pressers at the Sevres, who have been laid off for the past week because there was no work, went on again yesterday and have orders enough ahead to keep them busy until the mid-summer loaf. Basil Vogle, of the biscuit kiln crew, who has been idle for the same reason, also returned to work yesterday.

IN A TRANCE.

MORGAN DOING WELL.

Word has been received by friends in this city from George Morgan, formerly a kilnman at the Klondike, who went to California a short time ago for the benefit of his health, that he is doing well and improving. This will be cheering news to his many friends.

AMONG THE WORKMEN.

Fred Pennington and Pete Devine, of the packing department at the Sevres, were among those who took in the excursion to New Castle yesterday.

William Hesketh, boss packer at the Oliver, Sebring, has resigned his position and is undecided as to what he will engage in for the future. His successor has not been named.

Charles Kennedy, decorating kilnman at the Sevres, was seized with an attack of cramps yesterday morning while at work and was compelled to quit work. He is all right again today.

IF YOU HAVE PAIN IN YOUR BACK

Do Not Be Deceived. You have Kidney Trouble, and You Do Not Need a Physician to Tell You So.

Pain in the back is an almost infallible sign of kidney disease; a surer sign is the condition of your urine. If you have a pain in the back, then look to the condition of your urine. It is easily done. Take a glass or tumbler and fill it with urine; after it has stood 24 hours, if it has a sediment, if it is milky or cloudy, if it is pale or discolored, stringy or ropy, your kidneys and bladder are in a dangerous condition and need immediate attention, or the consequences may prove fatal. Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy is the one medicine that really cures all diseases of the kidneys, liver, bladder and blood, rheumatism, dyspepsia and chronic constipation, and it will take you but a short trial to convince yourself of its wonderful curative power.

G. F. Sammer of No. 409 Tioga street, Syracuse, N. Y., in a recent letter says:

"I was afflicted for years with severe pains in my back and kidneys. I tried many doctors and many medicines, but got no relief. I bought a bottle of Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy and it has entirely cured me."

It is for sale by all druggists in the New 50 Cent Size and the regular $1.00 size bottles—less than a cent a dose.

Sample bottle—enough for trial, free by mail.

Appeal Refused.

Parkersburg, W. Va., June 10.—An appeal has been refused Thomas Tucker, colored, condemned to be hanged for cutting the throat of a white companion.

Thousands Have Kidney Trouble and Don't Know it.

How To Find Out.

Fill a bottle or common glass with your water and let it stand twenty-four hours; a sediment or setting indicates an unhealthy condition of the kidneys; if it stains your linen it is evidence of kidney trouble; too frequent desire to pass it or pain in the back is also convincing proof that the kidneys and bladder are out of order.

What to Do.

There is comfort in the knowledge so often expressed, that Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy fulfills every wish in curing rheumatism, pain in the back, kidneys, liver, bladder and every part of the urinary passage. It corrects inability to hold water and scalding pain in passing it, or bad effects following use of liquor, wine or beer, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go often during the day, and to get up many times during the night. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases. If you need a medicine you should have the best. Sold by druggists in 50c. and $1. sizes.

You may have a sample bottle of this wonderful discovery and a book that tells more about it, both sent absolutely free by mail. Address Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. When writing mention reading this generous offer in this paper.

THE CARBAGE QUESTION

Was Taken Up And It Was Resolved to Make a Contract With Otto Schmidtbauer for Hauling — Mayor's Office May Receipts Large.

The meeting of council last evening was one of the most important held since the new body took the oath of office. The entire membership was present and under the leadership of President Horwell an unusually large amount of business was attended to in a very short time.

Auditor Davidson was called upon for the recommendations of the two boards as to the tax levy they deem necessary to run their respective departments for the fiscal year. The safety board submitted the following: For the fire department, 2.3, which is equivalent to $13,800; for the police department, .5, calling for $3,000. The board of public service recommended for the streets, 2.8, or $16,800; for the lighting, 2.1, or $12,600, and .5, or $3,000, for the sanitary fund. The engineer's salary, $2,000; the street commissioner's salary, $900, and the secretary of the board, $200, are included in the above.

The reports were not discussed, the members being of the belief that they were correct and they were turned over to the finance committee of council. After this committee passes upon them they will be submitted to the tax commission and will then be returned to council for final action.

The street committee reported their investigation made of the plat submitted by Melvin Smith for acceptance It was the decision of the committee that the plat should be rejected owing to the failure of Mr. Smith to meet the requirements of section 465. A motion was passed rejecting the plat

Mr. Bullock stated that he had found a provision in the code relative to the passing of an ordinance placing a restriction on vehicles, but had not time to determine upon a tax that should be assessed. He was instructed to have an ordinance ready by the next meeting.

Mayor Weaver's report showed that considerable business had been done by the police during the month of May. He had collected $303, for fines and licenses, not including the fines imposed on two saloonists, which would have increased the amount $100.

Chief Morley's report was as follows: Fire calls, 4; patrol calls, 54; ambulance calls, 7, making a total of 65. The total number hauled to the city hall was 73.

A petition was submitted by residents and property holders on Cadmus street asking that the street from Minerva street to the Morton addition be sewered and graded. The petition was referred to the street committee and city engineer.

Mr. Bullock consumed considerable time in advocating a remedy for the garbage nuisance from the standpoint of its disposal. He said that at the present time the residents of the city are unable to get garbage hauled from their premises and he recommended that something be done. The question was discussed generally and council finally decided to instruct the board of public service to make a contract with Otto Schmidtbauer for the hauling of all garbage. The reason expressed for giving the contract to Schmidtbauer was that he has the proper kind of wagons and that no one should be allowed to carry the filth unless they obtain beds for their wagons that will not leak. It was also thought advisable for the contractor to have his wagons supplied with coverings, in order that residents will not be compelled to inhale the disagreeable effluvia while the wagons go through the city.

Mr. Johnston introduced the question pertaining to the propriety of passing an ordinance making it necessary for every street in the city having established grade lines. The question was discussed at length. Numerous damage suits have been won owing to grade lines being established after a house has been erected and the opinion expressed by the members was that all new plats should have the grade established before accepted and that before a grade is established on a street where buildings are standing a petition signed by every property owner on the thoroughfare should be submitted asking for the grade.

Mr. Croxall insisted that to take action at the present time would be unfair and inconsistent, arguing that heretofore the owners of a plat were not required to have a grade established. The argument did not meet the approval of the remaining members, all being of the opinion that simply because old councils had made a mistake was no reason that the present body should continue in like manner. There was no definite action taken on the matter but it will be given final treatment at the next meeting.

Contractor Rinehart had notified one of the members that he intends to sue the city for the money alleged to be due him for doing certain paving last year. The members were not much frightened at the threat, it being shown that he had not done the work in accordance with the order of council and the city engineer.

Mr. Smith stated that the East Liverpool Railway company has abandoned a switch laid several years ago on Dewey avenue and Pennsylvania avenue in order that a gravel pit might be reached and it is now being an obstruction. He moved that the company be ordered to remove it. The motion was carried.

Mr. Barlow asserted that a sidewalk in front of the residence of a Mrs. Surles on Grant street is in a terrible condition and asked that she be ordered to repair it. The matter was referred to the board of public service.

ROCK RUN COMPANY FIRST WELL A DUSTER

Came in Yesterday With No Indications of Oil or Gas And Will Be Abandoned.

The first well drilled in on the holdings of the Rock Run Oil & Gas company in the Knoxville field proved to be a duster, and while the stockholders are a great deal disappointed, they are not discouraged, and other tests will be made. The hole was about 1,400 feet deep when the pay rock was reached yesterday afternoon, but there was no indication of either oil or gas.

Several hundred people watched the well come in, many of the spectators being farmers and land owners in the neighborhood. That oil was not found was a surprise to all. The well was located among other paying wells and from surface and topographical indications the prospects seemed bright. There was no "pay streak" in the rock, which was 47 feet through, and for this reason the well will not be shot.

A report was circulated in Toronto yesterday afternoon that a 100-barrel gusher had been struck and A. P. Ayler, who was in that city, brought the report to the East End, where it caused considerable excitement. A corresponding depression was noted when the true state of affairs became known.

SPEEDY RACE HORSES AT COLUMBIAN PARK

Interest in the string of fast horses, owned by Harrison Rinehart and Sam Groves and quartered in Columbian park, has been growing since the warm weather permits of sending the animal around the track at a fast clip. The morning turnouts are witnessed by a great many people.

Redmond, the horse with quite a local reputation, is showing up well this year, and Joan, a half sister to the famous Dan Patch, has been doing some fast half miles. Lady France, another one of Rinehart's fast ones, promises to clip a few seconds off her record this season. Tom Moffet and "Fatty" Fowler are Rinehart's trainers.

It is conceded by turfmen that Groves has a promising goer in Gentry, Jr. He has several others in his stable and they are being trained for an early start in the racing season. Mr. Groves and Ed Lounsford are doing the training.

Celebration Was Marred.

The anniversary celebrations at the Swan home on Ohio avenue yesterday were marred owing to the inability of several children and near relatives to be presnt, owing to illness. Mrs. J. P. Swan, of Canton, and Miss Pearl Swan. The day was quietly spent and a big family dinner was served.

Damaged by the Storms.

'Squire L. W. Carman has received a letter from his son, C. S. Carman, of Iowa, telling of the devastation wrought in his section by the terrible rain and windstorms of the past week. The crops of many of the farmers were entirely destroyed and their loss can hardly be calculated. Mr. Carman was fortunate in comparison to some of his neighbors, losing but 47 acres of oats and about 50 acres of corn.

Foot Painfully Burned.

Mrs. W. C. Bryan, of Erie street, had her right foot painfully scalded yesterday while attending to some household duties. Mrs. Bryan was assisting a neighbor lady in lifting a wash boiler-ful of boiling water when in some way the vessel overturned, the contents psilling upon her foot. She is suffering excruciating pain and will be laid up for a number of days.

"POOR DIGESTION, LANGUID AND TIRED."

[An Interesting Letter Concerning Pe-ru-na.]

Miss Della Janveau, Globe Hotel, Ottawa, Ont., is from one of the oldest and best known French Canadian families in Canada. In a recent letter to The Peruna Medicine Co., of Columbus, Ohio, she says:

"Last spring my blood seemed clogged up, my digestion poor, my head ached and I felt languid and tired all the time. My physician prescribed for me, but a friend advised me to try Peruna. I tried it and am pleased to state that I found it a wonderful cleanser and purifier of the system. In three weeks I was like a new woman, my appetite had increased, I felt buoyant, light and happy and without an ache or pain. Peruna is a reliable family medicine."

Adia Brittain, of Sekitan, O., writes: "After using your wonderful Peruna three months I have had great relief. I had continual heaviness in my stomach, was bilious, and had fainting spells, but they all have left me since using Peruna." —Adia Brittain.

If you do not derive prompt and satisfactory results from the use of Peruna, write at once to Dr. Hartman, giving a full statement of your case and he will be pleased to give you his valuable advice gratis.

THOUSANDS OF PYTHIANS AT M'KINLEY'S TOMB

Canton, June 10.—Three thousand or more Knights of Pythias, attending the 34th annual convention of the grand lodge of the Ohio domain, yesterday held the annual parade, which included a march and counter-march past the McKinley home, and a visit to the tomb of the late president Mrs. McKinley, with a small company of friends, viewed the column from the famous front porch. The marching knights approached the house with uncovered heads. They again uncovered their heads as they approached the tomb and the committee entered the vault to place the emblem of the order worked out in cut flowers on the casket.

Returning to the city the formal opening of the grand lodge occurred, Allen Cook, of the local committee, presiding. Welcoming addresses were delivered by Mayor W. H. Smith for the city, and by ex-Mayor James A. Rice, for the fraternal societies. The grand lodge degree was conferred. The afternoon was given over to an outing at Meyers' lake. In spite of showers and threatening weather the program of races, athletic contests etc., was carried out. The annual meeting of the past chancellors' association last night was followed by a banquet of that branch of the convention at Hotel McKinley Several hundred members of the grand temple of the Rathbone Sisters are also here.

Rheumatism

Most people have an idea that rheumatism is contracted like a cold, that the damp, chilly air penetrates the muscles and joints and causes the terrible aches and pains, or that it is something like a skin disease to be rubbed away with liniment or drawn out with plasters; but Rheumatism originates in the blood and is caused by Urea, or Uric Acid, an irritating, corroding poison that settles in muscles, joints and nerves, producing inflammation and soreness and the sharp, cutting pains peculiar to this distressing disease.

Exposure to bad weather or sudden chilling of the body will hasten an attack of Rheumatism after the blood and system are in the right condition for it to develop, but have nothing to do with the real true causes of Rheumatism, which are internal and not external.

Liniments, plasters and rubbing will sometimes reduce the inflammation and swelling and ease the pain for a time, but fail to relieve permanently because they do not reach the seat of the trouble. S. S. S. cures Rheumatism because it attacks it in the blood, and the Uric Acid poison is neutralized, the sluggish circulation stimulated and quickened, and soon the system is purified and cleansed, the aching muscles and joints are relieved of all irritating matter and a lasting cure of this most painful disease effected.

Bowling Green, Ky.

About a year ago I was attacked by acute rheumatism in my shoulders, arms and legs below the knee. I could not raise my arm to comb my hair. Doctors prescribed for me for over two months without giving me any relief. I saw S. S. S. advertised and decided to try it. Immediately I commenced its use I felt better, and remarked to mother that I was glad I had at last found some relief. I continued its use and am entirely well. I will always feel deeply interested in the success of S. S. S. since it did me so much good.

BLOOD POISON

On account of its terrible effects, blood disease is called the king of all diseases. It may be either hereditary or contracted; so while it may not be a crime to have the disease, it is a crime to permit it to remain in the system. It may manifest itself in the form of Scrofula, Eczema, rheumatic pains, stiff or swollen joints, itchiness of the skin, eruptions or blotches, ulcers in the mouth or on the tongue, sore throat, falling out of hair, disordered stomach, and a general depression of the system. If you have any of these symptoms don't neglect yourself. You have no time to lose. Beware of "old fogy" treatment—beware of mineral poisons—beware of Quacks and Fakirs. OUR NEW METHOD TREATMENT is guaranteed to cure this disease, never to return. Bank Bonds will protect you. Our treatment is not injurious in any way, but reaches the very root of the disease and eliminates all poison from the system. The symptoms of disease gradually disappear. The blood becomes pure and enriched, the whole system is cleansed and purified, and the patient feels prepared anew for the duties and the pleasures of life. CURES GUARANTEED OR NO PAY. 25 Years in Ohio. 250,000 Cured.

In his testimony before the interstate commerce commission R. M. Olyphant, formerly president of the Delaware & Hudson railroad, said that the coal trust with which he is connected would raise the price of coal 10 cents a month until the maximum advance of 50 cents is reached. His explanation of this policy was that the exigencies of the trade justified the demand. But he did not explain the exigencies, and there was a word of significance in his assertion: "We could get a higher price if we asked for it." The coal trust has been too long defiant of law and public opinion. It affords a splendid opportunity for the government to make a practical test of the value and efficacy of the anti-trust legislation.

An appeal is now being issued by the committee in charge of the work of raising funds for the purchase of a silver service for the battleship Ohio, and for the proposed McKinley medallion figure to be attached to the forward turret of the vessel in memory of the lamented president. It is proposed to spend $25,000 or $30,000 on these mementoes. The sum is small in comparison with the wealth of the state, and the contributions ought to be prompt and ample. Every bank in the state is authorized to receive money for the purpose.

By an ordinance passed by the Columbus city council it will hereafter be a misdemeanor to allow weeds to grow on a vacant lot after notice has been given by the health department to cut them, and the offender is liable to a more or less heavy fine. This is one of the ordinances passed at the instance of the women of the capital city, who are making diligent efforts to rid the city of eyesores and nuisances.

Those newspapers who a short time ago foresaw that Cuba was drifting rapidly toward ruin have another guess. General Maximo Gomez, a visitor in this country, reports that the government is fulfilling the most sanguine expectations, Cuba is prospering and its people contented. Its rally has been wonderful, thanks to the treatment of its skilled physician, Uncle Sam.

Governor Bailey, of Kansas, before election, promised to get married if he got elected. He has now redeemed his campaign pledge and married a widow. Before he made a selection more than 2,000 women of various ages, merits and complexions offered to be his. The governor's experience has been unique, but doubtless not so amusing to him as to others.

The president is said to be impatient over the delay of the Colombian government in ratifying the canal treaty. The impatience is shared by the people. The great work ought to be begun; Uncle Sam is ready, and he will probably make it plain that he is not accustomed to do business on the "tomorrow" principle.

If the Democrats are to make a figure on tariff revision they would better prepare for a long campaign. The senate is decidedly Republican until 1907, and there is not the remotest chance of it being otherwise for a long time after that date.

"The Democratic party," Mr. Bryan declares, "is not the enemy of wealth." Yet, in spite of Mr. Bryan, history records that whenever Democratic policies have triumphed poverty has increased in this country.

The Republican candidate for vice president is already being discussed and Ohio men, as usual, figure most numerously on the list of those receiving honorable mention.

The college that teaches a man to work is filling the highest educational mission.

Uncle Reuben's Opinion.

"They may say what they please, but listen—hear me; I've taken all kinds of laxatives, purgatives and cathartics but when it comes to one that is easy and pleasant to take, mild and gentle in its action, and that makes one want an extra slice of bacon for breakfast, just give me Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets, and you may have all the laxative syrups, dyspepsia medicines and pills little or big, there is in this country. Them Tablets surely do make one feel joyful." For sale by Alvin & Bulger.

Nature hid one of her greatest blessings in the liver of a fish, but practically prohibited its use by the nauseating grease and fishy flavor. Science has now extracted this good without the grease, and presented it to suffering humanity in the form of Hagee's Cordial of Cod Liver Oil.

Lisbon, June 10.—(Special)—The recently organized Columbiana County Medical society held its first monthly meeting in the room of the Business Men's association in this city yesterday afternoon. As the society was just organized at a meeting in East Liverpool a few weeks ago and is not yet fully under way, no regular program was prepared for yesterday's meeting. Several interesting clinical cases were discussed, however, and the secretary, Dr. W. E. Morris, of Lisbon, gave a report of the previous meeting in East Liverpool.

The president, Dr. W. N. Bailey, of East Liverpool, presided. Thirteen new members were added to the society as follows: Dr. William Moore, F. P. Moore, Frank Graham, G. H. Albright, W. C. Nevin, D. J. Jones, and T. B. Marquis, of Lisbon; W. N. Gilmore, West Point; H. E. Blazer and J. A. Lindsay, Salineville; J. S. Campbell, Wellsville; A. L. Cope, Winona, and S. J. Patterson, East Fairfield.

THRILLING FRONTIER TRAGEDY.

The reader who sits to-day in his comfortable home and enjoys the peaceful life of this section of our land can scarcely appreciate the great hardships which the pioneer settlers of Pennsylvania and Ohio endured a century and more ago, as they fought back the wilderness line and brought this rich country under cultivation and civilization. This is the story of the first white child born in the Western Reserve, and of the melancholy fate which overtook it. The first exploring party of settlers whas led into the Reserve by General Moses Cleaveland in 1796. They were hardy men, born to conquer the wilderness and make it blossom as the rose, and they came with the conscious tread of those behind whom were following millions. In the western progress of the Cleaveland party a halt was made at a spot on the southern shore of Lake Erie, where since has grown up the town of Conneaut, Ohio. They were here for some time during the early summer of 1796, and then at length passed on westward to the mouth of the Cuyahoga, where they laid the foundations of a new city which is now known as Cleveland.

Here we leave them, for this story has to do with a brave man and his family who followed alone the track of the Cleaveland party. This man was James Kingsbury, who had in the early summer left his old home in New York state and set out with family and household goods to seek a newer habitation in the virgin Ohio country. Their sad adventures during the following winter furnish one of the most thrilling of frontier tragedies. Kingsbury belonged to that numerous class to whom the promise of new things always seemed the certainty of better things, and the great rich lands lying to the south of Lake Erie seemed like an Eden, or a Canaan, full of promise. Making all preparations possible he followed in the trail of General Cleaveland's surveying party. Only a short time after they had left Conneaut this venturesome family, consisting of husband, wife and several children, arrived at that spot. Constructing a crude cabin close by the lake, these pioneers settled down to spend the winter, being the first family to winter in the Reserve. Their quarters were rude affording but poor accommodations for a man, not to say anything of the more tender woman and children who so bravely set their hands to the conquest of the untamed wilderness. Soon after this rough beginning was made Mr. Kingsbury found that he would have to make a journey back to his former home in the East to attend to some business matters which his sudden departure had compelled him to leave unfinished. This made necessary the leaving of his family alone in that exposed situation, but no one flinched from the hardship, and the husband and father sat out on his way. Weeks went by and the time of his expected return arrived. No sign of his approach was seen. The days passed and the weeks increased. The brave pioneer wife and mother began to fear that death had overtaken her absent loved one, but all she could do was to watch and wait. Food became scarce and they were compelled to reduce their allowance, so that hunger troubled them as well as cold. Their situation was becoming desperate, and there was no way of helping matters. Meantime, back in old York state, Mr. Kingsbury had attended to his business and was just about to set out on his return, when he was taken ill with a fever, which laid him up for long weeks. It would be hard to appreciate his feelings during this enforced delay. At last, well on into the winter, he was able to start back home. At Buffalo he hired an Indian guide, that he might save time. At Presqu Isle he bought twenty pounds of flour, all he could carry. Finally one morning he reached his cabin and the sight made his heart sick. His wife lay in bed ill, and in the advanced stages of emaciation from starvation. By her side lay the body of a child born during his absence, which had died for lack of nourishment. This was the first white child born in the Western Reserve, and such was its early and sad fate, born in a land rich and fertile, only to be starved to death in a few days. The other children were gaunt and hollow-eyed, but still living. The food which the father brought soon turned the tide of life, and trouble vanished for the time. A century has wrought marvelous changes at Conneaut. Where the lone cabin stood is now a busy, growing community of thousands, a commercial center of great activity. The actual site of the Kingsbury cabin has for three-quarters of a century been covered by the encroaching waters of the lake, as the shore line changed. It appears that Mr. Kingsbury in later years moved to the vicinity of Cleveland. Of him it is related that his was the hand which thrust the first sickle into a ripened field of wheat on the Western Reserve. In his later life he became a legislator and judge. During the past winter his grandson, an aged an honored Methodist Episcopal clergyman, died at Alliance, Ohio.

The Victoria Medal.

The Victoria medal is made out of bronze from Russian guns captured in the Crimean war. The design is the work of the prince consort of Queen Victoria. The medals are made separately and only when one is needed. Thus when some soldier or sailor, no matter what his rank may be, has shown "conspicuous bravery or devotion to the country in the presence of danger," as the act reads, the war office sends to the royal jewelers the bronze needed for the metal. It is carefully cast, filed smooth around the edges and then the design is brought out by chasing. The soldier's medal is suspended by a red ribbon and that of the sailor by a blue piece of silk.

A Letter to Mother.

"You promised mother a letter. Write it now," is one of the mottoes on the walls of the Nagasaki Home For Seamen, a motto that, it is asserted, has restrained more men from going wrong than almost any other influence of the place. Wanderers over the globe are not the only ones who need such a reminder. Indeed they might be able to give lessons in filial duty to many who have never realized how fortunate they are that home and mother are not far away, but near at hand.—Youth's Companion.

WELLSVILLE

OLD FASHIONED FOURTH FOR WELLSVILLE

Proposition for a Lively Celebration Now Under Serious Discussion.

The citizens of Wellsville have now begun in earnest to prepare for a glorious Fourth. Several of the labor organizations have taken up the good work and are devoting considerable of their time to aid making the celebration one to be remembered. A plan is now on foot to organize a band for the occasion. The material is here and it would be very little trouble to get it together. All the instruments necessary are in the city. Without any exertion at all a band of 15 pieces could be collected for this day and if things move smoothly the band could still hold together.

Quite a number of the business men of the city are interesting themselves in a general celebration and have expressed their willingness to make a donation. The program now proposed is in the morning to have all the contests, such as foot races, bicycle races, greased pig, greased pole, sack races, etc., and in the afternoon a good ball game at the park and in the evening the fire works.

Fined for Striking His Wife.

William Suggert, who was arrested Monday evening and jailed, was brought before Mayor Fogo yesterday afternoon. He was arrested for assault and battery on charges preferred by his wife, who said he beat her unmercifully, but after he had been placed in jail she wanted him released. Suggert works at E. E. Gamble's meat market and is a rather small man. The wife is large and strong. At the trial the husband stated that he and his wife had had frequent spats but this was the first time he ever struck her. The mayor imposed a fine of $4.60, which was paid. The husband and wife have become reconciled.

Janitor's Bond Approved.

The board of public service held a short meeting yesterday. Little business was transacted. The bond of Janitor Dallas Pittinger in the sum of $1,000 was approved. Stewart voting no. City Engineer Leith was instructed to engage fifty men and begin the work on the contemplated sewer on Charles avenue, from Eighteenth street to Kelly avenue. This sewer has been petitioned for several times by the residents. Mr. Leith was ordered to begin work today.

Repairing the Church.

The entire first floor of the Wellsville M. E. church was taken out yesterday and a new one is being laid with all possible speed. The floor has been in a rather poor condition for some time and a new one will improve the property greatly. The carpenters propose to have the work completed before Sunday, when the children's day exercises will be held. A delightful program has been arranged with an abundance of good music.

Kansas—New York Shipbuilding company, of Camden, N. J., for $4,179,000, and the Vermont to the Fore River Manufacturing company of Weymouth, Mass., for $4,165,000 Secretary Moody has ruled that portable equipment is not to be included in the limit of cost fixed by changes which was $4,212,000 for each ship.

Important Financial Statement.

New York, June 10.—The statement is made on the best of authority that an offer has been made to the syndicate which has agreed to underwrite the $75,000,000 new Pennsylvania railroad stock at 120 by a very important financial interest to take over any part or all of the stock that may come into the syndicate's possession. In fact, it is asserted that this financial interest is ready to take all the new stock. It is intimated that, with its present holdings, the possession of the new stock would probably carry control of that potential property.

CHAMBERLAIN'S EXIT

Rumored Resignation of Great Britain's Colonial Secretary.

HOUSE OF COMMONS IS PACKED

Even If He Is Persuaded to Remain in the Cabinet His Influence as a Political Power in Great Britain Is at Least Temporarily Eclipsed.

London, June 10.—The rumored resignation of Colonal Secretary Chamberlain is the most startling development of the proposal of the chancellor of the exchequer, Mr. Ritchie, to abolish the corn tax, the debate on which kept the House of Commons to-day packed and spellbound until midnight. Even if Premier Balfour persuades Mr. Chamberlain to remain in the cabinet, the colonial secretary's preferential tariff program is hopelessly snowed under, and his influence as a political power in Great Britain at least temporarily eclipsed.

All the members of the government who contributed to the debate vigorously declared themselves as free traders and frankly opposed Mr. Chamberlain's proposals. Except for Mr. Chaplin, not a voice on either side of the house was raised in effective support of Mr. Chamberlain's campaign.

Former members of cabinet and private members, irrespective of party, protested against any dickering with Great Britain's fiscal policy. The Unionists vied with the Liberals in declaring themselves out-and-out free traders. All that was lacking in the complete rout of the Protectionist minister was Mr. Balfour's official pronouncement, as premier, and on behalf of the government that the cabinet as a whole refused to adopt Mr. Chamberlain's views.

"Black Michael" as he is familiarly called, was never seen to better advantage. The ministers sat with troubled faces, Mr. Balfour looking especially dejected. Mr. Chamberlain, deserting his usual place, paler than even usual, then stretched himself nonchalently at the end of the treasury bench. Throughout the afternoon he never exchanged a word with his colleagues. After Mr. Ritchie had denounced the colonial secretary's ideas Mr. Chamberlain stalked out of the chamber without even a nod to Mr. Balfour.

Member after member rose from the Unionist ranks; some who supported Mr. Chaplin refused to "eat their words," with which they had previously supported the government when the corn tax was originally brought in; others lauded Chancellor of the Exchequer Ritchie for his refusal to pander to the spirit of protection; all demanded that Mr. Balfour enlighten them regarding the government's view as a whole.

After the dinner recess the excitement was heightened by the absence of both the colonial secretary and the premier.

The latest gossip in best-informed quarters is to the effect that Mr. Chamberlain will not speak and that he will not resign, while the government will endeavor to dispose of the Irish land bill and stave off affairs until October.

Militia Company Not Molested.

Topeka, Kas., June 10.—As far as known the Osborne militia company, on the way to St. Francis with the men accused of the killing of Daniel Berry and his sons, has not been molested by the parties of armed settlers W. B. Lockwood, a member of the state legislature, wires that he looks for bloodshed, as the settlers recognize in the present case an opportunity to settle old scores with the cattlemen.

It is seen that the above section provides in every manner for the conditions existing in the question before council and with the object in view of saving every cent possible the members will doubtless carry out the suggestion. They have conformed with one of the requirements, having passed a resolution declaring it necessary to issue bonds and designating the funds. Before further action can be taken, however, the resolution will have to become effective, which will be in ten days. At that time a special meeting will be called. If the work is carried out with dispatch the money will be in the hands of the city treasurer by the middle of July.

A PASSENGER TRAIN WRECKED

Fireman So Badly Scalded That He Died — Thirteen Persons Were Injured.

Louisville, Ky., June 10.—A passenger train on the Louisville & Nashville railroad, from New Orleans to Cincinnati, was wrecked on Muldraugh's Hill, 32 miles south of Louisville. John Keller, of Louisville, the fireman, was so badly scalded that he died. Thirteen persons were injured.

The train had just passed through a tunnel and was rounding a sharp curve when the engine careened and rolled to the bottom of a 60-foot hill, burying the engineer and fireman. The mail car, a combination baggage and express, followed, but were stopped by a large tree. The smoker, a day coach, a Pullman and a dining car also left the track, but remained on the roadbed. One of the rails, torn up by the force of the wreck, passed through the smoker, striking Mr Moorehead, and breaking both his legs. On the train were four physicians, who aided the injured. President Milton H. Smith, of the Louisville & Nashville, was on board, but was uninjured.

Arrested for Embezzlement.

Washington, June 10. — James M. Watson, Jr., a clerk in the office of the auditor for the District of Columbia, and the son-in-law of a wealthy retired railroad contractor, was arrested on a charge of embezzlement of government funds. The amount is estimated at $60,000 to $75,000. The warrant makes the specific charge of embezzlement of $8,000, which represents only a portion of the alleged peculations. Watson was not bonded, and in case he or his relatives, several of whom are said to eb wealthy, fail to make good the alleged losses, Auditor J. T. Petty will be held responsible for the amount. The auditor's bond is for $20,000.

Jackson, Ky., June 10—The jury to try Curtis Jett and Tom White, charged with the shooting of J. B. Marcum, was completed. The present indications are that the taking of testimony will be commenced before noon. The jury are all Magoffin county farmers, who said they knew none of the details of the tragedy. They were accepted after many arguments, challenges and the filing of numerous affidavits. A detail of soldiers joined the elisor in attendance upon the jury. Both sides seem satisfied with the body. The defense exhausted its 15 peremptory challenges and the prosecution used three of its five.

No More Indiscriminate Firing.

Frankfort, Ky., June 10.—A long conference was held here, in which Governor Beckham, State Inspector H. B. Hines, Col. Roger William, in command at Jackson, and Major E. W. Lillard, second in command, participated. At its close the state guard officers left for Jackson, accompanied by the state inspector, who will look into the situation there and report to the executive. The officers were directed by the governor to issue notice to the people of Breathitt county that any more indiscriminate firing in the town of Jackson will be considered an attack on the soldiers and the parties guilty of it will be severely dealt with.

How Oysters Grow.

A man who has devoted much time to the study of the oyster says that this bivalve is born with his shell on and that he grows only in the summer time. The beard of an oyster is not only his breathing organ—that is, his lungs—but it also serves to convey food to his mouth. When the warm, calm days of June come the oyster opens his shell and by means of his beard begins building an additional story to his house. This he does by depositing very, very fine particles of carbonate of lime till at last they form a substance as thin as silver paper and exceedingly fragile. Then he adds more and more till at last the new shell is as hard as the old shell.

GIANTS RAN UP ENORMOUS SCORE

The Cubans Defeated Wellsville 20 to 3, But the Game Was Interesting.

In a game that was exceedingly interesting at times the Wellsville boys were badly defeated yesterday afternoon, at Central park, by the Cuban X Giants. Barring some of the errors the home team played a good game and deserves credit for being able to score against such a strong team.

The Cubans were first to bat and secured one run, but not a hit. Grant went down on a dead ball and on an error scored. In the third two men went to first on errors and Smith, the heavy man, placed the ball over the left field fence for a home run.

After the fourth things began to look bad. In the sixth, by bunching five hits, three Wellsville men crossed the plate. The home team could hit the ball fairly well, but Jordan would catch the boys napping on bases and throw them out. The eighth inning proved a slaughter. The first five of the visitors secured good clean hits and with a two-bagger added by Smith, seven runs were scored. In the ninth the Giants secured one more.

The redeeming features of the home team were the long catches made by Patterson and Hamilton.

The Marines, of the East Liverpool league, lost to the Athletics of New Castle yesterday by a score of 9 to 3. The locals say that they were never accorded such unfair treatment as that received at the hands of the Pennsylvania boys. They state that had they been given a fair deal they would have won the game easily. The score was as follows, notwithstanding that Pittsburg papers published it differently:

Hollenden, 4; Imperials, 3.

The Imperial and Hollenden teams played at Columbian park yesterday afternoon, the latter winning in an exciting seven-inning contest, the game being called to permit another contest to be played upon the grounds. Ferguson and Rigby, the opposing twirlers, were very effective and kept the base hits well scattered. The fielding of both teams was sharp. Following is the score:

SPORTING MISCELLANY.

Murphy has left the St. Louis National league team.

At least $50,000 found its way into the "bookies" pocketbooks on the defeat of Hermis.

A scrap between Fred Clarke and Barney Dreyfuss may lose Fred his job as manager of the Pirates.

Pitcher Dunleavey will join the St. Louis Nationals in a few days. He has been doing college work in the east.

Manager Clark Griffith, of the New York American club, is after all the stars in base ball he can secure. One of the players he is after is Ed Delehanty.

In Washington a fund is being raised to provide tickets to the Fourth of July games for all the inmates of orphan asylums and for boys of the street.

WEAK, NERVOUS, WORN OUT WOMEN

The world is full of women whose life is one long struggle against diseases peculiar to their sex—whose days and nights are full of quiet, patient suffering. The head the seat of pain and pressure—the result of nerve depression and physical weakness brought on by uterine or ovarian trouble—the nerves on edge—inclined to laugh or cry at anything—an ever present dragging in the back, hips and limbs—a feeling of utter weariness, lassitude and despondency. To these people the Dr. A. W. Chase Nerve Pills are of incomparable value, having as they do the power to rebuild, to reinvigorate and resupply every organ, every nerve, every muscle, with the lost energy and to ensure a complete return to health, strength and vigor again.

Mrs. Margaret Tracy, of No. 178 Seventh street, East Liverpool, Ohio, says: "One of my family was very nervous, subject to nervous spells—weak and miserable—could not sleep and the indigestion was very poor. I asked the invalid to take Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills I got at Larkins' drug store. The result was splendid—the medicine built her up—enriched the blood—made the nerves strong—gave restful sleep and so strengthened the stomach that digestion is perfect—the old time languid, played out feeling has given place to one of strength and energy and as a result we are more than pleased with the medicine."

FLOOD AT ST. LOUIS

OFFICIAL HIGH WATER MARK

Cause of the Rise Problematical—Forecaster Bowie Says It Will Be of Short Duration and the Decline Will Be Rapid.

St. Louis, Mo., June 10.—The Mississippi flood, which began to recede after reaching a stage of 37.5 feet, began a rapid rise, establishing the highest official watermark ever recorded in St. Louis. The rise was rapid after the dawn of day, the water creeping up from 37.1 feet, steadily increasing until at noon the stage had reached 37.75 feet. From that time the river remained stationary.

What has caused the rise is problematical. Forecaster Bowie says the rise will be of short duration and the decline consequently will be rapid.

A report has been current all day that nine persons were drowned by the capsizing of a boat near the Madison railroad depot, but despite all efforts this report has not been confirmed.

It is estimated that 8,000 refugees have found shelter in St. Louis and vicinity. It is also estimated that 4,000 people are still living in flooded homes in Granite City, Venice and Madison. A supply boat has been outfitted and will make daily trips to relieve suffering.

The flood situation in East St. Louis is still critical. It was believed that the flood had been conquered, and work on the levees was stopped, but the additional rise caused work on the levees to be resumed and all business was abandoned once more.

The viaduct leading from East St Louis to the East bridge, which was a viewing point for thousands of people, was ordered closed, as it is believed the water has weakened the abutments and rendered the bridge dangerous. Trains crossing the Eads bridge must stop at the relay station and passengers are taken by boat to land and transported to places where waiting trains can be boarded.

Reports are received constantly that river thieves are continuing to loot submerged houses of the three stricken cities north of East St. Louis.

Reports indicate that both the Missouri and Mississippi rivers are falling above here. Heavy winds probably had much to do with forcing backwater from lowlands into the channel and helped to cause the rise. For this reason it is believed that the flood crisis is over and a steady decline will continue until normal conditions prevail once more.

Word was received here at 2:10 o'clock that the water is rushing into East St. Louis from the southside in a torrent and people are fleeing for their lives. The heavy pressure that tore away the Illinois Central embankment swept other barriers aside and flowed on in a torrent into the southern portion of the city. There is no means of communication except by telephone, and the excitement is so great that little can be learned.

DARING AND DASTARDLY CRIME

Three Men Held Up By Three Highwaymen, Who Shot and Robbed Two of Them.

Wilkesbarre, June 10.—One of the most daring and dastardly crimes ever perpetrated in this city took place in the southern part of the town. Three men, all delegates to the Staats Verband convention of German Catholic societies, in session here, were walking from Memorial hall toward the hotel where the Altoona delegation were stopping. They were John Baltes, of this city, Benedict Kressler and John Weidman, the latter from Altoona. Just before they reached their hotel they were held up by three highwaymen, who shot and robbed Baltes and Kressler, Weidman escaping without injury. Baltes was shot twice in the abdomen and was removed to the Mercy hospital, where he died. Kressler, who was shot in the calf of the right leg, was cared for by the police and was removed to his hotel, where he is getting along nicely.

A suspect was arrested, who gave his name as George Stroh, of Pittston. Later this afternoon it turns out that he is John Plunkett, of that city. He is being held for further investigation. The county commissioners will meet to-morrow and offer a large reward for the apprehension of the assassins.

Shot for Refusing to Halt.

Kansas City, Mo., June 10.—For refusing to obey the command to halt, Albert Hurley was shot and mortally wounded by John Maloney, a member of Company A, Sixth United States infantry, who was doing guard duty in Kansas City, Kas., where a mild form of martial law has been in force since the flood.

Relief for Flood Sufferers.

Topeka, Kan., June 10.—It is expected that a special session of the Kansas legislature will be called to pass bills for the relief of the flood sufferers. Word has been received from 25 members of the legislature promising to serve without pay. Nearly $60,000 is now in the flood relief.

MONEY AT AUCTION

In the year 1864 the citizens of Salineville and the farmers of the surrounding neighborhood started a subscription for the purpose of bringing home and burying their soldier dead and erecting a suitable monument to their memory. A large sum was subscribed, but the project was permitted to lag and only about $90 was paid in. Frank Rogers was appointed custodian of this fund. Some $50 was expended in the bringing home and burial of dead soldiers. The remainder of the subscription was kept by the treasurer in a sealed envelope, just as it had been paid to him, until a few days ago, when it was turned over to the Grand Army of the Republic post of that village.

The different pieces of money which had been donated by citizens, almost all of whom have since died, were sold at auction and the proceeds will be applied to the soldiers' monument, the erection of which is again being agitated.

Improvements Delayed.

Cleveland, June 10.—F. D. Underwood, of the Erie railroad, who was in this city, said that because of the scarcity of labor extensive improvements to be made on that road cannot be started before fall. Regarding the probable changing of the route of the road so as to put this city on the main line of the Erie road, Mr. Underwood said that the matter was under consideration, and that surveyors are going over the ground.

RAILROAD COLLISION

COLLIDES WITH LOCAL FREIGHT

Every Effort of the Crew to Retard the Speed of the Train Was of No Avail — Three Were Killed and Three Injured.

Altoona, Pa., June 10.—Control of a southbound heavily loaded freight train was lost on its descent down the Allegheny mountains on the Tyrone division of the Pennsylvania railroad when going at a high rate of speed at Fowelton station, three miles east of Philipsburg. It crashed with fearful velocity into a local freight train. Three men were killed and three seriously injured.

The dead—Jacob Bolger, engineer, Tyrone; Andrew Friday, brakeman, Tyrone; Robert Wilson, brakeman, Curwensville. The injured — Oeliz Burley, engineer; Earl White, fireman; Harry Edwards, brakeman. The three latter are all residents of Tyrone. The runaway train had three engines, but the two leading engines had been cut loose and the pushing engine was unable to hold the heavy train. Every effort of the crew to retard the speed of the train in its wild dash was of no avail.

When the local freight was overtaken there came a terrific crash and a dozen or more cars were smashed to splinters. In one of the cars of the local freight were 25 mules. Most of them were killed, while a few escaped with severe injuries. Their shrieks could be plainly heard above the noise of the wreck. The accident occurred on a sharp curve during a severe rain storm and the local freight crew had no opportunity of seeing the approaching runaway.

Trial of Robert A. Ammon.

New York, June 10.—Two jurors were selected to take the places of the two withdrawn, for the trial of Robert A. Ammon, former attorney for the Franklin syndicate, and the trial proceeded. In his opening address the assistant district attorney said it would be shown that before going to Canada, Miller, the ostensible head of the syndicate, turned over to Ammon $195,000. Miller, who is serving a term in Sing Sing for the part he took in the operations of the Franklin syndicate, was on the stand during the day. He gave evidence as to the organization and operation of the syndicate. Ammon's alleged connection with the syndicate had not been mentioned when adjournment for the day was reached.

Shot Himself Through the Heart.

Shoals, Ind., June 10. — Arthur Lyons, the slayer of his stepmother, who has been a fugitive from justice for several days in this county, pursued by a posse of several hundred shot himself through the heart as he stood hemmed in on every side by a band of enraged farmers. The members of the posse were within 20 feet of him before he fired. Young Lyons was driven from the woods by the posse and in an instant was the target for a dozen guns. He returned the fire and made his escape round a turn in the road. Later he was overtaken, and ,turning toward his pursuers, who were but a short distance behind, he shot himself through the heart.

Spurs for Archie Roosevelt.

Deadwood, S. D., June 10.—Capt. Seth Bullock, of Deadwood, has ordered as a present for Archie Roosevelt, third son of President Roosevelt, a handsome pair of cowboy's spurs made on special order. They are handmade, and represent the highest skill in forging and finishing. They are of the regulation cowboy pattern, with drop shank, large rowels and locks, with wide hand stamped russet leather straps and gold conchas. The spurs are silver-mounted and chased with an artistic design. The boy for whom they are intended rode much with Captain Bullock when the latter was in Washington.

Fugitive from Justice.

Chicago, June 10.—Herman B. Wickersham, former president of the Lincoln Park board, is a fugitive from justice. His bonds in each of six cases were declared forfeited. Wickersham is under indictment for larceny, embezzlement, and for obtaining money by false pretenses. His methods are said to have been to secure money from persons whom he represented for investment in mortgages, which money he secured by worthless deeds and mortgages with himself named as trustee and acting as counsel for the investor. Nearly 50,000 is alleged to have been thus misused by him.

Articles of Incorporation Filed.

Washington, June 10.—The American and Mexican Smelting and Refining company filed articles of incorporation here. Its capital is $30,000,000. The incorporators are O. S. Lee, N. C. Clark and Edwin Christy. The company is empowered to own, lease and operate mines. The main office will be in New York city and branch offices will be established throughout the west. E. R. Holden, of New York, formerly of Colorado, probably will be the general manager of the new corporation.

Another club woman, Mrs. Haule, of Edgerton, Wis., tells how she was cured of irregularities and uterine trouble, terrible pains and backache by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

"A while ago my health began to fail because of female troubles. The doctor did not help me. I remembered that my mother had used Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound on many occasions for irregularities and uterine troubles, and I felt sure that it could not harm me at any rate to give it a trial.

"I was certainly glad to find that within a week I felt much better, the terrible pains in my back and side were beginning to cease, and at the time of menstruation I did not have nearly as serious a time as heretofore, so I continued its use for two months, and at the end of that time I was like a new woman. I really have never felt better in my life, have not had a sick headache since, and weigh 20 pounds more than I ever did, so I unhesitatingly recommend Vegetable Compound." — Mrs. May Haule, Edgerton, Wis., President Household Economics Club. — $5000 forfeit if original of above letter proving genuineness cannot be produced.

Women should remember there is one tried and true remedy for all female ills, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Refuse to buy any other medicine, you need the best.

ON HIS JOURNEY TO CLEVELAND

Everything Going Smoothly and Indications Are That the Train Will Be On Time.

York, Pa., June 10.—President Roosevelt passed through York on a special train, en route for Cleveland, where he will attend the Hanna-McCormick wedding. The train passed slowly through the city and at every crossing he was greeted by crowds of people and heartily cheered. The President appeared on the platform of the rear coach, and waved his hand to the crowds.

Harrisburg, June 10. — The President's train arrived at Harrisburg at 7:40, and during a five minutes' wait the engine and crews were changed. When the train pulled into the station the President was seated in the rear of the last coach reading a book. A small crowd quickly gathered on the otuside and applauded. Mr. Roosevelt laid down his book and walked out onto the platform. "Good evening, ladies and gentlemen," he said, "I am glad to be with you once again. It is a great pleasure, I assure you."

Altoona, June 10.—President Roosevelt's special train en route to Cleveland, arrived at 11:30. The train consists of a combination baggage car, the Pullman sleeper, "Texas," and Pullman drawing-room car, "Elysian." On account of the lateness of the hour only a small crowd gathered at the station. The President is accompanied by his daughter, Miss Alice, Commander Cowles, Private Secretary Loeb and two detectives. So far the trip was uneventful.

Will Rely on the Police.

Cleveland, June 10.—None of the relatives of Leon Czolgosz, the assassin of President McKinley, will be placed in jail during President Roosevelt's visit to Cleveland to attend the marriage of Miss Ruth Hanna, daughter of Senator M. A. Hanna, to Joseph Medill McCormick. While the President was on his western tour a brother of the assassin was placed in jail in Los Angeles, as a precautionary step in the interest of the President's welfare. The Cleveland police think this step is unnecessary here, but members of the Czolgoscz family will be kept under close surveillance during the President's stay.

Destructive Fire at Palm Beach.

West Palm Beach, Fla., June 10.—At 11:30 The Breakers, the smaller of the two largest hotels at Palm Beach, was seen to be in flames. The hotel building, power house, Cory's block of stores, the Casino, south of the hotel, and one of the large cottages north of the hotel were destroyed. Some furniture from the hotel was saved, but it was badly damaged. The losses are: The Breakers, $500,000; furniture, $200,000; Casino, cottage and Cory block, about $25,000. Other losses are about $5,000. The hotel was insured for $300,000.

Cured His Mother of Rheumatism.

"My mother has been a sufferer for many years with rheumatism," says W. H. Howard, of Husband, Pa. "At times she was unable to move at all, while at all times walking was painful. I presented her with a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm and after a few applications she decided it was the most wonderful pain reliever she had ever tried, in fact, she is never without it now and is at all times able to walk. An occasional application of Pain Balm keeps away the pain that she was formerly troubled with." For sale by Alvin & Bulger.

A wedding of interest to many East Liverpool citizens took place at Nashville, Tenn., when Miss Parthenia Calhoon, of this city, and Mr. Albert M. Bailey, of Memphis, were married June 3. Miss Calhoon was prominent in the social circles of this city previous to her departure for Bowling Green, Ky., where she was taking a course in music at Potter Female college. The marriage was quite a society event at Nashville, as the ceremony was both romantic and pretty. In the presence of a number of friends the ceremony was performed by Rev. J. H. Early, pastor of the State street Methodist church. The bride wore an elaborate gown of white crepe de chine over taffeta silk. An elegant decoration and trimming of tucks and spider-web lace were used as an embellishment for the gown. The bride carried a shower bouquet of white carnations and lilies of the valley.

Mr. Bailey is an active young business man of Memphis and is connected with the firm of J. C. McCrory & Co. The couple were given a reception following the ceremony.

Wedding at Sebring.

A quiet wedding occurred at the home of Rev. and Mrs. C. W. Huffer in Sebring, their daughter, Miss Iva, being married to Joseph May, of East Liverpool, only a few of the immediate friends of the family being present to witness the ceremony. The nuptials were pronounced at high noon, the bride's father officiating. Both are popular young people, the bride being a lady of refinement and culture, and the groom a bookkeeper in one of the local potteries. The happy couple left for a brief wedding visit with friends, after which they will take up their home in this city.

Birthday Party.

Miss Ruby Alice Wase, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Wase, this evening will give an elaborate entertainment to about 20 of her friends at her home at 115 Spring street, in celebration of her fourteenth birthday. The hours will be from 7:30 to 10:30. Progressive peanuts and a donkey contest will occupy most of the time.

THE DESTROYED WILL OF ABRAHAM HARTLEY

Lisbon, June 10.—(Special.)—The Hartley will case of Salineville was in progress when court adjourned last evening. Several of the plaintiff's witnesses were examined yesterday afternoon, the plaintiff's attorney endeavoring to show that the deceased, Abraham Hartley, had destroyed his will some time before his death with the intention of revoking it, thus revoking that which was probated. Miss Lena Hartley, the plaintiff and principal witness in the case, was on the stand and said she went to make her home with her father at his request two or three years before his death. She said his last will was written by Attorney Moore, of Salineville, and that her father kept it in a desk from which he frequently took it and had her read it to him.

One day, three or four weeks before his death, she said her father declared his intention of burning a lot of documents that he had already kept too long, as he expressed it, and she saw them thrown upon the grate fire and destroyed. The day after the funeral she said she examined the papers in his desk, and the will was not there.

It seems that the defendants in this case were not blood relatives of the deceased, and his children feel that he rued his determination to make two of them the executors of his will and heirs to a large part of his estate, and therefore destroyed the document.

Conference Was Fruitless.

In accordance with the order given the grievance committee at the last meeting of Trades Council, the members of that body met with the painters and Contractor Dinerstein last night, but very little was accomplished. Both sides were heard by the committee, and when the conference had ended there was little to relate. Dinerstein asserts that he is in need of men, but will not hire any of the painters not idle. He says they are not competent, and the journeymen maintain that the contractor does not stand in need of workmen at all.

FEDERAL UNION HAS BEEN FORMED

Labor Organization Much Needed in the City Has Been Launched.

Organizer Charles Kontnier last night formed the organization to be known as the Federal Union of East Liverpool. The gentleman has been at work on the project for some time, and has refrained from doing anything toward instituting the union until everything was in readiness. It was feared that hasty action would spoil the prospects of the new organization. Since the union will be composed wholly of laborers and will be made up of workmen from every vocation, it was necessary that all classes of men be interested before the move was made.

The need of an organization of this character has long been felt in the city; for, in case of trouble or disputes in any of the regular trades unions, it has heretofore been a difficult matter to control the laborers. The list of officers is not made public for certain reasons, and will not be given out for a week at least.

Went East to Wed.

William Leigh left for the east this week and he did not go alone. When he departed from this city he was accompanied by Miss Julia King, one of the handsomest and most popular young ladies of the town. Though no pains were taken to conceal their actions, no one was taken into their confidence, and the friends of the young couple are left to draw their own conclusions. It is said the pair went to Washington for the purpose of being married, and news confirming this belief is expected daily.

Animals Becoming Extinct.

Every century sees several species of animal becoming extinct. In the race for life the weak must yield to the strong, and because they are persistently sought for food or for feathers not only individuals but whole families cease to exist. The disappearance of the great auk can be laid to the nineteenth century. It became extinct on the American side of the Atlantic about 1840 and in Europe about 1844. The South African quagga disappeared about 1870 owing to the slaughter by hide hunters. The twin shelled tortoise of the Galapagos islands became extinct in all probability about 1875. The black emu of South Australia was also exterminated during the century, though it was abundant in 1803. The great cormorant was last seen alive about 1839, and many other species of birds from all parts of the world have likewise been exterminated. In the Danish West India islands, for example, out of fourteen species catalogued in 1795 only six still exist, and a similar history can be told of many other localities.

Shelley Liked Bread.

The poet Shelley was very simple in his tastes and found his chief pleasure in long, solitary rambles. Bread became his chief sustenance when his regimen attained to that austerity which afterward distinguished it. He could have lived on bread alone without repining.

"Do you know," he said one day to a friend, with much surprise, "that Mr. G. does not like bread? Did you ever know a person who disliked bread?" His friend explained to him that Mr. G. probably had no objection to bread in moderate quantity at a proper time and with the usual adjuncts and was only unwilling to devour several pounds of dry bread at a meal.

Shelley had no such objection; his pockets were generally well stored with bread. Sometimes he ate with his bread the common raisins which he bought at small grocers' shops.

Sea Serpents Breathe Air.

Like all other serpents, the sea serpents, though permanently inhabiting the sea, are air breathers. The lateral flattening of their tails greatly helps them to swim in any direction, and it specially enables them to rise rapidly to the surface of the water to breathe. That they may do this the more easily and securely their nostrils are placed at the very end of the muzzle and are furnished with valves, which secure them from being entered by the water in which they live.

Unlike other snakes, they cast their skins in small pieces. Their eyes are not adapted to see well out of water, and thus they cannot when in the air take a good aim to bite. They feed on small fishes, which they paralyze by means of their poison, and thus they have nothing to fear from the spines of the fishes they eat.

Mimickry In Caterpillars.

A very large caterpillar stretched itself from the foliage of a tree which I was examining and startled me by its resemblance to a small snake. The first three segments behind the head were dilatable at the will of the insect and had on each side a large black pupillated spot, which resembled the eye of the snake. It was a poisonous or viperine species mimicked and not an innocuous snake. This was proved by the imitation of keeled scales on the crown, which was produced by the recumbent fold as the caterpillar threw itself backward. I carried off the caterpillar and alarmed every one in the village where I was then living to whom I showed it.—"Records of a Naturalist In the Amazon."

Two Tales of Truffled Turkeys.

The Abbe Morelet was accustomed to say: "There needs be two to eat a truffled turkey. I never do otherwise. I have one today. We will be two—the turkey and myself."

The archbishop of Sanzai was another truffled turkey lover. His grand vicar had lost a turkey to him on a bet and delayed paying up because, as he alleged, "truffles were bad that year."

"Bah! Bah!" said the archbishop. "We will chance the truffles. This is a false report that has been circulated by the turkeys."—"The Pleasures of the Table," by G. H. Ellwanger.

Toilet of the Cat.

A Chinaman's Smoke.

In Persia and in Japan pipes about the size of a baby's thimble are used, providing two draws, a great waste of time. It is the Chinaman, however, who in smoking gets endless work out of practically nothing at all.

He carries a little box about twice the size of an ordinary silver cigarette case. This is half filled with water. In one end is a removable tiny tube to serve as pipe. At the other end is the pipestem. First of all, he removes the tube and blows through it to remove all blockage. Then he fumbles through his awkward clothes, searching for tobacco and produces a bit of rag in which it is wrapped.

Carefully he extracts a wad of tobacco, puts away his rag and slowly plugs the tube, which holds perhaps the tenth part of an ordinary cigarette. But he never has any matches.

So he has to borrow or hunt out a brown paper stem and light it—it glows for a long time and can be puffed into flame again—he gives a long draw; slowly, appreciatively, the smoke oozes from between his Celestial lips; he spits; he draws again and gets small result. The smoke is over. He removes the tube, blows through it, and the proceeding begins all over again.

The Heart.

The human heart is practically a force pump about six inches in length and four inches in diameter. It beats 70 times per minute, 4,200 times per hour, 100,800 times per day and 36,792,000 times per year and 2,575,440,000 times in seventy years, which is "man's appointed threescore years and ten." At each of these beats it forces 2½ ounces of blood through the system, 175 ounces per minute, 656¼ pounds per hour or 703 tons per day. All the blood in the body, which is about thirty pounds, passes through the heart every three minutes. This little organ pumps every day what is equal to lifting 122 tons one foot high or one ton 122 feet high—that is, one ton to the top of a forty yard mill chimney or sixteen persons seven score each to the same height. During the seventy years of a man's life this marvelous little pump, without a single moment's rest, night or day, discharges the enormous quantity of 178,850 tons of blood.
